Mr. T. K. Pentlicter, reported a preamble and a series of resolutions, by which SIMON CAMERON WAS PRESENTED AS THE OPPOSITION CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. The following is a portion of the preamble:

"In the successful in Pennsylvania we must have a candidate who is, in some degree, identified with and accustomed to the interests of the country, and whose policy it is known will be beneficent, not only to the commercial, but the agricultural, manufacturing, mechanical and mining interests, a policy which will give to industry its true reward, insure the farmer full compensation for his toil, secure the manufacturer fair remuneration for his investment, and the mechanic and laborer from starvation and beggary, while it will give to the merchant that confidence and security so long known as the great cause of human rights and of political liberty, and now, as then, unalterably opposed to the aggressive spirit of slavery, as manifested in all the acts, purposes and tendencies of the party in power, the people of this State will cordially and zealously co-operate with their fellow citizens of other States, to promote the cause of human freedom, and to resist any and all aggressions of slavery not sanctioned by the Constitution; but while they thus co-operate with them, they will at the same time demand that the toiling masses of free laborers shall have their rights protected so that they may be secure in their several employments, finding a just reward and stimulus for their industry, administering to each other's wants and enjoying mutual advantage. Labor is the life of any commonwealth, but especially that of Pennsylvania; and the right to enjoy the products of that labor is as sacred as the right to our soil. We hold it, therefore, to be the duty of our Government to repel invasions and encroachments upon the one as well as the other; and, so holding it, we must insist on the selection of a candidate for the Presidency, whose associations with and devotion to the interests of the laboring classes are an assurance to them that their rights will be protected.

The following strong among the resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended and urged upon the people of Pennsylvania to hold meetings in their respective counties, and make known their choice to their fellow-citizens in other States, and to impress upon their minds the importance of selecting a candidate who can secure the vote of Pennsylvania, thus avoiding the imminent risk of total defeat at the next Presidential election.

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of this Club be requested to prepare an address, setting forth the claims of Gen. Cameron for the Presidency, and the reasons which influence the people in this State in favor of his nomination.

Resolved, That it be recommended to our fellow-citizens of this city to meet in their Wards, and organize People's Clubs, for the purpose of aiding and promoting the object of this Club.

Resolved, That, in thus manifesting our preference for one of our distinguished citizens, whose nomination would ensure the Electoral Vote of this State, and afford, as we think, a certain guarantee of success throughout the Union, we have no intention to disparage the claims of any of the other distinguished persons named for the office. We, on the contrary, fully recognize the necessity of union and harmony, and fully concede to all the same right which is exercised by ourselves, feeling well assured that when the final decision of the People shall be promulgated through a National Convention, they will be found with us battling for sound national principles, which are in strict accordance with those in support of which Pennsylvania has been redeemed.

Hon. Henry D. Moore being called for, said he came there to-night with the expectation of being a silent spectator, but in response to the call of his name, he would express a cordial co-operation with this movement. It was not only proper, but essentially important and necessary that the citizens of Philadelphia, who were opposed to the present Administration, should give expression to their feelings on the Presidential struggle, also some expression as to the candidate who would best represent their interests.

Mr. Moore then continued to urge the claims of General Cameron.

D. W. Sellers, Esq., J. Goforth, Esq., and Wm. Morgan, Esq., paid glowing tributes to the sterling abilities of Gen. Cameron as a Statesman, and one who would ever contribute to the interests of his native State.

Executive Committee.—Samuel Lloyd, Charles M. Neal, Kennedy McCaw, Thomas K. Finletter, Wm. P. Hamm, Samuel P. Welon, David W. Sellers, Hamks A. Bowie, John M. Riley, William Watt, John Meges, Reuben Sands, James Work.

The meeting then adjourned.

CONCILIATING THE NORTH.
