reads with astonishment the speeches of the Democrats in the House, denouncing the Union of the States, and these sentiments receive the most heariy applause from the members of the party on the floor of the House, and from the pald claquers of the A' mistration, who throug the galleries. The walle free North are looking with wonder and indignation upon the strange spectacle. Mr. Haskin, of New York, himself a Democrat, clected on the smit-Lecompton platform, in his speech last week, referred to the fact we have above stated, in the following language:

"Mr. Clerk, I have heard upwards of a dozen specches already from the gontlemen of the South, proclaiming secession detrines, in certain contingencies, which detrines have been applaided by the galleries, in this southern oity, where large numbers of the men who daily fill them recide—employees and recipionate of Government money: They are, it seems, paid, the people's maney to appear here and insult their Bepresentatives. people's money to appear here and insult their Representatives. The members from the free States have come here expecting to enjoy the hospitality for which the South has always been calebrated, and not such treatment as this. I have not heard from; this side one single speech or semiment which has not breathed devotion to the Constitution and the Union, and a determination to faithfully maintain and protect the South in all of her Constitutional rights.

"And here I would ask whether there are not men in the South who are accountable for setting shed examples? I allude to those who last Congress justified General Walker and his men in their lavasion of Nicaragua, a country with which we were then at peace. Do gentlemen upon the other bide of the Hones justify those who met fa southern convention and proclaimed themselves in favor of re-opening the African allawe trade, in opposition to the compromises of the Constitution? Do gentlemen upon the other side justify the landing of a carge of slaves, by the Wanderer, upon the southern coanse to the law declaring the clave trade pirsoy? While there are gentlemen South entertaining such a modest proposition for Mr. Nilson as their side justify the landing of a carge of slaves, by the Wanderer, upon the southern coanse to the law declaring the clave trade pirsoy? While there are gentlemen South entertaining such exclusive resolutions they published there are gentlemen South entertaining such exclusive resolutions they published there are gentlemen South entertaining such exclusive such and other or country with their amounts of the Constitution? Do gentlemen to the trade of the North, that there should be found fanatics there?"

Let people who profess to have such devotion to the compromises of the resolution they be such as the suc

Tun Vennigo Citizen has followed in the wake of nearly every opposition paper in Pennsylvavia, in taking ground in favor of Gen. Cameron. t says: .

"The overwhelming importance of ascertaining, as fully as possible, those aspiring to the highest position in the people's gift, is more apparent than ever, and we know of no safer way to gain that knowledge than by an examination of the anticedents, the public actions, of the claimants to Presidential honors. In this way, with this object in view, after having comewhat carefully surveyed the whole ground to be fought in the next campaign, with an ear open to the claims of other good men named in this connection, with Republican principles as a test, and Republican actions as a guaranty, we unhealth ingly pronounce Simon Cameron as the man for the criss."

The Iowa Republican News says: "CAMERON AND LINCOLN.-The above named gentlemen seem to stand head and shoulders above any other Republicans, as popular condi-dates for nomination for the Presidency and Vice residency, at the National Conver TER SPRAKEBBHIF.—The singular movement in the House, on Friday, by which Mr. Sherman's vote fell off to 96 and Mr. Gilmer's vote to 86, is explained by the papers just come to hand.
