"We cannot, therefore, subscribe to the illagitimate assumptions of "Squatter Sovereignty."
We are clearly of opinion that a Territory of through an expenditure of their treasure, and it

The Democracy of this State, under the sagacious lead of Mr. Robert Tyler, of Virginia, are therefore plainly on the record as the friends of Congressional Intervention for the protection of Slavery in the territories. The application of the law, thus construed, to the property occupied by the Catholic clergy of Cincinnati has, it seems, made them very angry, and on the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of the new catholic lustitute, in Cincinnati, a few days ago, Archbishop Purcell took occasion to say, in his remarks, that "the Auditor who would tax the Archbishop's private residence is no man, and the way as I have said. It is well known that in 1856 the democracy of this State carried on the campaign on the ground that Congress was not sovereign in the territories, and that the people thereof were sovereign, and had therefore the right to regulate their own institutions in their own way.
