doubt felicitated himself on his extraordinary eleverness. The exposure comes at a time when the imposter is enjoying the fruits of his labor, and so that account it is the less welcome. In this connection we will state that Mr. Buchanan's present declination as a candidate for re-election, is not regarded by the knowing ones as sincere. He is only playing the game of 1854 over again, expecting to captivate the people by his old-fashioned disinterestedness. We capt the following comforting announcement for the consolation of his admirers in Pittsburgh. It is from the Buffalo Republic. For many mouths my hair had been falling off, until I was fearful of losing it entirely. The akin upon my bead became gradually more and more inflamed, so that I could not touch it without pain. This irritated condition I attributed to the use of varience advertised hair washes, which I have since been teld contain camphene spirit.

By the advice of my physicies, to whom you had shown four process of portifying the Oil, I commenced its use the set week in June. The first application allayed the fiching and irritation; in three or four days the reduces and tender.
