HE DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETT

VOLUME LXXII---NUMBER 252 PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY MORNIE, SEPTEMBER 30, 1859. ESTABLISHED IN 1786. Some persons' it is know, cannot take coffee with out vomiting; others are thrown into a general inflammation, if they cat cherries or gooseberries. Habn relates of himself that seven or eight strawberries would produce convulsions in him Tissot says, he could never swallow sugar without vomiting. Many persons are unable to eat eggs; and cakes or puddings, having eggs in their composition, produce serious disturbances in such persons, if they are induced to eat them under false assurances. The dinner of the French family is cheap and simple. There is always soup, the meat of the stew-pam—sometimes, if not strict in their expenditures, another plate of meat—generally two regetables, dressed and eaten separately, and sometimes (not always) a sweet dish; if not that, 80 Fourth Street, Pittsburgh, Pa . TAGE CAUSE.—We have obtained, from a reliable source, an interesting statement of the facts to which Gen. Harvey briefly alludes. It seems that Mr. Griffin, Hadson's Bay Company's emplayee and Justice of the Peace at San Juan, had a lot of Sandwich Island hogs—animals noted for their predatory habits and a peouliar facility for getting through simest any kind of hedge or fence. Some of these quadupeds had trespassed upon the farm of Mr. Cutler, an American settler, and rooted up his potatoes. He notified their owner of the fact, and announced the intention of shooting any of them that might repeat the offence. Mr. Griffin paid no heed to the warning, and the consequence was that Mr.
Cutler shot a bear. He immediately informed Mr. Griffin what he had done, and offered to pay a fair price for the animal; but Griffin refused,
saying the matter would otherwise be estitled.
The next step was the arrival of two members of the Executive Council of Vancouver on the island.
Wessers. Fraser and Dallae) who called on Mr.
Cutler, and informed him that he had committed a heinous offunce, for which he was liable to transportation; but, after some talk, offered to compromise the matter for $100. This, Cutler, and

But there is very little of each thing, and it is rather in arrangement than in material that they appear rich. The idea that the French gournand in private life is incorrect. They spend little in eating, and they eat inferior things, though their cookery is rather a science than a mere accident of civilization. At home, the great aim of the French is to save, and a self-sacrifice that will lead to this result is cheerfully undertaken, and more especially in eating and in the luxury of idleness. No French woman will expend a shilling to save berself trouble. She would rather work like a dray-horse to buy an extra yard of ribbon, or a new a little fruit, such as may be the chespest and Office No. 308 Walnut Street.

I don't suppose a man would sin unpardonably if he did not read the Bible any for a whole day. I don't believe God sits watching every man, and saying, "There! he has not read the Bible for twenty-four hours! Put that down against him!" And we ought not to read the Bible for fear of any such accounting. We carry in the Bible God's sweetest messages of cheer to us. If there is anything noble and delicate and tender anywhere, it is to be found in the Bible. And ought we so to define sinch messages as these by a perfunctory reading of them! Was should carry them as we carry letters from our desarest friends, and read them whenever the mood calls for us to do so; read them again and again, and if we found that we had forgot a sentence or a word, go back and read it over again, and so get them by heart.

I think the grim particularity and proup propriety of our eastern manners is very unfavorable to the growth of christian character.

Prosperity ought not to build us up of stone. We ought to grow softer, like fruit beneath its ripsning sun.

As gold is found but here and there upon earth, so it is with love in human life. We meet it a little in the hearts of children, and in our households; but it is here and there a scale of gold and a whole continent of dirt.

I hear men may "The way to love God is to love and do good to our fellow man, and that is all that is necessary;" but I am sure that I should not want my children to love me in that way. Suppose I should hear my children easying: "Now, the way for us to love our father is just to be kind to each other." Well, that would be part of it, no doubt; but don't you suppose there is something in my heart which would ory out: "Love me, too, oh' my children." And it is the glory of God's heart that he wants to be loved himself. —Fre Press. Nos. 141 and 143 Front Street, PITTSBURGIL, FA. JAMES WILSON'S, Together with a full assortment of elegani

The peculiarity was supposed to be owing to caprice, but the muiton was repeatedly disquired, and given to him unknown, but unlifgmly with the same result of producing violent vomiting and disknow. And from the severity of the sercet and disknow. And from the severity of the serfects, which were, in fact, those of a virulent pieson, here can be little doubt that if the use of muiton had been persisted in, it would soon have destroyed the "life of the individual." Dr.

Persite, who quotes this passage, adds: "It move a guillaman who has repeatedly had an attack of indigestion after the use of roast muiton."
