-A development was made before the Senate Investigating Committee, at Washington, las week, which should cause the people hereafter to regard with suspicion and distrust the efforts periodically made in this country to organize labor is the legitimate sphere of slaves; that smior pastors of the Collegiate Reformed Dutch what are called "third parties." While the labor should be owned and not hired, thus senior pastor of the Collegiate Reformed Dutch Church, died on Friday, at the age of 77 years, avowed purposes of the leaders in these moves triking a blow at the very liberies of nine-the was first settled in two Associate churches, of swowd purposes of the lowest the very inserting a blow at the very inserting to the ments of the North, ments may be pissuible enough, they are in reality gotten up as a political speculation by interested persons. Before the lavestigating Committee, Mr. Megarge, a democratic paper of the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North, Washington county, Pa., and was afterwards and no voice of condemnation is raised to provide the North Alberta the North Alberta the North Alberta the North Alberta the North Albe perchant of Philadelphia, testified among other things that he had received between four and five thousand dollars from Mr. Wendell, in 1866, to be applied to the purpose of organizing a third party in the city, the object of which was to operate on the Practical Section of the Presidential and Cubernatorial elections, and which was considered essential to the success of the Pensorals in the State. This general fact, the Democrates in the State. This general fact, the Democrates in the State. This general fact, the deristoned at the time, but it was not known then, it as large as Ohlo, Pennsylvanis, and New 19 as large as Ohlo, Pen laining a principle in supporting a third organvile tricksters, who had been purchased to set that ball in motion under the inspiration of man-

It affords were subsequently contributed by New York to much gratification to the Board to renew the aid in these infamous operations, the incention headquarters in Washington, and directly under has been lost. the patronage of a Democratic Administration." The North American comments upon this dis-spect, and who, in a certain sense, are mere adventurers, without stake or character, relying solely upon daring audacity as a cover for their selfish designs. The testimony before this committee may furnish the basis of a more extended investigation by the House, because it is very swident that the crust has only been broken.— The abuses and corruptions which have grown up during the list and present administrations, are appailing to contemplate, and unless they can be checked by some radical correction, thus reforming what has become a system with the privity and participation of those in power, this investigation by the House, because it is very syddent that the crust has only been broken.

The abuses and corruptions which have grown up during the last and present administrations, are appalling to contemplate, and unless they can be checked by some radical correction, thus reforming what has become a system with the privity and participation of those in power, this downward tendency will be precipitated into a frightful and fatal abandon,ment of all integrity and justice in administering the government. It has already become the proy of venal sharpers, and when high functionaries are seen consorting with such a crew, and parceling out the spoils and jabs within their gift, as is proved, under eath, before the committee, the people may as well take the alarm, and believe the republic is in danger. Our institutions and this fabric of free government are more likely to be underwined by had covernment than to be has already become the proy of venal sharpers, and when high functionaries are seen consorting with such a crew, and parceling out the spoils and jobs within their gift, as is proved, under eath, before the committee, the people may as well take the alarm, and believe the republic is in danger. Our institutions and this fabric of free government are more likely to be undermined by had government than to be overthrown by sectional strife."

SENATOR DOUGLAS'S SEDICTOR LAW .- To properly realize the great change which has taken place in the avowed sentiments of this political demagogue, it is only necessary to compare his position a year ago with that which he holds now. A year ago he was pleading his cause beelhern Tribunal-now he is seeking the countenance and support of the South. Never did an Eastern slave prostrate himself before an imperious master, as the Illinois Seantor now bends his body before the cotton lords of the slave states. At their feel, he throws, with an abandou, which oren in his case is humilisting, his reputation—his principles—the statement of the class extended on the screet of the statement should cherish or a private clitten hold in sacred revertures. If he has ever sinued against the South—and he now acknowledges the grievous fault in sackletch and askees and in sorrow and shame—he is willing to make any stonement the party in the sease of the lostitution of slavery, which would punish as a crime the mere of a clitten of the North, and place Northern society under an explanage more intologically as a crime the mere of the white men of the whole country. All that he asks in return for these concessions it is no mental for the Presidency; and thus, like another Arnold, he would barter the liber—will be allored the another Arnold, he would barter the liber—will be another Arnold, he would barter the liber—will be a contracted the liber than the armold the arnoll be a contracted to the barte the countenance and support of the South. He declares that he attached himself to the party, believing, in common with many of his country, believing, in common with many of his country, believing, in common with many of his country, that they were the friends of the laboring man, particularly to those of foreign birth. He has been with their long enough to know that these professions are false, and made to delude the ignorant. The millions of landless poor from Europe had a right to expect that the Homestcad bill would receive a hearty support at the bands of a party that owed its accordancy to their volos; but they had been doomed to disappointment. Labor should every-where be homorable; but an effort is now making to degrade it. Democratic Senators declare that where be honorable; but an effort is now making contests to degrade it. The St. Louis Democrat tells how a firm in that oily rectived five packages of money, each supposed and estenably containing $1,000, on a check on the State Bank. The money was not counted either by the Bank or by the State Commissioner, from whom the Bank received it. When the firm drawing the money counted it there was a deficit of $500. The Bank don't rectify mistakes, and the Commissioner said his count was right; the Bank employees are noted for honcety, and the firm is out $500. We rather think a court of law would make the Bank correct mistakes.
