of Bungalor "App Still the Count" Nobraska Territory has decided 30 Republicans to 12 Democratio members of her constitutional convention. This is the most extraordinary violory which the Republican party have over yet achieved. The National Administration have always heretofore been able to control the politics of all the territories through the land offices, but Nebraska is actually in rebellion. She prefers free labor, and loudly protests against degrading white laborers to the level of alaxes. She aske, and will have "free men" for her "free soil."

however, the tender point of the whole matter. The Pope is as ambitious to wield the kingly scepter as Napoleon himself. The pricetly office with its "children" scattered over the whole earth, is not to be compared with the possession of a throne surrounded by all the trappings of royally, even if that throne is planted in the midst of adown-trodden and demoralized people. Besides, the "head of the church," desires to retain both of his prerogatives, each of which is as dear to him as the apple of his eye.

Berrs still "Drayferten."—The democrats selected the city of Reading—the "capital of old Berks"—as the place of meeting for their late State Convention for the purpose of coaxing the "faithful" in that region back to the political fold. It was here that Bigler and Montgomery "buried Lecompton and anti-Lecompton and anti-Lecompton in the matter of the state of New York."

Another Braderism.—Parsons, the most active supporter, if not the author of the bill to reduce fee negroes to elavery has taken another leep the description of the blower deep. gomery "buried Lecompton and anti-Lecompton in one common grave," from whose sod the former predicted the healthful growth of a plentiful crop of "Democracy" pure and simple. It was here that Foster was "nominated by acclamation" amid public rejoining and private gnashing of teeth, and it was here the "pipe of peace" was snowed by gonneding, chieffains, and an era of united action and good feeling proclaimed. The good feel, however, was sown in a stubborn soil, and the "sod," of whose productiveness Mr. Bigler was so confident, proves to be thus fat as shrile as a barren rock. The following from the Reading Journal, of Saturday, will explain our meaning in a few words:

"We give below the returns of the election held yesterday, in the city of Reading, for City and Ward officers. There were two tickets in the field, regularly nominated—a licket of the shabens remove a section was selected as a test of the possibility of scallburgh the People's Party, and a Foster Locofoco ticket." The Foster men in fained every new rock and corner of the sity, and bosted that the moral effect of the Acclamation Foster Convention would extingulab their opponents. But all woulds' do although the People's party labored under great disadrantiages, they have gorlously triumphed over the united Opposition for the first time in the history of Reading.
