THE PERUVIAN SYRUP.—WHAT IS IT?—Most persons have an idea that the Peruvian Syrup is a preparation of Peruvian Barks. This is not the case. It is a soluble preparation of Protoxide of Iron, which is readily received into the constitution, and will act as a tonic in a way that metal does not usually act, when given in the form of carbonate, or even in the iron by hydrogen preparation, so popular with physicians. Whoever desires to give iron in a form that will be acceptable to the human stomach, and that will be readily taken into the blood, will give this Peruvian Syrup, which is attested by men of high character throughout the country. Dr. Hayes, the State Assayer of Massachusetts, testifies to its extraordinary virtues, and we have every confidence in the ability of the agent here to convince all sons of the same. The Peruvian Syrup is made in Boston, and has performed most wonderful cures in all diseases requiring a tonic and alterative preparation. See long advertisement in another part of to-days GAZETTE.

COMMON SENSE rules the mass of the people, whatever the misguided and misanthropic philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing, let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet derived for the benefit of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is fast becoming a household word from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere, and by HOSTETTER & SMITH, manufacturers and proprietors 65 Water and 56 Front streets.

He was taken before officer Reynolds, in Clarion, some weeks since, charged with seduction The officer brought him up to the line, but M'Aleer promised solemnly that he would marry Thereupon the wedding garments were prepared by the bride, and the groom was permitted to make ready for the interesting occasion, but took advantage of his liberty to run away, leaving his fair friend in despair A reward of $50 was offered for his arrest He was going to fight when Hague put his hand on him, but was taken, notwithstanding his demonstration He is locked up and awaits the orders of the authorities where his alleged crime was committed.

SUFFOCATED IN A SOAP VAT.—Two men, whose names we did not learn, employed in the soap factory of Messrs Sawyer, on Pennsylvania Avenue, came near being suffocated in a soap vat, yesterday After the vat had cooled off, the men went in to clean out the contents which could not be pumped out, but the carbonic acid (fifthe vat was so strong that they became prostrated by it They were, however, got out in a short time One was insensible and the other much prostrated, but both were restored by the use of prompt means, and were doing well at last accounts.

A second commitment for the same offence, on oath of Catharine Rourke, was also lodged against him

In the matter to which we alluded yesterday, where officers Swain and Grubbs, of the Allegheny police, were charged with having abused a woman named Covell, when arresting her, the officers allege that they used no undue force; that the woman being intoxicated, received the scratches, bruises and contusions of which she complained in a conflict against her husband, who appears to be a quiet man, and was all the time striving to pacify her.

Alderman Rogers committed in default of $200 bail, Eliza Walker, charged on oath of Elizabeth Beebe with selling liquor on Sunday.

At a meeting of the Gymnasia Association on Tuesday night, the Treasurer made a report, showing that there is in the Treasury subject to draft, over and above all debts of the corporation, the sum of $1,300. This is an excellent financial condition. Mr. Van Gorder the Treasurer, tendered his resignation on the occasion, which the Association refused to accept.

EDUCATIONAL.—At a meeting of the Board of Control of Allegheny, held Tuesday night, Miss Martha Hamilton was elected Principal Assistant of the Fourth Ward School, at a salary of $400 a year. The salary of Mr. Niell, Principal of the colored school was raised to $600, the increase to take effect from the 1st inst.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A grand Republican meeting was held last evening at Lafayette Hall. The hall was crowded with a most intelligent audience of this great republican city. Wm. A. Herron, Esq., called the meeting to order and announced as

President—Hon. Robert M'Knight.

Vice Presidents—Samuel M'Kelvy, Hugh Hammond and Wm. Forsyth, Esqs.

Secretaries—Thos. P. Willson, D. L. Eaton.

Mr. M'Knight, in introducing the speaker, said he had the pleasure of introducing the friend of American Industry, the champion of Free Speech on the floors of Congress, the champion of the Homestead bill; in short, the live Republican, Galusha A. Grow.

The speaker was received with great applause. He went on to speak of the great question which divides all our meetings, whether political or religious. He showed that now old questions which had divided parties had been swept away, and the great vital question of the extension or non-extension of Slavery, had taken the place of them.

He passed on in eloquent language to explain and demonstrate the action of the earlier Presidents and the fathers of the republic in restricting slavery, and it was not until the 20th of May, 1854, that this new doctrine was inaugurated that the Constitution of the United States, without any regard to local laws, protects property in men as it does in cattle or in the inanimate objects of nature. Within the last few years this modern Democracy has adopted this doctrine and joined hands with the greatest money power in the world, the slave oligarchy, to carry this outrageous doctrine to a triumph. To show to what an extent the earlier Presidents were opposed to slavery, he read from the act creating the territory of Orleans, now Louisiana, in which there is a clause prohibiting the traffic in slaves even in that territory, which came to us as slave territory from France. Jefferson, as President, signed the bill, but if Mr. Seward should advocate such doctrines now, what a howl would go up from modern Democracy.

Mr Grow then passed to an analysis of parties as now constituted, showing how the old parties had been dissolved and new formed on the freesoil and pro-slavery basis He then passed to an intensely interesting portion of his speech, the explanation and advocacy of the principles of the Homestead Bill, of which Mr. Grow was the champion in the last House, and which is one of the great measures which the Republican party is committed to before the people This bill proposes to give to every citizen of the age of 21 years, and to every person of that age who has declared his intention to become a citizen, 160 acres of the public domain, provided he shall settle upon and cultivate the same. Every Republican, with one solitary exception, voted for that bill in the last Congress, in both House and Senate, while every Democrat, with but four exceptions, voted against it, and so defeated it. Mr Grow declared that this fact should be placed and kept before the people. He read the names of the Senators voting against the bill, and when he came to the name of poor Bigler, poor beef Bigler, the whole audience burst into a storm of groans and hisses All these locofocos, the nigger drivers, voted for Cuba, Cuba to buy or steal that with its 750,000 slaves, but not one inch of land to the landless men.

After a thorough dissection of this matter, in which he was applauded to the very echo, he took up the matter of the increase of postage, which the Democrats strove to bring about last winter. He showed that the six New England States, New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, pay into the treasury from postage over $2?,000 above their expenses for mail routes, while the Slave States, peopled with Sambo and Quimbo, fall behind about four millions of dollars.

Mr. Grow next took up the Tariff, and spoke upon it with great force and effect to an appreciative audience. He spoke about two hours in all, and it has seldom been our good fortune to listen to a more soul-stirring speech

Mr. Grow is an elegant speaker, and he must have felt that the mighty audience which hung upon his words throughout appreciated his eloquent harangue It will serve to awaken our friends anew to their duties.

At a meeting of the Firemen's Association, held on Wednesday evening, the following delegates were present

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—The annual meeting of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions commenced yesterday. This is the oldest of the missionary organizations of the country. It was incorporated by the Legislature of Massachusetts in 1812, and the first missionaries were ordained at Salem on the 16th of February of the same year, and sailed early for the East Indies. It is stated that when the first missionaries set sail, the entire amount in the treasury was but $1,200. Now the income of the Society is about $325,000. The meeting was called to order by the Recording Secretary, who read a letter from President Hopkins, informing the Society of his inability to be present. Hon. Judge Strong was selected in his stead. Rev. Dr. Sheppard opened the meeting with prayer. The Treasurer read his report, showing the expenses of the year were $419,289; receipts $359,915; leaving a debt of $66,374; permanent fund, $66,715; permanent fund for officers, $39,840. A report was received from the Prudential Committee on the State of Foreign Missions, most of which were represented to be in a flourishing condition. They recommend an increase in the contributions corresponding with the growth of the missionary work. It was recommended that hereafter the annual meeting of the Board commence on the 1st Tuesday in October.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—Judge Jessup, of Pennsylvania, is acting as chairman. The report of the Prudential Committee was received, which says the receipts of the Board have failed to keep pace with the expenses. The income from foreign missions averages 312,000 per year. Up to the year 1852 the receipts were sufficient for the expenses. Out stations 131. Ordained ministers 169. Physicians not ordained 4. Male assistants 14. Female do. 210. Native preachers 222. WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 5.—But little information has been received in official quarters, in addition to what was telegraphically stated yesterday, relative to the filibuster movements. As to the reported departure of a party of filibusters, the only authentic account in the possession of the government is that they left in a tug boat, about ten miles below New Orleans, but which could not carry them to their place of destination. They doubtless expected to be taken on board a larger and more suitable steamer. In the meantime, Collector Hatch and his deputies, and other federal officers, are, according to their instructions, resorting to every legitimate means to intercept the filibusters. In addition to other measures, vessels have been dispatched for that purpose. While these things are progressing in the neighborhood of New Orleans, information has been received that a number of filibusters are in Mobile, some of whom were prominent in the Susan filibustering expedition, which vessel, it will be recollected, was wrecked at Glover's Reef. The federal officers there have been instructed to watch their movements, and act accordingly
