COMMON SENSE rules the mass of the people, whatever the misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing, and prove its be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The present have already ratified the judgment of a physician concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of the medicine that are sold and used in every section of the land. It is now recognized as the great superior to all other remedies, yet derived for diseases of the digestive organs, such as dizziness, dyspepsy, costiveness, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is fast becoming a household word from Maine to Texas, and from shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied. jy23-lydaw

OUTRAGEOUS ATTACK.—As Mr. Joseph Chambers and his wife, who reside on Liberty street, Allegheny, were walking out in company with another lady, Mr. Chambers' wife's sister, on Tuesday evening, they were assailed with indecent language by a couple of rowdies who followed them, and Mr. Chambers was forced to knock one of the indecent parties down. At the sight of the melee the ladies became frightened and ran away, but were pursued by one of the ruffians, who flung a stone and struck Mrs. Chambers on the head, hurting her very much. It was even feared that her skull was fractured.
Mr. Chambers repaired to Ald. Scott's office, yesterday morning, and gave a description of the person who threw the stone, and from certain facts the Alderman was at once led to believe that it was a young man named Jno. Brady—a very loose character, who, if we are informed correctly, served some time in the House of Refuge—and he was accordingly arrested at noon by officer Swayne. On being brought to the Alderman's office he appeared very indignant, stating that he would like to know what they had arrested him for, and made a short but very polished speech, which would have done honor to some of our most distinguished members of the bar.
Mr. Chambers was sent for, who thought, but was not certain, that he recognized in Brady the person who had assaulted him the night previous. On hearing the prisoner make a remark to some one who was standing by, Mr. Chambers was perfectly satisfied that they had the right man, as he at once recognized his voice. He was then taken to Mr. C.'s residence in order to see if Mrs. C. or her sister could recognize him, and he had scarcely entered the house before they both pronounced him as the villain who had attacked them the night previous.
The Alderman then left the young man named John Huff, knowing that he was a particular friend of Brady's, having seen them together on several occasions, brought in as a witness. Huff was unwilling to appear as a witness, which fact the more convinced the Alderman that he knew more about the affair than he was willing to reveal. Finding, however, that he was in a slight place, and that there was no possible chance of getting out of it, he allowed himself to be sworn. He then stated that he had been with Brady on Tuesday evening, on the corner of Ohio street and the East Common; that he saw a gentleman and two ladies pass, but did not know who they were; that he saw Brady throw a stone; did not know that it had hit any one. This was about the sum and substance of his testimony, as near as we could get it.
Brady was then committed to jail for assault and battery with intent to kill, in default of $1000 bail.
Mrs. Chambers' injuries, although severe, are not, we are happy to say, considered dangerous. She was much better last evening.
Much praise is due to officer Swayne for the able and ingenious manner in which he made the arrest, and by his untiring exertions the citizens of Allegheny are rid of at least one dangerous character.

SUSPECTED THIEVES DISCHARGED.—Nicholas Meyers made information before the Mayor, yesterday, against William Faherty and Augustus Evans. Mr. Meyers keeps a boarding house on Market street. These young men boarded with Myers, and came in the house on Tuesday night the worse for liquor. Faherty, it seems, helped Evans to bed and afterwards walked out and will, we hope, be extended along the whole of Front street.

THE Presbyterian Banner & Advocate says that the Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, the pastorate of which is assumed by the Rev. Dr. West, formerly of Pittsburgh, some two years ago, had then only four members. The membership is now twenty-six, while the attendance upon the preaching of the Word and the Sabbath School, is very encouraging. At that time the walls of the church edifice were up to the square of the roof, but a debt of $6,000 rested on the building. Since then, the roof has been put on, the house plastered, and most of the windows put in, and a lecture room capable of accommodating one hundred persons, has been completed, but about $7,000 more will pay off the floating debt, and finish the house entirely. Dr. West also commenced preaching at Hestonville, at 3½ P. M., every Sabbath, in December, 1857; and in May of the present year a church of fifteen members was organized Thus in the whole field occupied by Dr. West, the Presbyterian church has increased from four to forty-one members.

HUCKSTERING.—We mentioned, yesterday, a case in which the Mayor had caused a load of vegetables, which had been purchased in the market for resale, to be unloaded at his office, there to await an owner. The man driving the wagon, a Mr. Goudy, stated that he had been hired by a certain man, whose name he did not know, to haul the load to a certain place, but where he could not exactly tell. But on Tuesday night, after the vegetables had been stored in the Mayor's office, he was anxious that the Mayor or should pay him for drayage. That officer said he would wait till he found the owner and that he doubtless would pay the charges. On yesterday morning, Goudy came and said that he thought that he had better pay and take his things away. So he paid the fine, $5, and the costs, $1, and departed with his cabbage and things, but he didn't ask to be paid the drayage.

THE BRIDGE.—The work on the suspension bridge is rapidly advancing. The workmen are now erecting the iron towers on the pier nearest this shore and making a bed for the anchors in the solid rock. The work of excavating in St. Clair street, for the sewer and other necessary fixtures to complete this end of the structure, is going forward. An immense excavation, not less than eighteen feet in depth, among solid rock, occupies about one-half the width of St. Clair street, near the bridge, and for the present renders nearly all that street beyond Penn impassable. The necessary machinery for placing the wires is in the vicinities of the anchorages, and the building materials are being brought to the spot in large quantities. The work is now about the sum and substance of his testimony, as near as we could get it.

BAGALEY'S BUILDING.—Mr. Bagaley's building, on the corner of Market and Front street, is now finished in the third story. On Front street it is all of iron, quite elaborately finished and presenting a very neat appearance. On the main entrance, and under a fine arched window, the name "Bagaley's Building" appears, cast in with the iron.
The fronts on Market street is all iron to the second story. The rest of the stories are separated from each other, or rather their line of junction is marked by a heavy iron band of castings some eight or twelve inches deep. This rests upon the brick work below and sustains the work above. The bricks are of the kind called "pressed," and are laid very handsomely. The building is very spacious, and has been, we believe, all let in advance of completion. It is very thoroughly built, from the ground up. The side-walk is a most decided improvement upon any between Wood and Market on that street, and will, we hope, be extended along the whole of Front street.

BEFORE ALDERMAN SCOTT, OF ALLEGHENY.—This indefatigable magistrate had six common cases before him yesterday. The first one on the list was John Peters, who was arrested on a charge of drunkenness and committed to jail for two days.
Gustavus Kiser, John Orr, Frederick Kent and his wife Mary, were all arrested on a similar charge and committed forty-eight hours respectively.
Elizabeth Orr was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and sent five days to jail.

ALUMNI.—An Alumni Association of the graduates of Westminster College, at New Wilmington, Lawrence county, was organized at their late Commencement, and D. W. Rambo elected President, and F. I. Moffat, Secretary. The gentleman appointed to deliver the first address, at the meeting next year, is J. G. Barnes, Esq., Thomas Hamm, Esq., being the alternate. The time of the annual meeting has been fixed on the evening preceding the Commencement.

THE State Teachers Association will meet at West Chester, Pa., on the 23d of August. Excursion tickets, we hear, are to be issued on many railroads throughout the State. Ample preparations are making in the town for the accommodation of the expected visitors.

We learn that a man named Brown was killed at M'Alesse's landing, just above M'Keesport, on Tuesday, by falling under the wheels of his wagon, becoming entangled with the harness, and being dragged to some distance. We are informed that he was dead when picked up.

STEALING A COAT.—The Mayor had before him yesterday forenoon three young fellows—mere boys—charged with stealing a coat from Mr. Charles Carpenter, clerk of the steamer Clifton. The boys' names are Charles Foster, Frederic Silies and David Porter. Mr. Carpenter missed his coat, which he had taken off and laid in the cabin. He had suspicions of where it had gone. These three young fellows had left as passengers for Cincinnati, on the Dr. Kane, in the afternoon. She had gone as far as Glass House Ripple and struck there. Officer Wray went down to the boat, took charge of, went on board and assured Foster of the theft. He stoutly denied it and, Wray searched his bundle, but could find nothing. After a few minutes, Porter, who was effting or lying near by, got up, went to a pile of bags or something of that kind and pulled out the missing coat. Porter, on his examination yesterday, said that he was pretending to be asleep when Foster came on board the Dr. Kane; that he saw Foster come on, take off the outside thin coat which he was wearing, and after the cloth coat, which was under it, and that he (Foster) went and hid the latter in the place which Porter took it from when Wray came on board the Dr. Kane.
Foster said that he made the Captain of the Clifton were talking in the cabin of that boat; that the Captain, seeing the coat on the cabin, asked whose it was, and Foster said it was Carpenter's, when he (Foster) took the coat and put it in the Steward's room, and when he went soon after to get it for Carpenter it was gone. Silies didn't seem to know anything at all about the matter. He was suffering, evidently, because he was in bad company. He was discharged and Porter and Foster committed to answer.

On yesterday morning, Goudy came and said that he thought that he had better pay and take his things away. So he paid the fine, $5, and the costs, $1, and departed with his cabbage and things, but he didn't ask to be paid the drayage.

THE BRIDGE.—The work on the suspension bridge is rapidly advancing. The workmen are now erecting the iron towers on the pier nearest this shore and making a bed for the anchors in the solid rock. The work of excavating in St. Clair street, for the sewer and other necessary fixtures to complete this end of the structure, is going forward. An immense excavation, not less than eighteen feet in depth, among solid rock, occupies about one-half the width of St. Clair street, near the bridge, and for the present renders nearly all that street beyond Penn impassable. The necessary machinery for placing the wires is in the vicinities of the anchorages, and the building materials are being brought to the spot in large quantities. The work is now about the sum and substance of his testimony, as near as we could get it.

BAGALEY'S BUILDING.—Mr. Bagaley's building, on the corner of Market and Front street, is now finished in the third story. On Front street it is all of iron, quite elaborately finished and presenting a very neat appearance. On the main entrance, and under a fine arched window, the name "Bagaley's Building" appears, cast in with the iron.
The fronts on Market street is all iron to the second story. The rest of the stories are separated from each other, or rather their line of junction is marked by a heavy iron band of castings some eight or twelve inches deep. This rests upon the brick work below and sustains the work above. The bricks are of the kind called "pressed," and are laid very handsomely. The building is very spacious, and has been, we believe, all let in advance of completion. It is very thoroughly built, from the ground up. The side-walk is a most decided improvement upon any between Wood and Market on that street, and will, we hope, be extended along the whole of Front street.

THE Presbyterian Banner & Advocate says that the Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, the pastorate of which is assumed by the Rev. Dr. West, formerly of Pittsburgh, some two years ago, had then only four members. The membership is now twenty-six, while the attendance upon the preaching of the Word and the Sabbath School, is very encouraging. At that time the walls of the church edifice were up to the square of the roof, but a debt of $6,000 rested on the building. Since then, the roof has been put on, the house plastered, and most of the windows put in, and a lecture room capable of accommodating one hundred persons, has been completed, but about $7,000 more will pay off the floating debt, and finish the house entirely. Dr. West also commenced preaching at Hestonville, at 3½ P. M., every Sabbath, in December, 1857; and in May of the present year a church of fifteen members was organized Thus in the whole field occupied by Dr. West, the Presbyterian church has increased from four to forty-one members.

Elizabeth Orr was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and sent five days to jail.

ALUMNI.—An Alumni Association of the graduates of Westminster College, at New Wilmington, Lawrence county, was organized at their late Commencement, and D. W. Rambo elected President, and F. I. The time of the annual meeting has been fixed on the evening preceding the Commencement.

THE State Teachers Association will meet at West Chester, Pa., on the 23d of August. Excursion tickets, we hear, are to be issued on many railroads throughout the State. Ample preparations are making in the town for the accommodation of the expected visitors.

We learn that a man named Brown was killed at M'Alesse's landing, just above M'Keesport, on Tuesday, by falling under the wheels of his wagon, becoming entangled with the harness, and being dragged to some distance. We are informed that he was dead when picked up.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.
Arrival of the Europa.

SACKVILLE, N. B., July 27.—The Bank of England has reduced the rate of discount to 2½ per cent. further particulars have transpired beyond the fact that the Princes of Tuscany and Modena are to return to their States. The result of the treaty is generally misapprehended in England.
The Emperor Napoleon was on his way home. He was expected to reach Paris on the 15th inst., when announced in his address to the army. He says that the peace was concluded because the contest was about to assume proportions no longer in keeping with the interests France had in the war.
The Emperor of Austria had left the army and was on his way to Vienna. He had issued an order of the day, in which he says, alluding to the treaty of peace that he yielded to the unfavorable political situation in which he was placed, because his natural allies did not, as was expected, come to his assistance. Count Cavour and the Sardinia Cabinet had resigned, and it is reported that the reasons for this step were on account of the terms of peace being unsatisfactory.
Count Arese has been charged with the formation of a new Cabinet.
Letters from Paris note much discontent there concerning the terms of peace, although peace itself gave satisfaction. The Paris Siecle objects that Austrian influence is still suffered to remain in Italy, and calls for the expulsion of petty Italian princes who are but the confederates of Austria.
Napoleon, on his arrival in France, would proceed direct to St. Cloud, deferring his official entre in Paris till he makes it at the head of the army.
The Emperor and the King of Sardinia entered Turin on the 15th, amid the enthusiastic acclamation of the people.
The Austrian correspondent officially announces the conditions of the treaty of peace thus: Austria and France will support the formation of an Italian confederation; Lombardy as far as the line of the Mincio is to be given up; Mantua, Peschiera and the whole of Venetia remain Austrian possessions; the Princes of Tuscany and Modena return to their States, a universal amnesty to be granted.
The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says that three applications were made by Napoleon to Austria before she would consent. Overtures were made direct by Napoleon for the purpose of preventing mediation by neutrals. The same correspondent says that the Pope was burnt in effigy at Milan, and that two ladies pass, but did not know who they were: that he saw Brady throw a stone; did not know that it had hit any one. This was about the sum and substance of his testimony, as near as we could get it.
Brady was then committed to jail for assault and battery with intent to kill, in default of $1000 bail.
Mrs. Chambers' injuries, although severe, are not, we are happy to say, considered dangerous. She was much better last evening.
Much praise is due to officer Swayne for the able and ingenious manner in which he made the arrest, and by his untiring exertions the citizens of Allegheny are rid of at least one dangerous character.

SUSPECTED THIEVES DISCHARGED.—Nicholas Meyers made information before the Mayor, yesterday, against William Faherty and Augustus Evans. Mr. Meyers keeps a boarding house on Market street. These young men boarded with Myers, and came in the house on Tuesday night the worse for liquor. Faherty, it seems, helped Evans to bed and afterwards walked out and will, we hope, be extended along the whole of Front street.

HUCKSTERING.—We mentioned, yesterday, a case in which the Mayor had caused a load of vegetables, which had been purchased in the market for resale, to be unloaded at his office, there to await an owner. The man driving the wagon, a Mr. Goudy, stated that he had been hired by a certain man, whose name he did not know, to haul the load to a certain place, but where he could not exactly tell. But on Tuesday night, after the vegetables had been stored in the Mayor's office, he was anxious that the Mayor or should pay him for drayage. That officer said he would wait till he found the owner and that he doubtless would pay the charges. On yesterday morning, Goudy came and said that he thought that he had better pay and take his things away. So he paid the fine, $5, and the costs, $1, and departed with his cabbage and things, but he didn't ask to be paid the drayage.
