it would be well to have it done as soon as possible. The act reads as follows :

sible. The set reads as follows: "That it shall not be lawful for any person or per-sens to sall by sample, card or other specimens, any goods or marchandise of any kind or description whatayer, for or on account of any merchant, manu-lacturer or other persons not having his principal place of basiness within this State, and to whom a license has not been granted under the laws of this for marchandise in violation of the provi-long of this act, such person so that sell or ex-hibit for sale, either by sample, card or otherwise, any goods or merchandise in violation of the provi-long of this act, such person or persons so offending, shall be liable to a fine of three hundred dollars for every such offence, which may be recovered by a suif in the name of the Commonwealth before any alder-man or justice of the peace, one-half to the use of case, the other half for the use of the Common-wealth."

As some Philadelphia houses think the provisions of the above act do not apply to them, we append another, which may interest them.

It is an act passed 10th April, 1849, relative to

"That any person who shall not have been a resi-iont within the County of Allegheny at least si:

"That any person who shall not have beed a resi-dent within the County of Allegheny at least six months before applying to the City of County Treas-urer for a license to scale by wholesale or retail, goods, warse or merchandire, within the said county of Al-legheny, shall, at the time of applying for such li-censes file with the city or county treasurer from whom such license is sought to be obtained, an affi-davit made before some alderman or justice of the pencer within a side ity or county, setting forth that it is the boars fide mithin the said county and be an-gaged in selling, by wholesale any fatall goods, wares and merchandires within the faid county for and daring the term of a tleast one year from the date of such license."

entertained by Mr. Bates. If Mr. Bates really ntertains these views, why does he not put them forward in his own name? Why allow others to speak for him, when he is so able to speak for himself?

Section 24 provides that any person not hav-ing been a resident of Allegheny county for six months, who shall sell, wholesale or retail, by J. ample or otherwise, without having filed the necessary alidavit, shall for every such offence be subject to and pay a fine of fifty dollars, to be sued for and recovered before any alderman or justice of the peace.
