OUR WEEKLY is issued for this week, containing all the most important news of the week—Congressional matter, Foreign news, Editorials on leading subjects, authentic Market Reports, &c., &c. Persons wishing to send a large sheet full of useful family reading to their friends, may obtain it, enveloped for mailing, at 5 cents per single copy.

FT. WAYNE RAILROAD.—We heard it rumored yesterday that a new train was about to be run on the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railroad, from Pittsburgh to Little Sewickley Creek. Those along the route, as well as our citizens generally, will be highly gratified by this news, as something of this sort has been long and ardently hoped for, but hardly confidently expected. The want of another accommodation train, as well as the irregularity and uncertainty of the trains that have been running, have long been an incubus upon the prosperity and improvement of the country lying convenient to the city, along the track of the Ft. Wayne road. While the Penna. road has had trains running at almost every hour of the day, giving those living near its line almost the same facilities for transacting business in the city as they would have if they lived there, such of our citizens as reside along the Ft. Wayne road are limited to one hour in the morning and one in the evening, and compelled to observe these or stay at home. If the 7:32 train in the morning is missed, there is no other upward train until 1:20 in the afternoon; and after the 4:40 evening train there is no other until the next morning. This state of things has had a baleful influence, both on the progress of the settlement of the country and on the railroad travel. While property in the vicinity of East Liberty, Wilkinsburg and Turtle Creek has advanced in value by regular and stated steps, while the population in these neighborhoods has been doubled and trebled within the last year or two, and the travel become extremely profitable to the railroad, that from Sewickley to Pittsburgh has remained almost stationary, and the railroad travel been rather diminished than increased, although in beauty of scenery, healthfulness of climate, character of the ground and soil, and in all other natural advantages, it far exceeds the most prized localities along the other road.

Were the same facilities for getting back and forth allowed to our ruralists living along the Ohio that the people of Turtle Creek and East Liberty enjoy, such are the inducements to remain there that, we venture the opinion, within two years every level spot capable of being improved would be adorned with a handsome country house, and every elevation overlooking the beautiful Ohio would be crowned with a pretty cottage or colossal mansion, as the taste of the owners might decide. There are now within five miles of Pittsburgh a number of handsome lots of about ten acres each, for sale at about $225 per acre, which in every particular, aside from the want of railroad accommodation, can compass any we know of. One end of these lots overlooks the Ohio and the broad and beautiful stretch of Long Island, making certainly a finer landscape than is to be found anywhere else in this country. The other end fronts on the Beaver pike. These, as well as other lots, would be speedily appropriated, should the proposed train be put on the track. Similar improvements would result along the whole line to Sewickley, and must do so as long as the same discrimination continues that now exists between this property and that of other localities of like advantages. For this reason, though the contemplated train might not pay at once, it will do so shortly, in consequence of the large increase of travel; and we trust the Managers of the road will see the matter in this light. We learn that the recent meeting of the stockholders was encouraged by the friends of the road that an immediate advance in the price of the stock has resulted. We may therefore expect that among other matters of the present spirited and enterprising officers will now overlook the Sewickley accommodation.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Hampton.

Friday, March 30th.—In the case of orim. con., White vs. Eyster, the jury returned a verdict of $868 damages for plaintiff.

John Wise vs. John F. Perry; action on the case for the breach of a writ of deceit. An exchange of property was made by the plaintiff and defendant on the following terms: The plaintiff was to convey to Mr. Perry a good title to two lots in Sharpsburg, Allegheny county, in return for which Mr. Perry agreed to make him a clear title to a farm of 225 acres in Wharton tp., Fayette county, pay him $300 in cash and lift a mortgage on the Sharpsburg lots held by Mr. Hanna. The plaintiff complied with his part of the agreement, and when he went to take possession of his farm he found that it was encumbered with judgments, on one of which it had been sold by the Sheriff of Fayette county shortly after his title accrued. The suit is brought to recover damages for this fraud. Marshall for plaintiff; Burgwin contra. Plaintiff took a non-suit.

F. O'Hara vs. B. Beisler; and now to wit, referred by consent of attorneys in open court to S. H. Geyer, A. S. Bell and John J. Lazear, Esqs., to meet at the office of S. H. Geyer, on ten days' notice to either party, or their attorney, with full power, in one or two attendings, to substitute in case of non-attendance, on whose report, or that of a majority, judgment to be entered by the Prothonotary, without exception or appeal.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Judges Mellon, Parke and Adams.

Friday, March 30.—Com. vs. John Nellis alias John Ellis; indictment, larceny. Verdict guilty.

Com. vs. Jacob Slessor and John Eidolph; indictment, larceny. Verdict, not guilty.

Com. vs. Charles Smith; indictment, assault and battery. Defendant pleads guilty. Same day the Court sentence him to pay a fine of $5 to the commonwealth and the costs of prosecution, in default of such payment to stand committed for 30 days.

Com. vs. Benj. Trimble; indictment, assault and battery. Verdict, guilty.

Com. vs. Daniel Maly; indictment, selling liquor without license. Defendant pleads guilty.

Com. vs. James Ireland; indictment, selling liquor without license. Defendant pleads guilty and the Court sentence him to pay a fine of $10 to the commonwealth and the cost of prosecution, or give security for the payment of the sums within 10 days, and in default of such security to stand committed for a period not exceeding 30 days.

Com. vs. Charles Smith; indictment, assault and battery. On trial.

THE Republican Club Reading Room was opened last evening at 7 o'clock to the public. We hope that all interested in the progress and success of the Republican cause will attend. This reading room is supplied with all the prominent political journals in the nation, and is intended for the dissemination of information in regard to the principles involved in the approaching struggle between the two great dominant parties. We judge that the room will be mostly well filled; as it furnishes entertainment not only for those embarked in politics, but also to the miscellaneous reader, who will find enough in the numerous papers before him to occupy his attention for the longest evening. The reading room seems the support of all who belong to the party, because it will be a powerful auxiliary to other means used in extending the boundaries of the party, and we have no doubt it will be well sustained.

THE WASHINGTON FIRE.—By the last Washington Examiner we have further particulars of the fire that occurred in that borough on Wednesday morning. The losses are estimated in the aggregate at about $35,000, as follows: Dr. Templeton, $2000; insurance $1800; Bon & Sam. $5000, insurance $3000; Oliver's estate, $2000; Joseph M. Spriggs, $8000, insurance $2000; Wilson & Quinn, $2000, partially insured; Henry Brown, shop destroyed, but little loss; Simon Goldsmith, loss about $800; R. Bulte, all his household furniture and $200 in money; John L. Gow, Esq., $3000, insurance $2000; Dr. R. Davis, $800; Henry L. Marks, $800, partially insured.

ARREST.—A man named Christman, says the Wheeling Intelligencer, was arrested here yesterday and confined in jail, on a requisition from the Governor of Pennsylvania. He is charged with swindling a Pittsburgher of a pair of horses and a wagon about a year ago. The case was come before the county court of Ohio county, but Christman was discharged.

Since clipping the foregoing, we learn that an officer was dispatched by Mayor Wilson on Tuesday to Wheeling and returned with Christman in his charge. He will therefore be tried during the present term of Court.

SUNDOWN.—William Hooker, a German living in the Ninth Ward, attempted to cut his throat yesterday while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity. His friends should see that quarters are procured for him where he cannot make another attempt on his life.

"OCTOROON" MATINEE.—This afternoon, at 2 o'clock, the whole of the "Octoroon" will be performed at the Pittsburgh Theatre, for the special benefit of ladies and children, and those living at a distance, unable to attend the Theatre in the evening. At night, Miss Kimberly, in addition to the whole of the "Octoroon" for the last time, will appear in the great play of "The Spy of St. Mark," in which she personates an actress. This is certainly a most attractive bill for a Saturday night, and of course will draw a great crowd. On Monday evening Mrs. Henderson appears as Jennie Deens, in the attractive dramatization of Scott's novel—"The Heart of Midlothian."

SELECT COUNCIL held a special meeting, on Thursday evening. Present all the members except Messrs. Blair, Brown, Duncan, Phillips, Quinn, Reed, Tomer and Pres't M'Auley. Mr. Bennett in the chair pro tem.

Reading of minutes dispensed with.

Official returns of special election in Seventh ward, read and approved.

Resolution to pay interest on bonds due 1st of April, amounting to $8000; in C. O., March 26, read three times and passed; in S. C., March 29, action concurred in. Adjourned.

THE annual contest between the Franklin and Philo Literary Societies of Jefferson College came off on Wednesday, and elicited the usual large attendance. The Franklin Society "swept the board," that is, took each of the four honors—the Declamation, Essay, Original Oration and Debate. There are many old Franklins among our citizens who will be rejoiced to hear the tidings of this remarkable victory—such a one as has hardly occurred in the memory of the oldest persons conversant with the history of the Society.

ROBERT D. THOMPSON, Esq., Pittsburgh agent of the Girard Insurance Co., in a note in the Chronicle of last evening, denies the allegation made against Judge Woodward, of the Supreme Court, President of that Company, in regard to having an interest in our railroad bonds, and publishes a statement of A. J. Gillet, Vice President of the Company, to the effect that they never had a dollar's interest in our county or city bonds.

THE passage way under the first arch of the north end of the aqueduct, along the Allegheny levee, has been barricaded by the authorities, on account of the dangerous condition of the masonry. A few days since, a stone weighing probably a quarter of a ton, fell from the arch within a couple of feet of a gentleman standing there conversing with another, doing no further damage, however, than splashing some mud and water over him. It has certainly not been attended to any too soon.

TRIAL OF THE STEAM FIRE ENGINE.—We learn from Mr. French that the Kaye steam fire engine now at the water works will be tried this afternoon, on the wharf, at the instance of the Insurance Companies. The trial is to test her capacity for throwing water and to ascertain her durability and other particulars of passing a counterfeit bill on a Boston Bank, there, was taken by a Wheeling officer back to that place at 2 o'clock, yesterday.

THE Pittsburgh Female College was opened on Wednesday morning last. We learn that there has been a large accession of pupils to this valuable institution this season. Parents who intend patronizing the college should send their children at as early a period as convenient.

RE-DEDICATION.—The second day's dedicatory services of the Liberty Street M. E. Church, corner of Liberty and Hay streets, will take place on Sunday, (to morrow,) the first of April. Services as follows: Bishop Simpson at 10½ A. M.; —— P. M; Bishop Simpson at 7½ P. M.

We observe that our friend, Mr. John H. Bailey, has been appointed Solicitor for the borough of West Pittsburgh. We regard the appointment as an extremely judicious one, Mr. B. being one of the best informed young lawyers at the bar.

BURGLARY.—Night before last, the hat and clothing store of Wm. Fiemling, corner of Sixth and Wood streets, was entered by burglars, and about $600 worth of clothing stolen. The thieves have not yet been caught.

THE legislative prayer meeting was to be led this morning by Mr. Bayard, one of our representative meetings of the actively pastoral members of the legislature, and, it will result in much good.

The Allegheny Valley Railroad offices have all been removed from the Company's Depot, corner of Pike street and the canal, Fifth ward, near Penn st.

THE valuable English and American Books to be sold this evening at auction, are now open for examination.

WATER has been let into the Pennsylvania Canal, and navigation has been resumed for the season.

SEE advertisement of Edgeworth Seminary, in another column, which commences its Summer Session the first Monday in May.

A SPLENDID IRON WAGON will be offered for sale this morning at 11 o'clock, at No. 1 Horse Market, foot of Irwin street.

"LAUGH AND GROW FAT."—Physiologists and physicians tell us that laughter and good humor are conducive to health, and we believe it, for it is seldom we see a good natured, jolly individual, be he a lean youth or "fat and forty," who does not enjoy good health. Therefore, we recommend all who wish to enjoy a long life, to "drive dull care away;" and as a means of so doing we suggest a call upon Messrs. Hunt & Miner, who will sell them all the humorous illustrated works in the country, the price of which is 38 and 25 cts. per volume, at 10 cts., and 75 and 50 cent books at 25 cts., as they are disposing of their stock in this manner preparatory to moving to their new building, Fifth street, next door to the Postoffice.

ROGERS' CITRATE OF MAGNESIA.—We would advise those in want of an agreeable and efficient purgative to try Rogers' Citrate of Magnesia, (in powder.) It is prepared in conformity to the plan recommended by the medical faculty for bilious and febrile complaints, sick headache, heartburn, indigestion, sickness at the stomach, dropsy, &c. It is particularly adapted for travellers and family use, also, an economical substitute for Saratoga Waters as a cooling beverage. Price 25 cents. For sale by B. FAHNESTOCK, and most Druggists. Manufactory 193 Spring street, New York. se30-dcs3m
