be as that of the corporators. 20, That testimeny of Mr. Lowary, as to the admission of Bradbrook, should not have been admisted, said admission having been made under an assumption of Mr. L. that the boys had committed the offense, and that he was aware of the fact. 3d, That the evidence of Keyser should have been rejected.

rejected.
After a lengthy argument by Mr. S., Mr. Mil-ler, for the Commonwoulth, replied, and the court took the matter under advisement.

Naw Tural Revesa.—Mosers. T. B. Hamilton and N. P. Fetterman, for the defense, and District Attorney Miller for the Commonwealth, argued the motion for a new trial in the case of John Straub, Baptiste Hauser and Jao. 1st. Must the jury be kept together?
2d. Must our verdict be one of three things?
3d. Can we hear from our families?
The Court answered the interrogatories as

Mr. Hicks, in asking the questions, said "it would be impossible for them to agree, except by brute force." by brute force."

The jury, many of whom look haggard and weary, retired again to their rooms.

place in December last at Sandy Creek, in the township above named. J. B. Sweitzer, Esq., counsel for prisoner, presented sfildavite of Jas. M'Clintock, (son of prisoner.) Francis Wilson, Samuel Bures and Daviel M'Curdy, residents of Penn township, setting forth that M'Clintock had always borne a good character until this difficulty; that the prosequiors are young men of a violent and quarrelsome disposition; that some of the girls, witnesses in the case, were of a loose character. Mr. Sweitzer also presented to the Court a petition of about twenty-five residents of the township, asking the Court to dis-

Mr. Sherman made the point that all this discussion was out of order.

Mr. Hill said that Mr. Keilt had made a favorable show of Mr. Pennington.

Mr. Barksdale said if Mr. Pennington were elected the representatives of a slaveholding constituency would be responsible for it. But for the vote of Mr. Davis, of Md., Mr. Davis could not be elected. That gentleman was a member of the American party.

Mr. Sherman again called Mr. Barksdale to order. There was much confusion throughout the proceedings.
