signed, having expressed their intention of becoming members.

It is greatly to be regretted that some of the carly members of the Institution to whom wo are indebted for its inception, or for having suistanted it in its darkest days, seem to have lost later interest in it. The present mangers appreciate the importance of the services these gentlements and have rendered in past times, and venture-to express the hope that they will again connect them, solves with the Association during the coming year. Two years ago a large increase of members solves with the Association during the coming year. Two years ago a large increase of members of the business engagements of its members, or other cances, did not act. The plan of appointing to the business engagements of its members, or other cances, did not act. The plan of appoining almilar committees at the earliest possible particle, it is unjust to expect every labor to be performed by the Board of Directors. However, that they were over powered, they at least the variety of the Swiss Boll Ringers' concert in the sungles to be appointed to do so by physical force.
