CITY AFFAIRS.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Hampton.

Thursday, March 22d.—Ebenezer Derby, ad'm of Thomas Smith, dec'd, vs John Smith; action of assumpsit to recover compensation for four years boarding. Marshall & Brown for plaintiff; Reis contra. Verdict for plaintiff for $150.

W. M. A. Bell and Samuel H. M'Guire, partners as Bell & M'Guire, vs J. G. Woodward, Adam Jacobs, E. Bennett, G. W. Bowman, C. Clarke, John L. Dawson, S. Hughes, I. V. Cooper, Bard, Tomain, Samuel Sedgwick and Geo. E. Hogg, who survives Geo. W. Swindler, owners of steamer Telegraph; action to recover damages for sinking a coal boat on the Monongahela river, above first dam. Marshall and Brown for plaintiffs; Howard and Kuhn contra. Verdict for plaintiffs for $1412.

Robert Gillespie vs Thomas Goodwin; and now, to wit, on affidavit of defendant judgment opened and defendant let into a defence, and by consent of the parties the cause referred to David Reed, S. H. Geyer and R. B. Carnahan, to meet at the office of Marshall & Brown on ten days notice to either party or his attorneys, upon whose award, or that of a majority, judgment to be entered by the Prothonotary without exception or appeal.

James Matthews vs Wm. B. Scaife; and now, to wit, on motion of Mr. M'Connell, attorney for plaintiff, the court grant a rule upon the garnishee above named to appear before the said court on Saturday, the 14th day of April, A. D., 1860, at 10 o'clock A. M., and make full, direct and true answers to the interrogatory filed, under his oath or affirmation.

Stephen H. Geyer vs Robert Hall, et al.; action of ejectment for a lot of ground situate on the corner of Ralph's alley and Locust street, Allegheny city. Defendant claims under a deed from Lewis Fellbach, from whom both parties declare their title. Plaintiff alleges said deed was fraudulent, being made with the purpose of defrauding creditors. Marshall & Brown for plaintiff; J. E. Brady contra. On trial.

At a full meeting of the official members of Smithfield M. E. Church, held on Monday evening, 19th inst., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His wisdom, to call from labor to rest" our highly esteemed Christian Brother, Sam'l L. Marshall, for six years past a most valuable officer in our church.

Resolved, That as officers and members of this church we have heard with profound and unaffected sorrow of this our bereavement, and take occasion to express our deep sense of this irreparable loss our church has sustained, and our high appreciation of the character of our brother Marshall. In our intercourse with him, we have always found him to be "a Christian indeed in whom there was no guile," always ready to labor zealously in the vineyard of "His beloved"—in him we could see the noblest work of God, an "honest man;" we bow with humble submission to this call of the Almighty, and pray that we, by the grace of God, will endeavor to meet him in the promised land.

Resolved, That we tender to his sorrow stricken and bereaved family and friends our sincere and heartfelt sympathies in this, their severe affliction. We sorrow not as those who have no hope.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to his family, and that the same be published in the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate and Daily Gazette. By order of the Board.

S. G. GRAFF, Ch'n.

ACADEMY OF SCIENCE AND ART.—The section of Organic Science met last evening, at the hall of the Academy, at 7½ o'clock.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. Reiter, the Chairman. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Resolved, That this committee hold a special meeting on Monday next, at 8 o'clock P. M., for the consideration of some special business.

The next business in order being a lecture on Histology, Dr. Reiter entertained the audience with an interesting and detailed account of the formation of cells—describing minutely their shape, formation, contents and purpose.

Rev. J. M. Stewart then followed with the continuation of his lecture on Entomology, of which he gave the beginning at the last meeting. He mentioned the number of different kinds of insects to be supposed to be 400,000, though only 130,000 had as yet been classified. He spoke of insects as utilitarian, as incentives to cleanliness, as scavengers, &c., and concluded with gave some amusing instances of their uses.

On motion adjourned.

MISS KIMBERLY'S BENEFIT at the Old Pittsburgh Theatre to-night, will unquestionably attract a full and very fashionable audience. She is evidently a very great favorite with our theatre-going citizens, for her engagements here have always proved eminently successful—while other Stars, Miss Davenport, Mrs. Warren, Miss Heron, John Owens, Chanfrau and others, in all their later engagements here, have failed to draw sufficient to pay the managers running nightly expenses. The great merit of Miss Kimberly is that she is always pleasing and satisfactory in all her personalities—she never in any respect offends a refined and appreciative auditor.

Her recitation, which she gave here some two years ago, filled two of our largest halls with our most enlightened and fashionable citizens, giving universal satisfaction to all; meeting with a success which we are confident no other artist could accomplish in this city. It is from these facts that we feel confident she will have a full house for her benefit; for if all her admirers turn out even, the Theatre will not hold half of them. The house last night was crowded and unusually fashionable, to witness the third representation of the Octoroon. It will be repeated to-night for the fourth time.

It has drawn the largest consecutive audiences that have been gathered in this city since the memorable run of Uncle Tom's Cabin. The "Octoroon" is quite unlike it as a play, and in our opinion much more attractive and of a superior order in dramatic and literary merit. Go and see the Octoroon if you wish to witness the most successful play of modern times.

THREE men named Washington Friese, Henry Arnold and Joseph W. Brown, were committed to jail by Mayor Wilson, yesterday, on the charge of vagrancy. They were all well dressed, and being unable to show any ostensible means of support, were put in "limbo" by his Honor, in order that their idle time might not be employed in doing mischief. They protested against the action of the Mayor, and threatened to appeal. His Honor is anxious that they may do so, in order to test the matter as to whether he is authorized, under the vagrant act, to apprehend any whom he may suspect of being implicated in crime, but of which he cannot obtain any express proof. Should the Court decide in the affirmative, there are many persons loitering about the city who would be fit subjects for an arrest. And his Honor thinks that he might, by proceeding against them, rid our streets of many rogues who would, after finding themselves molested, seek some other theatre of operations.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—Manager Henderson has now firmly established the above place in public favor and in the production of the Octoroon has thrown all competitors in the shade. The assertion is general of those who have seen the play elsewhere, the Old Pittsburgh Theatre bears the palm—first, for the beautiful scenery and grouping of the characters. The acting of the entire dramatic company is such as the public here have seldom been favored with. Looking upon the play from the first scene to the last, we must pronounce it one continued triumph, and congratulate our theatre goers on the good things in store for them during our theatrical season.

STATE FAIR.—The State Agricultural Society met at Harrisburg on Tuesday. Mr. George C. Bucher was elected Treasurer and Judge A. C. Heister, Secretary. It was resolved to hold the next State Fair at Wyoming, Wyoming county, on the last week in September. Ample arrangements will be made by the railroads in the vicinity for the accommodation of exhibitors and visitors. A committee was appointed to revise the premium list and have 200 copies printed for distribution.

RETURNED.—We were glad to greet again our friend D. M. Barbour, of Liberty street, who has just returned to the city, after having spent the winter in Minnesota. He is delighted with the country, speaks in raptures of the climate, &c. He represents all the rivers, and the ice so rotten on the lake, as to justify an early opening. Boats are running from St. Paul to the head of the lake. All is activity and life in business. He will please accept our thanks for St. Paul papers.

FIRE.—The alarm yesterday about 2 o'clock, was caused by the roof of a house taking fire on the corner of Federal and Robinson streets, Allegheny city. The fire was caused by sparks falling from the chimney on the roof, but was put out with buckets before any mischief was done other than the burning of a small hole. The building belongs to Gen. Robinson and is occupied by the Allegheny Postoffice.
