THE PERUVIAN SYRUP.—WHAT IS IT?—Most persons have an idea that the Peruvian Syrup is a preparation of Peruvian Barks. This is not the case. It is a soluble preparation of Protoxide of Iron, which is readily received into the constitution, and will act as a tonic in the way that metal does not usually act, when given in the form of carbonate, or even in the iron by hydrogen preparation, so popular with physicians. Whoever desires to give iron in a form that will be acceptable to the human stomach, and that will be readily taken into the blood, will give this Peruvian Syrup, which is attested by men of high character throughout the country. Dr. Hayes, the State Assayer of Massachusetts, testifies to its extraordinary virtues, and we have every confidence in the ability of the agent here to convince any one of the same. The Peruvian Syrup is made in Boston, and has performed most wonderful cures in all diseases requiring a tonic and alterative preparation. See long advertisement in another part of to-days GAZETTE.

COMMON SENSE rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing, let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of physicians concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet derived for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various ills that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is fast becoming a household word from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS, ETC.—Sureties of the Peace.—The cases of quarrel, small beer matters of assault and battery, and threats to assault and batter, occupied the attention of the Court on Tuesday morning.

The case of Littlefox Dixon came up first. It appeared, as alleged by defendants, that while one of the Dixon brothers was absent in California, Little had spoken against him. On the return of Dixon, words passed and Dixon threatened to whip Little. Thence the suit. The costs were divided between the parties litigant.

Another case of Frederic Beilstein vs. Frederic Riddle, was settled in the same way, after a hearing.

Jackson Link, of Findley township, was put under bonds to keep the peace towards his wife, whom he has been beating and abusing when in his cups. This couple have been married 26 years and have had eleven children. Whisky is at the bottom of the whole of this trouble.

Juler Dunor vs. Nard N'rai. This is a case in which the Italian element is prominent. Dunor is the barkeeper of Garzolo, at the corner of 5th and Wylie streets. Nardi is a very bilious looking customer, a cap-maker by trade. He has that expression of eye and feature peculiar to the fiery races of the South. It appears that when in Garzolo's saloon, some months since, he drew upon Dunor a tremendous bowie knife, bearing on it the inscription, "My Bosom Friend." He was arrested, committed and on hearing yesterday ordered to pay the costs.

Peter Owen brought an action against John Hoffman, charging him with malicious mischief, in hamstringing his horse. The case was sent to the grand jury.

The case of G. W. Nichols, school teacher of Lawrenceville, charged with threatening for a surety of the peace, on oath of Edward Davison, came on for a hearing. It was put off until next Saturday, when, as there is no school, it might be convenient for Mr. Nichols to be present.

Jury Trial.—The first case was that of Commonwealth vs. John M'Leese, charged with committing an assault and battery with intent to kill, on oath of Jefferson Lewellen. The prosecutor, having been sworn, testified that he lived up the Monongahela, that M'Leese keeps a tavern, where he was on the 5th of July, got drunk and then into a fight. They had been on drinks. Was playing a game of quoits with a man named Nicholson; got into a fight and he struck Nicholson in the house. M'Leese then pitched into him and struck him, the prosecutor, over the head and face with a spittoon.

J. H. Hampton, Esq., appeared for the defence in his usual able manner. There was proof, charging "intent to kill," was abandoned, there being no evidence to sustain it. The verdict was that M'Leese, the defendant, was not guilty, and each party was sentenced to pay half the costs.

George W. Hewitt alias James Murray pleaded guilty to a charge of horse stealing. He stole an animal valued at $50, from Robert Long, Esq., of Upper St. Clair, from time to time. He was remanded for sentence until Saturday.

John Callener was brought before the Court on complaint of Mrs. A Getty. It appeared that she kept a boarding house and that this man, who was a Frishman, troubled her exceedingly trying to get her daughter to wife. The court made John pay the costs and charged him not to trouble complainant any more.

Charles Lamb, charged with surety of the peace, was discharged, no one appearing against him.

Mary Ann Shinn and Jemima Mason were condemned in a case of surety of the peace. The former was ordered to pay the costs. Adjourned.

PROTHONOTARY'S OFFICE.—This room, formerly occupied for the accommodation of the Supreme Court, is now finished and was ready for occupying yesterday evening. It is now the finest compartment in the Court House. It is supplied with shelves, closets, book-racks and pigeon holes all around the walls and up to the ceiling. To facilitate the use of the higher tiers of shelves, a balustrade runs around at a convenient height above the floor, thus reducing to actual use the whole of the area of two sides of the room, the other two being largely occupied with windows. The carpenter work has been well done. The contractor was Mr. John M'Donald, and he had engaged upon the work Messrs. M. K. Malone, Wm Doran and John McClure. We think their work will stand the test of careful scrutiny.

The plastering, we took, the job was taken by Messrs Murphy & Boggs Messrs G R Thompson and Thomas Nesbit were the workmen engaged on the painting. We trust that this elegant room, fitted up at a large expense, will fully answer the end for which it is provided, and will afford ample room for the safe bestowment and keeping of the many important papers that lawfully pass through the hands of the Prothonotary.

TRUE BILLS.—The Grand Jury, on Tuesday forenoon, returned into Court two bills for assault and battery against John Carnes. This is the case where "Jack" put James Campbell's horse off the Passenger Railway track, and James didn't like it.

They also found a true bill of three counts—selling liquor after notice, to a person of known intemperate habits, and to a person already drunk, against Pat McMahon. Also, a true bill for horse stealing, against George H. Harris alias John Murray, against John Burns and John Young, charged with larceny, and against John Riggs, charged with malicious mischief. A number of charges of assault and battery, in which George McComsh, Josiah Myers, George Fidell and Frances Fidell were parties, were ignored, and prosecutors required to pay the costs.

The 1st inst., and appe[illegible] The Republican Executive Committee:—

THE LIBERTY STREET M. E. CHURCH.—This fine structure is finished in its basement story, and rapidly progressing to completion in its other parts. The lecture room has been already opened to public service each Sunday. Dr. Hall says of it in the Advocate, that it "is admirably arranged for sound and light, and well-proportioned in size. It will compare favorably with any room in the two cities of a similar character. Workmen are busily engaged in getting forward the main audience room and the outside work. It is thought that soon after the opening of the new year the building will be ready for dedication."

DIAMOND STREET.—A large company of men were at work on Tuesday, widening Diamond street, between Grant and Smithfield. The widening is carried down directly through Mc-Kee's Wagon shop, on the corner of the Diamond, and necessitates the removal of that old building on whose site we expect to see some elegant structure specially arise.

This old structure has, however, quite a history. It is about 20 years old, and was at first a church for Rev. Bryan. It was afterwards a temperance hall, then a stable, and finally a shop for furnishing the iron work of wagons. Its day is done.

A large and respectable meeting of the Republicans of the Fourth Ward, and vicinity, of Allegheny city assembled at P. Beilstein's Hall on Monday evening, Oct. 3. On motion of Dr. Baldwin, Mr. R Bard was elected President, and Wm. Oakley, Secretary. Mr. Moffat being called upon, addressed the meeting eloquently in behalf of Republican principles. At the conclusion of Mr. Moffat's address, Mr. Elias H. Irish, candidate for State Senator, addressed the meeting. On motion, Mr. D. L. Smith was called upon and addressed the meeting.

MINIATURE ENGINE.—A very neat miniature engine, with copper boiler attached 20 inches long by 8 inches in diameter, and everything about it in complete running order, is advertised for sale in to-day's paper. Aside from being quite a curiosity, it could be usefully employed in driving a sewing machine, or light machinery of almost any kind. It can be seen at Tate & Son's plumbing establishment, on Liberty street, at the head of Wood.

We are pleased to announce that George Vandercoff, whose Readings gave such pleasure last season, has been engaged by the Lecture Committee of the Literary Association to give two or more Readings some time during the present month.

TWO MEN BURIED ALIVE.—On Tuesday afternoon what came near being a fatal and very lamentable accident occurred in the Ninth ward. A large company of laborers is at work excavating Smith street for the sewer which is to drain a large district there. The excavation is about twenty-two feet in depth, sixteen feet wide at the top, and sloping down to about five feet at the bottom. The line of the excavation is straight from Penn street to the river, by the east of O'Hara's Glass Works.

At the bottom of this excavation the men were at work. In an instant the bank above them took a sudden start with a shock. Most of the men had been on the look-out and made their escape. Two of the company, however, whose names we could not learn, the one an old and the other a young man, both Irishmen, were buried under from fifty to sixty tons of gravel and sand. No one seemed to know the names of the two men. The crowd who stood around scarcely knew what to do for a moment. Word came to Wm. O. Davis, Esq., of the Glass Works, who with several of his men went to the spot and worked away with might and main. The buried men were found in about five minutes, they judged. They were buried standing, and this was one circumstance which saved their lives. The dirt was removed in a few minutes so that the men could breathe, and in the course of half an hour they were taken from their living grave. The younger man was perfectly crazy when disinterred. The old one appeared to be nearly dead, but soon revived. Neither of the men were seriously injured, which was owing to the efforts of Mr Davis and his men, aided by the excavators on the ground.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—But a small proportion of the jurors summoned were in attendance on Tuesday morning. A jury having been in part empannelled, the first case coming up was that of SHAW & Murdoch vs. the County Commissioners.

The plaintiffs are highly respectable physicians of this city, who bring their action for services done and performed in making post mortem examinations. The defence set up, did not deny the services of plaintiffs, but set forth that the Commissioners had appointed a regular physician to do and perform all such services—that Dr. George M'Cook, jr., had been thus appointed, and that the Coroner having due notice of this when he hired other physicians, must do it at his own expense. The Court held that the County Commissioners in making this permanent appointment had exceeded their powers. A verdict for the plaintiffs in the sum of $30, the amount claimed, was rendered.

In the case of the executors of Enos & Magee vs. J. Jones, plaintiffs took a non suit.

A verdict was rendered for plaintiff in the amount of his claim in the case of G. W. Evans vs. H. Albricht, in an action for boxes sold and delivered.

Altmann vs. Neal. The facts are these: Neal is the owner of a patent to take a pair of coal boats from Pittsburgh to Louisville. The river was low. The pilot went down to Deadman's Bar to examine a snag or obstruction in the river. While absent, defendant hired another pilot, and Altmann thereby lost his trip. He brings this suit to recover damages. On trial.

DISTRICT COURT.—In the case of Miller and wife vs. James Gillespie, action on a feigned issue to recover property levied on by the Sheriff, the verdict was for plaintiff.

Ross & Bailey vs. Reese, Davis and Severance. The action is a feigned issue to recover some half dozen coal barges levied on by the Sheriff. On trial.

VIEW OF PITTSBURGH.—Mr. William Schuchman, lithographer, has left at the GAZETTE office a copy of his fine lithographic view of the City of Pittsburgh. We have before, in our columns, noticed this view at length. The holder is supposed to look down upon us, and see at one glance, with no smoke to dim his vision, every street, lane, alley and building in the whole town. This picture makes an elegant ornament for a counting room, and would not be amiss even upon the walls of a drawing room. By the way, we may remark that Mr. Schuchman is about engaging his place of business to the magnificent Brewer Block on the corner of Fifth and Market streets.

AN ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A woman named Cowell appeared before Mayor Morrison, on Tuesday, and charged officers Swain and Grubbs with having violently abused and maltreated her while arresting her for drunkenness. The officers answer that they used no more force than was necessary. It appears that the woman had been in the watch house that evening, but had been released at the request of her friends; that after she got out and while yet intoxicated she used very opprobrious language towards the police, and this may have induced them to use extra diligence in their second arrest.

BIRMINGHAM RAILWAY.—The work on this new road is now pressing forward on Smithfield street. A large crew of men were engaged on Tuesday evening in digging up the pavement, preparatory to laying down the rails. The track is finished, or nearly so, to the further end of the bridge, and all that remains now is to lay it down across the bridge and along Smithfield to Fifth street. Workmen are laying down the iron crossings at the intersection of Third and Smith field. It is obligatory upon them to do this before laying the track. The road will be completed within a short time now.

We observe by our Minnesota exchanges that Mr Henry Swisshelm, now on a visit to his aged mother in Senisteba, but who resides in St Cloud, Minnesota, has been unanimously nominated by the Republicans of his district for State Senator. Mr. Swisshelm we have known long and intimately, and we know him to be an honest, straight-forward man, and a thorough Republican. We hope and trust that he may be elected by a rousing majority.

FIFTH WARD RALLY.—There will be a Union Republican meeting (meeting for both precincts) in the school house on the corner of Pike and Walnut streets on the Thursday night of this week. The meeting will be addressed by Mr. Koethen and other German speakers, and by John H Hampton, Esq., and other English speakers. Let the Fifth Ward Republicans turn out in full force.

THE lawyers employed by Mr Rutherford to defend him in his approaching trial, are John H Hampton, Esq., and Judge Shaler. In the prosecution are engaged F. H. Collier and Thos. M. Marshall, Esqs. The case will not in all probability come on till near the end of the term. The general jail delivery cases must of course be first disposed of.

THE Great Republic Monthly, for the present month, is out. It contains the usual amount of interesting reading matter, with a number being fully up to those which have preceded it, and it has now become one of the most prominent magazines of the day. It is published by Oakesmith & Co., New York, to whom we are indebted for a copy.

COMMITTED.—At the jail, John Hofman was committed by Squire Hageman, on surety of the peace, on oath of [illegible] as "Sharper Smith," was W. M. Ogden, Michael Wilds, Lieut. Ross McKeown; 6th—Wm. G. Noble, P. S. Pollock, John Burns; 7th—David Pollock, Wm. Wilson, J. McKnight; 8th—Wm. Rogerson, Major J. S. Hillman, Jacob Zeigler; 9th—Wm. Smith, Robert J. Hamilton, John A, Martin.

THE LIBERTY STREET M. E. CHURCH.—This fine structure is finished in its basement story, and rapidly progressing to completion in its other parts. The lecture room has been already opened to public service each Sunday. Dr. Hall says of it in the Advocate, that it "is admirably arranged for sound and light, and well-proportioned in size. It will compare favorably with any room in the two cities of a similar character. Workmen are busily engaged in getting forward the main audience room and the outside work. It is thought that soon after the opening of the new year the building will be ready for dedication."

DIAMOND STREET.—A large company of men were at work on Tuesday, widening Diamond street, between Grant and Smithfield. The widening is carried down directly through McKee's Wagon shop, on the corner of the Diamond, and necessitates the removal of that old building on whose site we expect to see some elegant structure specially arise.

This old structure has, however, quite a history. It is about 20 years old, and was at first a church for Rev. Bryan. It was afterwards a temperance hall, then a stable, and finally a shop for furnishing the iron work of wagons. Its day is done.

A large and respectable meeting of the Republicans of the Fourth Ward, and vicinity, of Allegheny city assembled at P. Beilstein's Hall on Monday evening, Oct. 3. On motion of Dr. Baldwin, Mr. R Bard was elected President, and Wm. Oakley, Secretary. Mr. Moffat being called upon, addressed the meeting eloquently in behalf of Republican principles. At the conclusion of Mr. Moffat's address, Mr. Elias H. Irish, candidate for State Senator, addressed the meeting. On motion, Mr. D. L. Smith was called upon and addressed the meeting.

MINIATURE ENGINE.—A very neat miniature engine, with copper boiler attached 20 inches long by 8 inches in diameter, and everything about it in complete running order, is advertised for sale in to-day's paper. Aside from being quite a curiosity, it could be usefully employed in driving a sewing machine, or light machinery of almost any kind. It can be seen at Tate & Son's plumbing establishment, on Liberty street, at the head of Wood.

We are pleased to announce that George Vandercoff, whose Readings gave such pleasure last season, has been engaged by the Lecture Committee of the Literary Association to give two or more Readings some time during the present month.

[Correspondence of the Daily Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Pa., Oct. 3d, 1859.

The exciting scenes which have kept in active motion the good citizens of this place, for the last two weeks, it was supposed had terminated with the Fair. But not so. The town was again crowded on Monday to hear the argument in the Railroad Tax case, which was laid over at the August term until the 1st Monday of October. At three o'clock the court room was crowded, by citizens of the country, principally, whose anxiety to hear the argument had induced them to devote a day for that purpose. There was a full bench, Judge Gilmore and his Associates, Slagle and Hart, all being at their post. As anticipated, Montgomery, the attorney for the anti-tax men, asked leave to file an amendment to the replication to the answer of the respondent. This application gave rise to a lengthy discussion between Montgomery and George P. Hamilton, the attorney on the other side. After consultation on the part of the court, it was decided, in view of the great importance of the matter in issue, to grant the filing of the amendment, which was done; and at the instance of Mr. Hamilton, the court adjourned until 8 o'clock on Tuesday morning, to give him time to consider the new matter sprung upon him upon the eve of entering into the argument of the case. So I presume the war of words will come off to-morrow, unless Montgomery can conjure up some new facts, in his dreams to-night, material to the issue.

This case has caused intense excitement throughout the county, and has formed the staple of the conversation of the tax-payers for months past. The locofocos, with their characteristic cunning and disingenuousness, have labored to torture the question into a party one, but with no success. It can not be made to prejudice the Republican candidates, who are "all right on the record," and "took time by the forelock" in "heading off" their wily opponents. The Republican candidates than dare be hoped for from the trimming and shuffling course of their unscrupulous opponents. By the way, from all that I can learn, the prospects of the Republican ticket are most cheering. A full vote is certain victory, and I think that may be safely relied on, as the watch-fires begin to burn brightly in the Republican camp. Fair. I will make them brief, as your space is now precious on the eve of the election. I noticed some very fine specimens of fruit from the orchard of Mr. John Smith, of the Mt. Hope Nursery, in Upper St. Clair township, Allegheny county, 6½ miles from Pittsburgh. His post office is Woodville. His collection embraced a great many varieties, and the samples were of the very finest kind, and did honor to old Allegheny. Mr. S. took some premiums here, and very deservedly, as his skill and success in horticulture are deserving of reward. Mr. S. has an extensive Nursery, not only of fruit but ornamental trees, and those wishing either will know where to get a supply of prime qualities.

The only Sewing Machines on the ground were the "Berman," from the establishment of our friends Lassell & Northrop, of Market street, opposite N. Holmes & Son's Banking House, in your city. They were in constant operation and attracted the attention and admiration of thousands of spectators. Having no competition, they took the premium, of course. This machine is having an extensive sale in this county.

I will not tax your columns at greater length, concluding with a simple notice of some very rare specimens of vegetables from the gardens of Mr. Isaac Autin, of Elizabethtown, below Wheeling. They were all of the mammoth species, being unsurpassed in size and quality by any I have looked upon this season. Having come so far to exhibit such admirable and excellent samples of his skill in cultivation, I have thought it due to him to speak a word in commendation of his rare vegetables.

The citizens of this place were greatly shocked on Sabbath morning, on learning of the melancholy death of Mr. Thos. Barlow, a highly respected citizen, whose body was found early on Sabbath morning in the yard at the back of his dwelling, life being totally extinct. His death was caused, it is supposed, from his having missed his footing on the porch and being precipitated some five feet or more upon the hard earth, inflicting a contusion upon his temple, causing instant death. Mr. B. had been left by his lady in the sitting room, engaged in reading, when she retired.
