Mr. Harding opened the argument for the commonwealth and Mesers. Hoyt and Grisweld followed for the defendant. Mr. Hunter closed for the procedulen. The speeches were of marked ability.

Mr. Grisweld asked for several instructions, which were all granted by the Court.

Mr. Griswoid asked for several instructions, which were all granted by the Court.

The jury then retired.

Brown was then brought into the Court House, which was immediately thronged. The court gave its decision on the notion to arrest the judgment, overruling the objections made. On the objection that treason cannot be committed against the State except by a citizen, it ruled that wherever allegiance was due treason may be exclimited. Mort of the States have passed laws against treason. The objections as to the form of the wardiet rendered were also rendered as fusufficient. The clerk then asked Brown whether he had anything to say why sentence should host be protounced, when Brown stood-up, and in a clear voice said:
