Wrongdoers.

BY JOHN K. HOLMES.

To scorn the just opinions of mankind
Shows an abandoned arrogance of mind.
To censure a folly against reason's rule
Makes man a knave, and furthermore, a fool
Obedient to those who might have proved his friends,
His life is worthless, and in sorrow ends.
The wise, obedient to the claims of truth,
World oft silences the rebellious youth,
But ardor, fired by the thirst for wrong,
Drives him from counsel and the social throng
He shuns with scorn the counsel sent to save,
To plunge in guilt, with fresher sins enrage.
And thus he whirls, till injured late and right
Curb his fierce fury, and drag down the flight
O, how much pain is unto him unknown
Who reaps no fruit that folly's hands have sown
Who, in composure, temper'd with delight,
Loans to the good who beckon him aright;
Sees virtue bless'd, reads her approving smile,
Walks where she treads, or lingers where she stands
Better be poor, ennobl'd and unsought,
Than to possess, but tied to ambition, caught;
Than come to parle with those defiant ones
Who pause with vice, or hurry when she runs;
Men with such souls are never false cannot win—
Men who live on, and end as they begin,
To nihilness, lazy or to motion, still;
Bad with their plaudits, with their goodness, ill

PRESBYTERIAN STATISTICS.—The following statistics of the last ecclesiastical year were presented in the minutes of the Old School Presbyterian General Assembly. A comparison with the preceeding year shows that there has been a net gain of ten presbyteries, forty-one licentiates, twenty-five candidates, one hundred and nine ministers, one hundred and sixty-three churches, and 20,295 communicants. The increase in contributions for the Boards is $85,980, whilst the total increase of contributions exceeds those of 1858 by $312,226.

In 1833 the accessions reported were 23,514. The number reported for 1859 is 23,945. For 1858 there were 20,792; the number in that and the present year being largely increased by the revival.

The following will show the comparative statistics of the New and Old School:

ROPE WALKING AT BROCKPORT.—A couple of Brockport boys, Cornes and Parker, have for some time past been practising on the tight rope for the amusement of the people of the village They have a rope drawn across the canal, from the American to the tavern on the towing path, and there show their dexterity. We are told that they start at the same time, one from each end of the rope, and, meeting in the centre over the water, some twenty feet above it, they pass —one seating himself, and the other stepping over him It is said that these young men have made an engagement to go to Watertown, Jefferson County, and walk over Black River, where it runs through a frightful chasm This is Young America all over No Frenchman can introduce anything here as the study of a lifetime, but some Yankee boy can compete with him successfully in sixty days.—Roch. Union

In the late speech of the Hon John Hickman at West Chester, filled, as usual, with bold and nervous thought, he took occasion to utter the following significant sentiment:

"As far as I individually am concerned, there can be no fraternity in the Democratic party until the last spark of political life shall be crushed out of the Lecomptonite: and the best way to kill him is to exclude him from office We may not be able to elect men whom we would prefer, but we can certainly cause defeat to a faithless enemy; and such a defeat will be by no means unimportant. It will indicate a salutary lesson and by removing bad principles from the market may cause a demand for good ones."

INDIANA DIVORCES WORTH NOTHING IN NEW YORK.—The case of Julia E. Clark against Alvin B Clark, which was tried before Judge Bacon, at the last term of the Supreme Court, in June last, in Lewis county, N. Y., has been decided in favor of the plaintiff upon all the issues of the case. The action was brought against the defendant on the ground of adultery. The counsel held that a divorce obtained in the State of Indiana, when the party goes there for the purpose of procuring such divorce, and then returns to the State of New York, is wholly inoperative and void.

A SHOWER OF SNAKES.—The Detroit Tribune says that immediately after a great shower last week, a gentleman residing in that city, on walking about his premises, discovered a large number of striped or garter snakes, averaging about six inches in length. Some of them were on the front porch, four feet from the ground, and some on the kitchen door steps. He commenced killing the reptiles until he had dispatched forty seven by actual count. His neighbors also killed quite a large number, and the finding of the "ensix" continued four or five days.

TROUBLESOME GRASSHOPPERS.—A correspondent of the Evening Post, writing from Salem, N. Y., says:

"Accounts of railroad, accidents and of obstructions on railroad tracks are common occurrences. But an occurrence has happened on the Rome and Watertown Railroad differdnt from anything I have ever heard of. The obstruction consisted of an army of grasshoppers, which had collected on the rails during the night, and at a point where it was up grade, seemingly taking advantage of the Iron Horse, and actually causing the train to stop."

EXCITEMENT IN PORTLAND.—The Maine Law Enforced.—An extraordinary scene was witnessed at Portland, Me., on the 17th instant—that of the police entering the house of a citizen, and breaking open his private iron safe on suspicion that it contained liquors. The building where this occurred was the Exchange Coffee House, the proprietor, Jesse Annis. The city marshal, notwithstanding Mr. A. protested against this violent intrusion upon his premises, after considerable hard labor forced open the safe, found nine bottles of liquor, and bore them off in triumph to the police office.

A LETTER from Boyrout, Syria, states that a converted Mohammedan is now laboring as a missionary among the Turks of that city. He gathers large companies, and spends hours in reading to them out of the Scriptures and explaining to them the principles of Christian faith. Among his auditors have been several Dervishes and two Persian Mohammedans. The preacher is also winning many friends among the Greeks of the city, and happy results are anticipated from his labors by those in the city who are longing to see Mohammedanism at an end.

GOLD FROM PIKE'S PEAK.—The St Joseph (Mo.) West says:

Pike's Peak gold, in small quantities, has been frequently, of late, offered for sale at our banks. It is purchased by brokers at $18 per ounce. The quantity of gold from the mining region has
