Mr. Tomer shows that he did not get the money; but the question as to who did get it is still unanswered. It is certain that the county did not get it, or, as Mr. Tomer says, was swindled out of it; it is not at all likely that the collectors would be allowed to keep it; and the question comes back with redoubled force, who did get it:

It is now a week since we called attention to this matter, and so far we have had no effective response to our inquirles nor any explanation which relieves the locofoco Board of Commissioners, of 1857, from the responsibility of the earls we have cited.
