SEARCH THE RECORDS.—The Washington Constitution quotes from the speech of Senator Douglas as reported in the Enquirer of this city, of the 10th, the following:

"Examine the bills and search the records, and you will find that the great principle which underlies those measures is the right of the people of each State and each Territory, while a Territory, to decide the slavery question for themselves."

The Constitution has complied with this suggestion, and searched the records, but has not found that which Mr. Douglas says may be discovered, and says:

"Pending the Nebraska bill before the Senate, we find that the proposition was distinctly made to confer this very power upon the people of the Territory, while a Territory," and was voted down by an overwhelming majority—Mr. Douglas voting with that majority against the grant of such power."

The Constitution quotes from the Congressional Globe containing the record of the first session of the XXXIIId Congress—February 16, 1854. The matter quoted is the celebrated amendment of Mr. Chase—to add to the 14th section of the substitute reported from the Committee on Territories, as amended on the motion of Mr. Douglas, the words:

"Under which the people of the Territory, through their appropriate representatives, if they see fit, may prohibit the existence of slavery therein."

It will be remembered that Douglas voted against the Chase amendment. The vote stood:

Yeas—Messrs. Chase, Dodge, of Wisconsin, Fessenden, Fish, Foote, Hamlin, Seward, Smith, Sumner and Wade—10.

Nays.—Messrs. Adams, Atchison, Badger, Bell, Benjamin, Brodhead, Brown, Butler, Clay, Clayton, Dawson, Dixon, Dodge, of Iowa, Douglas, Evans, Fitzpatrick, Gwin, Houston, Hunter, Johnson, Jones, of Iowa, Jones, of Tennessee, Mason, Morton, Norris, Pettit, Pratt, Rusk, Sebastian, Shields, Slidell, Stuart, Toucey, Walker, Weller and Williams—30.

The Constitution pertinently remarks:

"The amendment of Mr. Chase contains the very doctrine for which Mr. Douglas is now contending; and if it had been incorporated into the bill would have left no room for doubt or construction on the subject. It was, however, repudiated and rejected, and Mr. Douglas cooperated with his Democratic colleagues in the rejection. Mr. Douglas now insists that the construction which nine black Republican senators attempted in 1854 to put upon the Nebraska bill, is the true Democratic construction. He did not think so then. His Democratic associates who voted with him do not think so now. We regret that Mr. Douglas has changed his opinions on this important question, and warn our Democratic friends against the danger of falling into the fatal error of adopting black republican constructions of democratic measures."

THE changes in the climate of our country, almost inconceivable from the rapid alternation of meteorological causes, are distinctly traced by their effects upon vegetation. The Savannah Republican, in exemplification of this, tells us that it is quite a common to see the fruit on the banana trees in that city approaching perfection, and it is probable that the entire crop of their own raising will be eaten by some of its citizens the present season. Such a thing does not often occuer at this day, though the oldest inhabitant can tell the Republican that most all the fruits of the tropics were had there at one time.

Orange trees were grown in their greatest perfection, though now the frosts seldom allow a tree to attain its natural growth, and a ripe orange is rarely obtained in the open air. These facts show the great changes that the climate has undergone in the short space of a lifetime, or less.

THE Missouri Democrat, of Saturday, notices the arrival of a steamer from the Missouri River with "another instalment of negroes for the South." The Democrat says:

"The negroes are about fifty in number, and said to be in tip-top order and condition. Some twenty-eight of them are the property of the aforenamed Major Adams. He proceeds South with the lot for the purpose of selling them. The Major jocularly remarks that Greeley, Seward, Dorrie, of Lancaster county, and himself, are rapidly making Missouri a free State."

We might mention, in connection with this fact, that about two hundred negroes left this city within the past two weeks for the South. It is estimated that upwards of four hundred slaves leave the State weekly, and not ten slaves are brought into it. This drainage must soon rid us of slavery.

THE New York Herald's Syracuse correspondent writes that the Albany Regency have come to the conclusion to drop Douglas as their candidate for the Presidency, and take up Guthrie of Kentucky. The reason why: "Douglas is dropped because his money is all spent, and Guthrie is taken up because the spoilsmen believe he can be bled to the tune of half a million of dollars. * * * The Regency want to bleed Guthrie in the jugular vein. They look upon him as a placer. There may be something in this. It is understood that the private fortunes of Senator Douglas has melted away within a few years, in his desperate contests for political place. He has been bled to the jugular (or purse) until the stream of gold refuses to run.

TRADE AND COMMERCE OF CINCINNATI.—The products of the various manufacturing departments of Cincinnati are valued for the present year at $112,254,000. To the boot and shoe trade there are 24 wholesale and 207 retail houses. The book publishing trade is valued at $2,600,000. In the clothing trade there are 60 houses in the wholesale business, and the value of the clothing manufactured is estimated at $15,000,000. In the dry goods business, there are 44 wholesale and 194 retail houses. The value of the furniture manufactured is set down at $5,587,000. The value of the exports last year was $91,906,506. The tonnage of barges running between Cincinnati and other ports is 10,459; of steamers 62,763.

AID FOR IRELAND.—The New York Observer states that a deputation from the Presbyterian Church of Ireland is on its way to this country, to ask for aid in the prosecution of the Missionary work in that island. It consists, says the Observer, of the Rev. Dr. Edgar, one of the noblest philanthropists of Ireland, and whose name is nearly as familiar here as his own land; and of the Rev David Wilson, of Limerick, and of the Rev. Samuel Dill, of Ballymena. Dr. Cooke is one of the deputation; but his coming is not certain. Official duties may prevent him; but there is some hope that the old man eloquent may pay us a brief visit.

THE VALUATION OF WISCONSIN.—The Wisconsin State Board of Equalization, which commenced its session at Madison, on the 6th instant finished its labors on the 10th. The land throughout the State is equalized at $6 63 per acre. The total value of lands in the State, as equalized, is $118,178,829; city and village lots, as equalized, $36,833,511, 86; while the personal property, which could not be touched by the State Board, amounts to $18,607, State, as equalized by the State Board, is $168,620,233 79.

THE M. E. CHURCH AND SLAVERY.—At the recent annual meeting of the Ohio Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Columbus, the committee on Slavery, made a pointed report against American Slavery, and the Erie Conference resolution was concurred in by a vote of 70 to 21. It reads:

That the Annual and General Conferences be requested to concur in so amending the General Rule on slavery, that it shall read as follows:

"The buying, selling, holding or transferring of any human being to be used in slavery."

It is said by the Syracuse correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, that at the convention of the Democrasy the other day, "forty-six bottles of poor gin and twenty of brandy and whisky" were guzzled in one room in four hours.

BOGUS DISPATCHES FROM BALTIMORE.—Certain persons in Baltimore have lately been hoaxing the press with spurious accounts of alleged riots and outrages in that city. The Baltimore Clipper, of Tuesday, says:

"We have waited until now for a correction of these infamous falsehoods, but none has been made. We are now at liberty to point to the authors. These dispatches were sent to Philadelphia from the office of the Baltimore Sun. That paper has received more support from the people of Baltimore than any ever published here. It has made a fortune for its proprietors, drawn from the hard earnings of the merchants and mechanics of our city. It is now the recipient of more patronage than any other paper. Its gratitude is now manifested in the d
