An "Abolition Document."—Another incendiary publication, which was cast upon the South like a terrible fire brand, has been discovered and impaled by the vigilance of an editor "away down in Alabama." The popular song entitled "Nelly Gray," is rauk abolition in its tone, and if permitted to circulate in Southern homes will niltimately bring destruction on that fair section of the Union. Too much credit cannot be awarded to the clear-sighted editor who has brought to light this effort to corrupt the literature of the "cotton-growing Stafes." In order to do that individual and his livaluable services full justice, we append the article in which the offence is duly set forth. After reading this no one dare deny that a negro is in every woodpile in the sunoy South:—

A great discovery in the science of medicines, being a certain and speedy cure for rentoring the sight and removing all diseases peculiar to the eye. This is universally acknowledged the only asia and sure remedy now known. It knowledged the college of the most abilitied physicians in Europe and America.

Patients in any part of the country can treat themselves successfully at a moderate expense, thereby avaiding the danger and sepaces of failing into the hands of unskilled physicians. This medicine (amilicient to cure,) will be sent by mail or Express, with all necessary directions on receipt
