A Child's Smile.

BY THE AUTHOR OF JOHN HALIFAX.

"For I say unto you, that in Heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in Heaven."

A child's smile—melting more;
Veiled, and soft, and warm, and seldom seen;
Like summer lightning o'er,
Leaving the little face again serene.

I think, they well believed,
Those angels, who did grieve to see how far
Thy childhood is removed
From sports that dear to other children are,

On this pale cheek has grown
The brightness of his countenance, and made
A beauty like his own—
That while we see it, we are half afraid,

And marvel, will it stay!
Or, long ere manhood, will that angel fair
Departing some sad day
Steal the child-smile and leave the shadow care?

Nay, fear not. As is given
Unto this child the father watching o'er,
His angel up in heaven
Beholds Our Father's Face evermore.

And He will help him bear
His burthen, as his father helps him now;
So may he come to wear
That happy child-smile on an old man's brow.

A NEAPOLITAN ROWLAND HILL.—There are some curious stories respecting Fra Rocco, the celebrated Dominican preacher of Naples. On one occasion he preached a penitential sermon and introduced so many illustrations of terror that he soon brought his hearers to their knees. While they were thus showing every sign of contrition he cried out, "Now all of you who sincerely repent of your sins, hold up your hands." Every man in the vast multitude immediately stretched forth his hands. "Holy Arch Angel Michael," exclaimed Rocco, "thou who with thine adamantine sword standest at the right of the judgment seat, hew me off every hand which has been raised hypocritically." In an instant every hand dropped, and Rocco of course profited by the occasion to pour forth a torrent of eloquent invective against their sins and deceit.

To explain the facilities to travel which mark the present age, an Englishman said that during the present year he had eaten a sandwich on the top of the great pyramid of Egypt, drank the health of Queen Victoria on the verge of the crater of Vesuvius, and been rather sharply scolded by his wife on the summit of Mount Blanc.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13, 1858.

DR. KEYSER.—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure to advocate to recommend your Pectoral Syrup. As a medicine it is entitled to the attention of any person who may in any manner be affected with coughs, colds, cough and hoarseness of any kind, and for its peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less, in my life affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few dose of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, pursuing to rely for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD D. JONES,
Cashier Chemical Deposit Bank.

STAUNTONVILLE, O., March 14, 1859.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say that it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—Dr. KEYSER:—Knowing the delay of my not sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted with coughs will give it a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine," I would not offer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any price. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for having so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name, in the regard as you think proper.

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1859.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, without benefit—among them Dr. KEYSER'S Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your PECTORAL SYRUP, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely, of her cough. JOHN DAVIS.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 31, 1853.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a coughing and spitting, which commenced about the 15th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best Physicians in the county, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

JOHN G. LITTLE, Peebles tp.
Witness—H. M. KEAR.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 31, 1853.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago, an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one said was consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit. His brother came to see him daily, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him and it cured him, to the
