Naw York, April 28.—The Times' London correspondent rays: "I valued Heenan last evening, and found him most comfortable and in excellent spirits. He is anxious to fight Sayers as soon as possible, if he is not satisfied with the present result. The indignation of the Americans here, and in fact a large portion of the British public, is loudly and vehemently expressed. The ring was broken into by a pack of theves, who used the excuse to rob every one. It was well known that Mr. Heenan would not be allowed to carry the champion's belieut of the country, and the Englishmen who had bet their all on Sayers, as soon as they found that their champion was losing, resorted to the most unfair means, keeping Heenan, and pulling him down. A meeting of the Americans will be held in London to night, and you may expect to see some controversies

Mr. Stuart, of Mich., objected to the enquiry, say-ing we will accurate that when the vote is taken. After forther debats, the chair stand that the mo-tion to lay on the table the previous question carries with it the carried the first open the con-tine to lay on the table the previous question carries motion was out of county.

The President decided that the motion was out of too order.

Mr. Jackson, of Ga., moved to lay all the resolutions and platforms on the table.

Mr. Salesbury, of Del., moved that the Convention adjourn.

e ening.

Mr. Butler, of Mass., said his side was willing to adjourn as soon as the main question was adopted.

Mr. Biglier endasyroad to make a proposition, but was called to order.

The President said that if this contest and uproser continued, he would feal bound, in duty to himself and the Convention, to leave the Chair, as it was physicially impossible for kies to take part in such a struggle and clamor.

Mr. Hunter, of Le., hoped his political friends would submit to ordering the main question.

Mr. Owens, of Fis., as a Southern man, hoped that this contest would cease. Northern men have met us in argument, and why should we refuse to meet the issue manfully.

The President put the question, "Shall the main question be now put?"

(A motion was again made to adjourn. Cries of no! no!)

Capt. Rynders contended that it was an agreement to adjourn, and that it would be done. He would not consent to taking advantage of the minority, as that would be cheating the gantlemen.

Another scene of great confusion ensued. A hunder of the second was the size of the minority, as that would be cheating the gantlemen.

Another some of great confosion ennued. A hundred persons-were addressing the chair at once, all ahouting at the top of their voices.

Mr. Stewart, of Mich., said the majority would consent to adjourn; if he was allowed to make a motion to reconsider and lay the motion to adjourn on the table.
