opinion of a Mr. Johnston, and desire my views as to its correctness."

Every, lawyer knows that the provision in the only charter, to which you refer, is entirely consumant with principle and authority. The objection is unquestionably fatal to the present political aspirations of Mr. Sawyer, Jr. The incorparation of this sound constitutional provision in our city charter was intended to protect our citizens adding the proceeding of the content and the citizens against the accidental election, and the misrule of itinerant political adventurers, and every honest man and true civizen desires the law strictly enforced.

The opinion of Mr. Johnston, that the afore-The opinion of Mr. Johnston, that the afore-said profision in the eige charter is unconstitu-tional, and that the election of Mr. Sawyer "would like held and adjudged valid," is steply riticulodize and, therefore, unworthy of the ven-tiliation which you give it. This is my decided opinion, and I am confident it is the opinion of every completent member of the legal profession, who has examined the question.

Very respectfully yours.
