THE AUTHORSHIP FIXED.—There was one point quite worthy of mention, that was omitted in our report of the Hon. Abraham Lincoln's speech in this city. In regard to the sentiment expressed that the Union would some time become all free or all slave—that a house divided against itself could not stand—that there was an "irrepressible conflict" between slave and free labor—Mr. Douglas charges Mr. Lincoln with his paternity. He says that Seward should have given Lincoln credit for it. Now Lincoln says the credit does not belong to him or to Seward. In 1856 the Richmond Enquirer, then edited by Roger A. Pryor, expressed the identical idea. That venerable Democratic sheet, the acknowledged organ of the Democracy of Virginia, was to be credited with the first direct expression of the opinion that the Union must become all free or all slave, that there was an irrepressible conflict, &c., &c. In Illinois Douglas plumed himself that he had repeated the treasonable and fatal heresy, and he intimated that if he could but have spent a little time in New York, he would have squelched out the heresy there; but no one had heard that Douglas proposed to squelch out the terrible and deadly treason in Virginia. Instead of Roger A. Pryor, who first uttered it, was removed from Richmond to Washington, that he might edit the central organ of Douglas,—Cin. Com.

SEEDING TIME.—Our farmers are in the midst of seeding, with a delightful time for the purpose. Already a large portion has been sown and a prospect that the task will be accomplished earlier than usual. The failure of the wheat crop this year, though it may cause a heavy pecuniary loss, will no doubt result in a vast improvement in the quality of the wheat next year, as great pains and expense have been taken to procure from a distance the very best varieties for seed. Kentuckey, Ohio, Tennessee, Indiana, and Eastern Pennsylvania have all been drawn on to contribute their best wheat for that purpose.—Uniontown Standard.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—On last Wednesday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, Mr. James F. Shoop, of Graham township, was assaulted on the public road between Kyler's and John Holt's, by two ruffians, who threw sand in his eyes, knocked him down, choked him, and then robbed him of $30 in money—all he had with him. The following day a man named Byron J. Cooney was arrested in Phillipsburg, and is now confined in Jos. McClarren, Esq., of Decatur township, who committed to our jail, charged with being one of the men who perpetrated the robbery.—Clearfield Raftsman.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS.—On last Friday and Saturday we had copious showers of rain in this county, since which time the atmosphere has been decidedly beneficial to the buckwheat and corn crops. Of the former there will be a large yeald; what the latter will be, we cannot yet tell, but it is feared that much of it will not mature fully.—Clearfield Raftsman.
