WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 6.

THE WONDERS OF SOMNAMBULISM.—The Troy Times says:

Last night about half-past one Mr. Lodford, a ferryman in the employ of Mr. Morrison, hearing a man call "over!" arose from his bed, passed down stairs, out of doors, and down the stairway to his skiff, got in, crossed the river, brought the passenger over who was calling, took his toll out of a quarter, fastened his river boat, took the passenger over in the Mohawk basin boat, and recrossed back again to his station on the island, passed upstairs in the toll-house, where the ferrymen sleep, took the lighted lamp, in his hand, passed to his bed, and back again to the hatchway, where he stepped off and fell to the floor below, making a great racket and waking up all the rest of the hands, who hastened to see what was the matter, and on inquiry found that Lodford had been sound asleep all this time. Curiously enough, he received but a few slight bruises by his fall. He remembered nothing of what had occurred, and was bewildered when found lying on the floor, anxious to know how he came there, and ready to swear by all that was black and blue that he had not been over with a passenger since an early hour in the evening. The change made by him was taken from a table, on which the quarter lay. The midnight passenger, on coming over this morning, called attention to the queer conduct of the ferryman, and said he never saw so dumb a chap before.

SINGLE LIFE IN FRANCE.—Two peoples are to be seen in the towns of France; the one, clad in cloth—that's man; the other, in wretched calico—that's woman. The one—we will take the lowest laborer—the worst paid, the hodman, the servant of cyder workmen—will contrive to eat meat for breakfast (a slice of smoked sausage, or something else, as a thumb-piece on bread.) In the evening he steps into his gargote, or eating-house; where he will have a plate of meat, and even some bad wine. A woman of the same condition will take a sou's (half penny) worth of milk in the morning, some bread at noon, and some bread at night, hardly a sou's worth of cheese. You don't believe it. It is certain, as shall shortly be proved.—Her day's work produced 10 sous, "and cannot produce 11," for a reason which shall be explained.—Why are things come to, this wretched state? The man does not choose to marry; he does not choose to protect and be burdened with the woman. He lives in gluttonous solitude. Does he, therefore, lead a life of abstinence? He abstains from nothing. It makes one blush to be a man. "I do not earn enough," he says. He earns four or five francs more than the woman, in the majority of trades. He earns 40 or 50 sous, and she 10. The poverty of the workman would be for the workwoman wealth, abundance and luxury.—[Dickens' All the Year Round.

WIT AT PERUGIA.—The Espero of Turin relates the following anecdote:

A few days ago Cardinal Pecci, frightened at the desertion of the Swiss at Perugia, sent for Colonel Schmit, and said to him: "I know there are several disaffected men in your corps, who do nothing but spoil the others. Do call all your men under arms, and bid those who do not like the service step forward and take their discharge, in God's name." Colonel Schmit replied at once: "Eminence, I shall risk being left alone on the parade ground."

Quack Nostrums.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded to show window cards, and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water, their real merit, when they possess any, is that they do no harm. ROD'S LARD, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when to beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costly et cætera of tonics, and when these costly, are bapti[zed] with some triyllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative This gentlemen comes before the world without any "high falutin," Alleghaloriam, or any other astounding and startling catchpenny terms; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses, precisely—and as a Restorative it is so. Try Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalp, eye, your very brains, both mind and big eye; for it may be that you will get some worse substance than perfumed lard oil on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,
Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,
Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads,
Will restore the Natural Secretions,
Will remove sore eye all itching,
Will remove all Dandruff,
Will cure all eruptions—even Scald Head,
Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,
Will make the old appear young again,
Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,
Will always Fasten it and stop its Falling,
And is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.
