Bpectral views in the dim distance are looming up before his astenlabed vision; and un-der the startling baailings of "The Coming Cristie--The Union; B Danger:" "Gloomy forebodings," he has been serving up most terrible dishes of horress to his readers. In the language of the great proto-type of modern democracy, he should bead his next leader wit "Häill Horres" Hall:" The Post man sees--So that bet rather dischass visible.

"No light, but rather darkness visible Served only to discover sights of woe, Regions of sorrow, dolefal shades." And he is rearing like the Arch-Fiend-

Heried beadlong flaghing from the startial sty, "The Union in 'danger." Satan shoutdo, down" rebellious crow that the liberty of Heaven was in danger unless they could destroy "The througe and measured of God." The man of the Post trembleth. His party is in poril. "The president and 'Mr. Case" are alarmed. "They see as plain as the noon-day sun that the suc-yces of the Republican party will abake the founda-tion of our government." Slight mitake, friend Bann.
