COMMON SENSE rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing, let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician concerning the immense curatives of this medicine that as many be seen in the in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet derived for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarhoea, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various forms that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. WOOD STREET IMPROVEMENTS—Iron Buildings.—Patterson & Co., to whom was awarded the contract for building the new house for the Citizens' Bank on Wood street, corner of Diamond, have commenced tearing down the old structure, lately occupied by Chester, and will erect there a stone front of first class. We have not yet seen the design, but we are informed that it is elegant.

Wm. Bagaley, Esq., who is building elegant structures in various portions of the city, has now begun on the warehouse which he himself occupies, on Wood street, between Second and First streets. He has already run up the side walls, an additional story and will, as soon as may be, put in a fine iron front equal to any in the city. Of course all will consult their own tastes respecting the style and material of the houses they may build, but we think, aside even from the superior merits of iron, as a building material, Pittsburgh should make it a point of pride and honor to line her streets with iron buildings. Because, this is the iron city of the continent, par excellence, and since greater variety of style and ornament can be introduced in iron buildings than in others, they can be made as attractive and as elegant as to win the attention of all visitors and fix upon their minds the superior merits of the material used. Hence it will follow that our iron city, itself, will become its own advertisement, and orders for buildings will flow in upon us from all sides. We think that the use of iron as a building material which has made such remarkable headway here within a few years, will in time become general, and then, what limit can be set to the business it will open?

In the far western lands, where materials of wood or stone are scarce, iron will become the great article of demand for building purposes, and we shall have iron cities growing up throughout our wide domain. Pittsburgh is first in the market with her plans, her models, her moulds, her skill and her iron, and if she would but make proper use of her advantages, may build up a trade to which all she has done hitherto will be of small account. She already begins to feel the impulse of new enterprises in which she has wisely embarked. The copper and lead mines of Lake Superior, on which she has laid tribute, the new enterprise for smelting metal from the ore, in which leading firms are embarking, the patents of Messrs Jones & Lauth for rolling round shafting, etc., which have been granted here and in Europe, the superior quality of our engines and boilers, and the facility with which steamers are built here, are among the reasons that tend to secure a permanent and exceite progressive prosperity in this city. While all around us in the mushroom growths of the west, where towns are built in a night on credit and are knocked down with a sheriff's hammer in the morning, we see dullness and decay. It is owing to these new enterprises, we say, and a careful fostering and extension of old ones, that we may see, on every street in this city, fine store houses, and dwellings arising, giving token of assured prosperity. Let our business men, if they will pardon our gratuitous advice, make the most of the chance now offered to extend our trade into other cities, into the matter of iron buildings. They should not, and we trust will not, be content with a mere home trade. They will go abroad to erect monuments of their skill and enterprise if they will but take the proper steps, which they themselves know so well that we need not speak further of them now.

THE STREET RAILWAYS.—The Councils passed ordinances on Monday night granting the right of way up Smithfield to 5th street to the Pittsburgh & Birmingham Passenger Railway, and the same on Penn's Penn avenue to the East Liberty Company. There were no remonstrances against the grant, and the ordinance passed with slight amendments from the original draft.

The road to Lawrenceville is now in working order to the toll gate, beyond the fair grounds, and the cars commence running to that point to-day. The convenience and comfort to persons living in remote wards and in Lawrenceville is unspeakable. It is a difference of half an hour in time and in all other respects one cannot tell the increase in ease and pleasure of locomotion. We are not much given to compliments, but we must say the company has been exceedingly fortunate in its choice of conductors, as far as we have had experience of them. They are uncommonly attentive, careful and watchful.

The road bed is now prepared to the Arsenal. They have accommodated the rail to the old grade of Butler street, which has rendered it necessary to uncover the old road bed. They have therefore removed an immense quantity of boulders, limestone and gravel, which will give an excellent chance for a first rate pave ment, which is to be laid forthwith. Mr. T. F. Howley has the contract for paving, and for rough's part, and we presume he will do the work for the company at the same time. He is a man of ample means and skill, and has sufficient pride in the welfare of the borough to prompt him to do the work well, even if he had no other inducement. A good pavement on Butler street will remove the only objection to a residence in Lawrenceville on the main street, viz: the dust. Families are now seeking houses there, and any one who would build elegant and convenient dwellings there would soon find tenants. We learn that the Railway Company is negotiating with Mr. Patterson for a portion of land from his estate there, on which to erect suitable buildings for a summer resort. These buildings are to be large, convenient and so conducted as to render them desirable residences for families.

The amount of travel on the cars is surprising. All the conveniences are still on, and run as full as usual, and yet the four cars which are running go full both ways till ten o'clock at night.

THE FORGERY.—The New York Tribune has in paragraph in relation to the arrest of Langdon in that city by officer Hague. It speaks of him as W. Lyman alias Langdon, and gives the names of the officers who assisted Mr. Hague in the arrest, as Messrs. Dovoe and Sampson. The Tribune relates in a few words the facts which we have given in detail, and adds that when arrested the police found in his room a large number of blank certificates of deposit, accepted by W. D. Ricketson & Co., produce and commission merchants, Nos. 3 and 5 Bridge street, N. Y.

In connection with the above statement in reference to W. D. Ricketson & Co., we may add that we have seen in the hands of the officers that purport to be letters of credit from them to Dr. J. Fowkes, of Memphis, Tennessee. The said letter reads as follows:

Office of W. D. Ricketson & Co., Produce Dealers, 3 and 5 Bridge st., New York, July 25, 1859.

To whom it may concern:

Dr. J. Fowkes, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, Texas, has credits with us for $2,000, which he is authorized to draw for in such sums and upon such time as may suit his convenience, and the same shall be duly honored.

2 like the above for 4000 as above."

The above letter is not signed by W. D. Ricketson, and the hand-writing corresponds with that of a large number of letters known to be in the hand-writing of Langdon.

There is also a memorandum of agreement between Langdon and Ricketson & Co., also without signature, setting forth that certain letters of credit are granted to Dr. Fowkes, "in consideration of five per cent paid stock of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, at par value, to the amount of any and all drafts upon them by virtue of said letters and said evidences aforesaid, that said Fowkes may make use of." The proviso in the agreement is that the same letters, drafts, etc., shall be tendered at Ricketson's office, New York. The paper, as we have said, has no signature.

A large number of acceptances of Ricketson & Co. were also in his hands, payable at the Marine Bank, New York, and also blank checks of the Farmers and Mechanics Bank, Memphis. The drafts, etc., appear to have been struck by Danforth, Bald & Co., Cincinnati.

MURDER IN GREENE COUNTY, PA.—We learn from a gentleman from Waynesburg, en route for Philadelphia, that a murder was committed in that county on last Thursday night. The circumstances as were detailed to us are briefly these: A man named Zimmerman, engaged on the turnpike being constructed in that county, assaulted a colored boy, inflicting some injury, which so incensed the colored population as to cause them to waylay Zimmerman on his way home in the night and take his life. The party were led by a man named D. Ditcher, who is supposed to have shot Zimmerman dead on the spot. There were some ten or twelve, in all, in the party, and our informant learned that a man who was in company with Zimmerman, received a slight injury from a shot fired by some of the assailing party. The body was found in the woods, on the next morning, between Waynesburg and Dolysburg. Measures were immediately taken to secure the arrest of the whole party, and they are now lodged in jail to await an investigation of the facts attending the sad affair. Zimmerman was a man of family—a wife and two or three children—and was by trade a shoemaker.

GEORGE W. CLARK was appointed yesterday First-Lieutenant of the night police, in the place of James M. Riddle, appointed to the day police, vice Knox, resigned.

THE DOUGLAS MEETING.—The "great" demonstration by which Douglas was to be brought into the field was held on Tuesday evening. A previous powwow was held on Tuesday evening week, and a committee appointed, of which Charles Barnett, Esq., was chairman, to report permanent officers for the club. We counted just before the organization of the meeting last evening 52 persons present.

J. R. Hunter, Esq., called the meeting to order, stated its object, and read a speech on the Democratic party and the need of saving the Union from dissolution. He showed how all the prosperity of the country depended upon Democracy, and how Messrs. Van Buren, Polk, Pierce, etc., had been the purest democrats and left a record of unstained democracy. Mr. Hunter read at length his views on Popular Sovereignty.

Mr. Barnett then reported the following officers: For President, Jacob M'Collister: Vice Presidents, William Bennett, J. C. Davitt, C. W. Lewis, Joseph O'Brien, John A. Parkinson, Joseph Hunter, T. M. Barbin, Wm. Alexander, Hugh Kane. These are the contract for building the new house for the Citizens' Bank on Wood street, corner of Diamond, have commenced tearing down the old structure, lately occupied by Chester, and will erect there a stone front of first class. We have not yet seen the design, but we are informed that it is elegant.

They have therefore removed an immense quantity of boulders, limestone and gravel, which will give an excellent chance for a first rate pave ment, which is to be laid forthwith. Mr. T. F. Howley has the contract for paving, and for rough's part, and we presume he will do the work for the company at the same time. He is a man of ample means and skill, and has sufficient pride in the welfare of the borough to prompt him to do the work well, even if he had no other inducement. A good pavement on Butler street will remove the only objection to a residence in Lawrenceville on the main street, viz: the dust. Families are now seeking houses there, and any one who would build elegant and convenient dwellings there would soon find tenants. We learn that the Railway Company is negotiating with Mr. Patterson for a portion of land from his estate there, on which to erect suitable buildings for a summer resort. These buildings are to be large, convenient and so conducted as to render them desirable residences for families.

The amount of travel on the cars is surprising. All the conveniences are still on, and run as full as usual, and yet the four cars which are running go full both ways till ten o'clock at night.

THE FORGERY.—The New York Tribune has in paragraph in relation to the arrest of Langdon in that city by officer Hague. It speaks of him as W. Lyman alias Langdon, and gives the names of the officers who assisted Mr. Hague in the arrest, as Messrs. Dovoe and Sampson. The Tribune relates in a few words the facts which we have given in detail, and adds that when arrested the police found in his room a large number of blank certificates of deposit, accepted by W. D. Ricketson & Co., produce and commission merchants, Nos. 3 and 5 Bridge street, N. Y.

In connection with the above statement in reference to W. D. Ricketson & Co., we may add that we have seen in the hands of the officers that purport to be letters of credit from them to Dr. J. Fowkes, of Memphis, Tennessee. The said letter reads as follows:

Office of W. D. Ricketson & Co., Produce Dealers, 3 and 5 Bridge st., New York, July 25, 1859.

To whom it may concern:

Dr. J. Fowkes, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, Texas, has credits with us for $2,000, which he is authorized to draw for in such sums and upon such time as may suit his convenience, and the same shall be duly honored.

2 like the above for 4000 as above."

The above letter is not signed by W. D. Ricketson, and the hand-writing corresponds with that of a large number of letters known to be in the hand-writing of Langdon.

There is also a memorandum of agreement between Langdon and Ricketson & Co., also without signature, setting forth that certain letters of credit are granted to Dr. Fowkes, "in consideration of five per cent paid stock of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, at par value, to the amount of any and all drafts upon them by virtue of said letters and said evidences aforesaid, that said Fowkes may make use of." The proviso in the agreement is that the same letters, drafts, etc., shall be tendered at Ricketson's office, New York. The paper, as we have said, has no signature.

A large number of acceptances of Ricketson & Co. were also in his hands, payable at the Marine Bank, New York, and also blank checks of the Farmers and Mechanics Bank, Memphis. The drafts, etc., appear to have been struck by Danforth, Bald & Co., Cincinnati.

MURDER IN GREENE COUNTY, PA.—We learn from a gentleman from Waynesburg, en route for Philadelphia, that a murder was committed in that county on last Thursday night. The circumstances as were detailed to us are briefly these: A man named Zimmerman, engaged on the turnpike being constructed in that county, assaulted a colored boy, inflicting some injury, which so incensed the colored population as to cause them to waylay Zimmerman on his way home in the night and take his life. The party were led by a man named D. Ditcher, who is supposed to have shot Zimmerman dead on the spot. There were some ten or twelve, in all, in the party, and our informant learned that a man who was in company with Zimmerman, received a slight injury from a shot fired by some of the assailing party. The body was found in the woods, on the next morning, between Waynesburg and Dolysburg. Measures were immediately taken to secure the arrest of the whole party, and they are now lodged in jail to await an investigation of the facts attending the sad affair. Zimmerman was a man of family—a wife and two or three children—and was by trade a shoemaker.

GEORGE W. CLARK was appointed yesterday First-Lieutenant of the night police, in the place of James M. Riddle, appointed to the day police, vice Knox, resigned.

TO COAL MERCHANTS.—Mr. J. F. Keeler, proprietor of the celebrated Scale Works at Cleveland, is about to establish in this city an agency for the sale of his scales. They are well adapted for the weighing of coal. It is shown that they work with great facility, and save a great deal of time. Mr. Wm. M. Keith, one of the most extensive coal dealers in Cleveland, says in a letter:

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 27, 1859.

MR. WM. M. LITTLE, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Dear Sir: Allow me to introduce Mr. J. F. Keeler, who visits your city to offer his "Fast Weighing Scales." With many others, I have them in use, and can safely say they will weigh accurately, with six times the rapidity of any common platform scale. Any attention shown him will be gladly reciprocated.

Respectfully yours, WM. M. KEITH.

Mr. Keeler brings other letters, one to Mr. W. H. BROWN, of this city. The facility with which they work may remove the objection to the erection of scales at the coal tipples. Mr. Keeler is here for the purpose of selling his scales, and not to take any part, either one way or the other, in the matters now at issue between the miners and their employers.

EDGEWORTH SEMINARY.—Rev. Mr. Wilson having disposed of his interest in this Seminary, will be succeeded by Prof. WILLIAMS, lately of Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa. Prof. WILLIAMS is a gentleman in every way qualified for the place, and we feel sure that this well known Seminary will retain, under his care, the excellent reputation it has so long enjoyed. The advertisement announcing the change, and the time for the opening of the next session, will be found in our paper to-day, and we take pleasure in directing attention to it.
