Disurios.—Nathing is more ridicalous than the attempts of the locatoro press and the lead-ing locatoro politicians to terrify the people with the bugaboo of disonion. They seem to have risked their all upon it, and are as desperate as a gambler with his last card in a doubtful game. If they cannot scare the people with it, now, their last chance is gone. Hence the numerous ehapes in which the death's head and bloody bones is ferred up. The fire-calers in Congress display the ghastly spectacle in different phases every day; locatoro contars at Union-asving meetings exhaust the vocabulary in depicting the terrible horrors of the dreadful cistatoropher and locatoro editors surcharge their command in de-saribing an event existing only in their disturb-ed imaginations. But so far they have seared no.one. They with them in their union-esving meetings at they cannot existing an event existing only in their laisurb-et maginations.

But so far they have scared no. one. They have not even fooled any one into laking part with them in their union-esving meetings. In Philadelphie the locofoco hand was so plain in all the arrangements for the Union meeting that the most prominent opposition men were either excluded from it or held themselves aloof from it. It and a similar Eoston meeting, were mere lo-cofoco gatherings, for the purpose of hiding locofocoism under a simulated love for the Union. From whence do the threats or dangers of dissolution come? If any attempt is made to dissolve the Union, (which is not at all probable,) it will be made by democratic auspices. We have no apprehension of datager from that source; but should any ex-ist, it will be a poor way to remedy it by contin-uing in power the party from which the danger comes. Our safety and that of the Union con-sists in iurning thest party out. We vergest, no one has yet been scared by the silly vaporings of these amateur terrorists. The Werepest, no one has yet been scared by the silly vaporings of these amateur terrorists. The trick ther would play is too transparent. Let them play it out, however.
