ADDRESS
TO THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The people of Pennsylvania assembled in Convention at Harrisburg, on the 15th day of January, 1860, to consider the expediency of amending the Constitution of this State, and to elect a President and Vice President of the United States.

This act is not done hastily, nor with any view to the interests of any individual, but with a view to the interests of the whole people of this State, and to the interests of the whole Union.

It is the duty of every citizen to support the measures which are proposed, and to vote for the candidates who are named, in the most judicious manner.

We are, Sir, your obedient servant,
J. H. H. & CO.
