THE Charleston Mercury says the report that John Mitchell has gone to Africa for slaves is preposterous and incorrect, and it adds: "He possesses none of the qualifications for the trade. A romor prevails, in well-informed circles here, with more of plausibility to sustain it, that his real object in going to France is at the instigation of leading members of the slave trade party, to induce the Emperor Nappleon III. to relax his opposition to the trade under the to relax his opposition to the trade under the French flag, if not to legalize it." The Mercury thinks his chances of success on such a mission, very poor.

The New Orleans people are so accustomed to the yellow fever that they don't know how to get along without it. Yellow Jeon, having failed to do his outstmary duty in the way of killing the Louisianians, in very despair they says:

"In place of the yellow fever, so long the scourge of our city, a new kind of epidemic has recently broken out in this city, which is adding not a few victims to our weekly bills of mortality. This is the epidemic of suicide." "her. Connell, the candidate for Benator, in the Fourth District, is well known in the city, and he will make a faithful and able Benator. The nominations for Assembly, as far as they are made, are nearly all equally good. Indeed, it is rare to find a ticket embracing so many names that present so good an average of ability and worth. As compared with the Democration mominations, there can be no hesitation in giving the preference to the Opposition nominations in each district."
