THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 15.

THE POPE GIVING COMMUNION TO AMERICANS IN ROME.—The Metropolitan Record, the organ of Archbishop Hughes, of the 3d of March, continues a lengthy and very interesting letter from Rome, dated on the 30th of January, from which we make the following extracts:

Many as have been the events which have contributed to render the Pontificate of Pius IX. one of the most glorious recorded in the history of the church, no one of them, perhaps, has excited so much admiration, so much interest in the breast of American Catholics, as the foundation of the American College in Rome. The pontiff yesterday visited the College, said mass, and administered the holy communion to the students. Having heard of the honor about to be conferred upon their young countrymen, many American Catholics had expressed a desire of also receiving communion from his Holiness—a request which was readily granted.

At 8 A. M. the Pope arrived, and, attended by a portion of his noble guard and by the prelates of the anticamera, proceeded to the high altar, where he soon commenced the mass. He was assisted by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Bacon, Bishop of Portland, Maine, and by the Right Rev. Dr. Goss, Bishop of Liverpool. The time for the communion having approached, the students of the new College knelt around the alter, and from the hands of his Vicar received the blessed sacrament. The American students of the Propaganda next enjoyed the same privilege, followed by many of the visiters, the majority of whom were Americans.

In the centre of the hall a large table was spread, well laden with refreshments, solid at once and elegant. The golden service had been lent by the Pontiff. His Holiness having taken his seat, the fine band stationed in the orchestra struck up, and the feast commenced. Seated on either side of the Pope were their Eminence Cardinals Barnabo and Catarina, Prefect and Secognino of the Propaganda. The company was composed of the most distinguished persons in Rome, residents and strangers. Having given his apostolic benediction, his Holiness now arose, and after a few moments spent in receiving the homage of the visiters, he was left alone with his American children.

He immediately commenced his visit through the establishment, and with a critical eye examining each room and corridor, he anxiously inquiring into the condition of every thing, and displayed a great interest in the comfort of the students. At the end of one of the corridors is placed Crawford's fine bust of that great man—dear to the heart of every American—Washington. When the Pontiff approached it he paused in a moment in contemplation. At this instant Bishop Bacon asked him a favor for the students. "Certainly, my child," replied the Pontiff, in the presence of such dignity, and he pointed to the bust, 'I can refuse nothing.' And then, to the surprise and pleasure of the Pope, were given—to the memory of the hero—three ringing hurrahs—real American shouts."

THE SABBATH IN CUBA.—The editor of the Columbia South Carolinian, writing from Trinidad de Cuba, says:

"In business matters, there seems to be no difference between Sundays and other days—the stores are all open, and things hawked about the streets as during the week. Sunday is the great day for amusement—bull-fights and cock-fights and balls being given on that day. Passing by the theatre last evening, on returning from a walk, an immense crowd induced an inquiry into the cause of it, when we found that there was a dignity ball of colored folks going on. A man standing at the door had just communicated the information that the house was full, and no more could be admitted. At these balls the colored ladies vie with their betters, though not recognizing them as such, and the line is the extreme of fashion. The colored gents have equal pretensions, and their style of dress is a prominent feature in the picture."

SALE OF A VOTE.—A novel case of bribery has recently been decided by the Supreme Court of Vermont. The facts are as follows: A man went to one of his neighbors belonging to the opposite party in politics who was owing him, and offered to discharge a debt of $165 if he would use his influence to have him elected town representative, and he should be so elected. The bargain was carried out, the vote was thrown, and decided the election. The court held that the contract was illegal, and the agreement to discharge the debt invalid.
