Disoadrat House.—A party of about sixteen women, from that notorious locality, Cherry alley, above Sixthetreet, were before the Mayor, Saturday, charged with maintaining disorderly house. The defendants were of nearly overy bue, and were rather a depraved looking party. Complaint had been made to the Mayor in the form of a petition from numerous property-holders and citizens living adjacent, alleging that the witches was too great to be bone, and so a getter and indicated the content of the case of right of way, the Passenger Railway will be open and the contested careas of right of way, may be executed to be sold on the testing to day.

The Mayor announces his determination to prevent, if possible, the maintainance of these executed to day.
