Miss Warr, who robbod the man, Mr. Mur-ray, of $2,700 in Wheeling, has given the whele atom into the hands of the rightful owner, who refeased to make any movement sgainst the leo-turces on "Home Ties" and are ho she left. She was not unknown to fame previous to this affair. She was once happily fixed in a comubial state, and eren now bears the same rolation to a loring before the recent resumption of the marital con-dition. Lizzle, after the divorce, took to lond the lecturing on home ites and matrimonial abort-ment with admirable facility.
