Congress. In reply to this threat, he had to say that the Northern States could not be intimidated by it. They were here not to fight, but to logislate. He would give the Senator from North Carolina notice that should they be assaulted here, with deadly intent, while in the discharge of their duies, thesa assaults would be repelled and retailated by sons who will not dishouer their fathers who fought at Bunker's Hill, and conquered at Naratoga. Though reluctant to enter upon such a struggle they would not abnadent it in dishoner. The American Democracy, led and controlled by slavery propagandists, stood before the nation as the entery of human progress. He recounted the wrongy it had perpetrated in Kansa and elsewhere, and closed by expressing the hope that the intelligent patriotism would rebuck the folly and fanaticism which would sliver the l'aion into fregments, and proclaimed, in the language of Jackson, that "the Union must and shall be preserved."

Mr. Davis agreed with the Senator from North Carolina. He reposted that if men seire the government with hestility to the South, she would rederes the wrong with her right hand. The disunionists are those who say, the foundation of the government. The South never sought to demolish it, and the history of the Government would show that fact. The Senator from Massachusetts, should not arraign the Senator from Ma

SACKVILLE, Jan. 25.—Although the shareholders of the Nova Scotia Telegraph Co., at their recent annual meeting, emphatically condemned the conduct of Mesers. Cogswell, Morton and their associate directors, for their connection with the private new recentators, and by a nearly unanimous voto turned them oot of office, yet it appears that the obligations of the company to the speculators are such as possibly to compet the Associated Press to continue their express arrangement for averal weeks longer. The America's nows, now nearly due at Halifax, will be expressed as heretofore, but their arrangements here are of such a character that it is quito impossible for the speculators to anticipate to the public reports at any point west of this station.

Bosrow, Jan. 25.—Mr. Sanborne, who was summoned to specar before the Senate Investigating Committee, was waited upon at Concord, by an U. S. CLRYLLAND, Jan. 25.—United States Marshal Johnson was in Ashtabula county yesterday, to serve a summons on J. R. Giddings and John Brown, jr., to appear before the Senate Committee.
Giddings is in the State of New York, but was telegraphed for, and will no doubt proceed to Washington forthwith.
Brown could not be found, but a copy of the summons was left at his house, and the probability is that he will obey.
Both are summoned to appear on the 30th of the present month. HARTFORD, Jan. 25.—The Republican State Convention met at 10 a. m. Mr. E. K. Foster, of New Haven, chairman. A ballot resulted in the unanimous phoice of Wm. A. Buckingham for Governor, and Julius Callan for Lieutenant Governor. The Convention is one of the largest and ablest which has been held in this State for years. Nearly 400 delegates are present.

HARTFORD, Jan. 25 .- The Republican State Cor mayrown, Jun. 22.—The itemphican State Convention for the nomination of State officers, and their choice of delegates to the Chicago Convention, meet in this city to-day. A large delegation has already arrived, and the Convention promises to be the largest and ablest ever held by the party in this State. The present State ticket promises to be unanimously renominated.
