Pittsburgh Gazette.

PITTSBURGH:

TUESDAY MORNING, JAN. 24, 1860.

THE rumor which first appeared in the Washington correspondence of a Boston paper, that Senator Seward has counselled a change of candidates, is entirely without foundation. Gov. Seward has not taken any officious part in the organization of the House, but he has never failed to express himself, in conversation, as impressed with the eminent fitness of Mr. Sherman for the Speaker's chair, and as confident of his ultimate success. Neither does Mr. Seward seem at all cast down or dejected by the prophecies of his own political discomfiture. He doubtless feels confident that his political acts and words have been cordially endorsed by a large majority of constituents, who are not to be intimidated from what they believe to be right.—Wash. cor. Com. Adver.

SHIPMENT OF GRAIN.—We are glad to learn that several shipments of wheat have been entered for New York and other ports in the Old States, also for Australia. This is well; but more must go. Every grain grower who is wise, will look to this matter, and aid in sending forward all the grain possible. The supply is enormous, and unless it shall be shipped out of the country, the market will be heavy and sales dull, and price below a just one.—[California Farmer.

WIT AND TRUTH.—The following good story is told at Washington of Thaddeus Stevens of Pennsylvania. At the time when several of the anti-Lecompton men voted for Mr. Gilmer of North Carolina, one of the prominent Southern Democrats approached Mr. Stevens, saying he was very much astonished that these men should vote for Mr. Gilmer, who owned nearly a "hundred head of niggers." "Does he?" said Mr. S., "then I think I shall vote for him myself, for it is your little one-headed nigger men who make all the trouble."

WARNING TO SNUFF DIPPERS.—Miss Tennessee Gibson died recently near Stranger's Home, Lawrence county, Ark. She was passionately addicted to snuff dipping, so much so that she retired for the night with the poison in her mouth and in the morning she was found a corpse—with snuff adhering to her lips.

Soyer's Sultana Sauce,

FOR HOT AND COLD DISHES OF ALL KINDS.

This most delicious and appetising Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well-known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite Sauce in England, and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid to digestion.

OPINIONS OF THE LONDON PRESS.

"We recommend our correspondent to try Mrs. Soyer's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet

"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer," —Observer.

"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.
