Pittsburgh Gazette.

PITTSBURGH:

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 17, 1859.

THE ANTI-LECOMPTON DEMOCRATS.—The debate in the U. S. House of Representatives, notwithstanding its irregularity, is not without its usefulness. Begun by the southern democrats, for the purpose of obstructing the organization of the House by the Opposition, and of creating a Union panic likely to frighten the timid and wavering, it has been conducted in such a manner as to convince every man of the wild and impracticable character of the policy of these Administration men. In another way, too, it is fast accomplishing an end not foreseen. The anti-Lecompton democrats from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and New York, have been the subject of much speculation, as they have it in their power to bestow success upon one standard or the other, if they should see fit to do so. In their indecreet, dictatorial, and hectoring style, the Administration democrats have been engaged in pursuing these men, until at length the stern spirit of resistance which led them to oppose and defeat that darling scheme of the Administration, the Lecompton bill, has again been awakened, and within the last few days, some of them have spoken out manfully.

The speeches of Messrs. Haskin, of New York, and Hickman, of Pennsylvania, must have surprised some of the Administration men, who while they may have expected both those gentlemen to vote eventually for Sherman for Speaker, possibly did not regard them as endowed with sufficient boldness and courage to speak out as they have done. Yesterday another of the anti-Lecompton democrats took the floor, Mr. Adrain, of New Jersey—and made it pretty manifest that he, as well as Hickman and Haskin, have no idea of crawling back humbly into the fold, to take such treatment as the Buchanan democrats have in store for them.

It will not have escaped the notice of our readers that these gentlemen all speak of the Administration, and the democratic party as hardly worth a care. Even the expression of Mr. Douglas' wish that they had gone into the party caucus at Washington seems to have no weight with them. Mr. Adrain puts it aside with determination. If Mr. Douglas wishes to go into the Charleston Convention, to sell out himself and his principles for the sake of a Presidential nomination, it is quite clear that he cannot carry these men with him. The conduct of the democratic party in congress, this session, has thoroughly opened their eyes to the dangerous tendencies of the schemes entertained by its managers. They have seen, as the country has, that the democratic party has degenerated into a mere machine to serve the factious designs of the most incendiary southern sectionalists, and cannot, without gross dishonor to themselves, submit to become their instrument. The people, irrespective of party, will sustain them in this noble stand, but their original distinction of anti-Lecompton democrats can no longer avail.—Phil. N. American.

THE Virginians are getting up all sorts of Non-intercourse Associations, to frighten Northern merchants of anti-Slavery proclivities. An advertisement also appears in the Richmond papers offering $100,000, or $25 each, for the head of every subscriber to Helper's infamous circular. The same gentleman offers also, to be one of one hundred, to pay five hundred dollars each ($50,000) for the head of William H. Seward, and would add a similar reward for Fred. Douglass; but regarding him a hand and shoulders above these traitors, he disposed to let him remain where he now is.

TO THE NERVOUS OF BOTH SEXES.—A Retired Clergyman having been restored to health in a few days, after many years of great nervous suffering, is willing to assist others by sending (free) a copy of the prescription used. Direct the Rev. JOHN M. DAGNALL, 156 Fulton street, Brooklyn, N.Y. se30-2tdnw2

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 18, 1858.

DR. KEYSER.—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure to recommend your Pectoral Syrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be affected with coughs, colds, cough and hoarseness or any kind, and for its peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less, in my life affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to do for diseases as prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,

EDWARD D. JONES,
Cashier Citizen's Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, O., March 14, 1859.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say that it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

T. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

—Dr. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my not acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. I myself have used the same out of my cough, and the worst one I ever suffered with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do warn those who are afflicted with a cough to give it a fair trial as I have done, and they will be pleased to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack by any consideration, if I could help it, any more than I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for investing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name, in this regard, as you think proper.

E. F. PRATT,
Messenger Coal Comp., Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH, May 11, 1858.

DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: I am constrained to give you my testimony in favor of your PECTORAL SYRUP, and all who entertain doubts can call on me personally.

F. F. P.
Patterson, April 24, 1857.

READ THE TRUTH.—Dr. KEYSER—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, without benefit—among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your PECTORAL SYRUP, and before one bad used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough. JOHN DAVIS,
Red Stone street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 21, 1853.

DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Permit me to express to you the benefit I have derived from the use of your PECTORAL SYRUP. I am under the painful necessity of being exposed to all weathers, in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a coughing and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the county, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

JOHN C. LITTLE, Peebles tp.
Witness—D. M. KEAR.

Patton Tp., April 14th, 1857.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago, an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken very remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life. JOHN MYERS.
