REPUBLICAN MEETING.

REGULAR WEEKLY MEETING

At Republican Head Quarters,
CORNER OF WOOD AND FOURTH-STS.,
Every Thursday Evening
AT 7½ O'CLOCK.

SPEAKERS PRESENT AT EVERY MEETING.

EVERY BODY IS INVITED TO ATTEND.

STATED WEEKLY MEETINGS.—The Executive Committee of the Republican County Club yesterday set apart Thursday evening of each week for the purpose of holding meetings at the Club Rooms, on Wood street. On that night, hereafter, therefore, the Republicans are expected to gather at the Club Room, as a matter of course, and hold free consultation together. There will always be speakers present, who will have something to say; but the main purpose is, not to have set speeches, but to trust to the inspirations of the occasion for short and pithy harangues, such as will naturally flow from the exuberance of the campaign. The first meeting will be held to night.

CUTTING OFF A DISEASED MEMBER.—The speeches made by Jeff. Davis, Breckenridge, Toombs and Hallett, upon the occasion of a serenade to Breckenridge, at Washington, after his nomination, show the prevalence of the most intense feeling of bitterness toward DOUGLAS.—Davis said that his fate would be like that of Van Buren, and that his followers were only a set of spoilsmen and Treasury plunderers—they would cut him off as a diseased member, just as Van Buren was cut off. It is thus the South deals with refractory Northerners. It uses them while it can, and when they show the least signs of independence, spurns them as rebels. The administration and the South have determined to crush Douglas, and they will do it.

THE CATTLE DISEASE.—GOV. Wood, of Illinois, has issued a proclamation, recommending that no cattle be imported from the New England States into Illinois during the prevalence of the cattle disease. This is undoubtedly the correct course to pursue. The uninfected States can prevent the spread of the disease by prohibiting the importation of cattle from the infected States, and in no other way. The disease is, itself, the result of importation, having been introduced into Massachusetts by some infected cattle imported from Europe; and as there is no certain plan of determining what cattle are sound and what are infected the only safe way is to prevent the importation of all cattle from the infected to the uninfected States.

SENATORIAL CANDIDATES.—It is a remarkable fact that no person was ever elected President who was a member of the U. S. Senate at the time of his election. Some of the Presidents had been, previously, members of the Senate, but not at the time of their election. Gen. Cass was a member of the Senate at the time he was nominated, and he was beaten. It was, we suppose, in view of this fact that the two democratic factions at Baltimore, despairing of electing any one, chose all their candidates from the Senate. Douglas, Breckinridge, Lane and Fitzpatrick are all members of that body; and although Fitzpatrick has withdrawn, the rival candidates for President remain in the field, and the decree of fate against them, as against all who have similarly presumed them, is irreversible.

THE TELEGRAPH.—We alluded, on Tuesday, to the neglect with which we are treated by the Associated Press in the transmission of telegraphic news; and we had, yesterday, a further illustration of that neglect. The bulk of the news furnished us for yesterday's paper had been furnished a day before to the New York and Philadelphia papers, as well as to the papers further west of us. The fault does not lie, we are sure, with the agent here, Mr. SNOWDEN; but there is a hitch, somewhere, and we have a right to have it remedied. We are tired of this thing of being put off with news a day old, which comes to us as quickly by mail as by telegraph.

THE Post laughs at the nomination of Joe Lane for Vice President. It says:

"The nomination of Lane, of Oregon, for the Vice Presidency, raises a smile upon the lip of every intelligent man who knows him. He is absolutely incompetent and unfit for the position of presiding officer of the Senate, and it is most fortunate for the country that there is not the remotest possibility that he will ever be called to that position."

There was, for some time before the assembling of the Charleston Convention, not only a possibility but a probability of Lane's nomination for the Presidency by that body. He had the good will of the Administration and the South, and in certain contingencies, the chances of his nomination were good. If he had been nominated, the Post would have been assuring us, now, of his being a marvelous proper fellow, and a man excellently well qualified for the place.

THE SECTIONAL CANDIDATE.—The southern vote which Mr. Douglas received at Baltimore is nearly the same as at Charleston, viz:

Maryland,	2½	Arkansas,	1
Virginia,	1½	Missouri,	4½
North Carolina,	1	Tennessee,	3
Alabama,	9
Louisiana,	6		28½

Of these, Alabama and Louisiana, counting 15, were represented by bogus delegates. The regular delegates were excluded, and the bogus ones admitted to swell the count. Thus Mr. Douglas received only 13½ genuine Southern votes, and these were confined to but a few of the Southern States.

INDIANA COUNTY.—The Republican county meeting held on Monday night last passed a resolution approving of the Crawford county system in the nomination of county tickets, and adopting it as the system for that county; but a resolution was also adopted not to put the system in force until next year. This prudent action prevents the nomination of two tickets in that county, which was feared, and removes all possibility of danger to the ascendancy of the Republican party there.

WHAT THEY SAY.—The Philadelphia Press gives a cold and rather halting support to DOUGLAS. It says it will support him but adds that (he "Press will in no respect be a party newspaper;" also, that "it can scarcely go further in vindicating him than it has already gone," and concludes perilously by informing the Douglas men that it can engage in no WAR upon Lincoln and his friends.

The Pennsylvanian does not know what to say. It indulges in insane hopes that the breach will be closed and the difficulty obviated by running off both candidates and bringing out a new one. But this game has been blocked by the prompt acceptance of both candidates, and the Pennsylvanian will be compelled to support Breckenridge and Lane.

The Philadelphia Ledger takes the matter coolly, and is busy preparing itself for submitting to a Republican triumph. It says:

"The effect will be to divide the strength of the Democratic party and cause its defeat. But as both conventions seemed to be working to this end, the result may not be so disastrous to the country as some suppose. The Republican party, if it should be successful, will wish, for its own sake, to preserve the Union, and if the Southern States will abide the issue long enough to see what the policy of the Republican party will be, it is probable they will find it more conservative than they expect. There is a vast deal of difference between being in power and out of it, and a taste of the fat things of public place, will probably operate as a soothing upon the radicalism of the Republicans as it has often done upon their opponents. At any rate, they will try and avoid the disgrace of severing the country into sectional divisions while the government is in their hands, if they can help it, and will be prepared to enjoy this four-cornered Presidential game which is about to ensue, so as to extract all its fun without any of its bitterness and animosities."

The New York Herald admits that the democratic party has gone to everlasting smash. It regards the party as dead, and all attempts to resuscitate it as idle. The election of Lincoln and Hamlin is, in the Herald's eyes, a foregone conclusion, and it advises the country to be prepared for an event which is inevitable.

A DISCOVERY.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says:

"A discovery has just been made by our democratic friends in Pennsylvania which is not altogether agreeable. It is said that the electoral ticket which was chosen by the Reading convention contains the names of twenty friends of Breckenridge. The Douglas patriots are unnecessarily much exercised, and demand an equal distribution. A fusion ticket is already proposed, and some other things in the same line. Let them fuse by all means. Fire and water will make an excellent combination. The two platforms, one for prohibiting slavery, and the other affirming and deny it, will look well together, and it will be an instructive sight to see their respective followers marching up to the polls and depositing their votes for the same ticket, with one set of principles on the front and another on the back to accommodate the conscientious scruples of both."

ARMSTRONG COUNTY.—The fusion democracy of Armstrong county has nominated the following ticket:

Congress—E. S. Golden, Kittanning
Assembly—John T. Crawford, Kittanning
Associate Judge—G. F. Keener, Freeport.
Prothonotary—Simon Truby, Kittanning.
Register and Recorder—David C. Boggs, Kittanning.
County Commissioner—W. W. Marshall, Wayne
Auditor—John A. M'Laughlin, Pine.
Trustees of Academy—Joseph Painter, James Douglass, Kittanning

REMOVAL OF GEORGE SAUNDERS.—Geo. Saunders was removed on Tuesday from his position as Naval Officer in the New York Custom House. William Russell has been appointed in his place. Saunders' is the first Douglasite upon whose head the official axe has fallen. Further decapitations may be expected in a few days.

ACCEPTED.—All of the four candidates nominated at Baltimore have accepted—Douglas and Johnson, and Breckenridge and Lane. This removes the last lingering hope of the democrats that the quarrel might yet be adjusted.

RESCUE OF SICILY.—The intelligence from Europe to the 14th instant, is unusually interesting, for it informs us what Garibaldi is doing. The King of Naples had to agree to the capitulation of Palermo and his troops, with their arms and baggage, had quitted Sicily. As they left Palermo, they burned houses, and killed women and children. The King of Naples still held Syracuse, Messina, and Agista—not with any expectation or prospect of recovering his dominion over Sicily, but to make a show of occupation when a diplomatic settlement is made.

Garibaldi has appointed a Provisional Government, and proposes a loan. He is not very badly off, however, for he found nearly $5,000,000 in the Royal Treasury at Palermo. He has called upon all Sicilians between seventeen and fifty to take arms, and is certain of substantial aid from England and Sardinia. Mazzini, that stormy petrel of Italian politics, had sailed for Sicily, it was believed, and Victor Emmanuel had given orders to intercept him, if possible.

There is a statement which scarcely seems credible, that France had accepted the office of mediator, and proposed, as such that Naples should have a liberal constitution, and that Sicily, not transferred to Victor Emmanuel, should be ruled by a Prince of the House of Bourbon—provided that the Sicilians consented! Assuredly they will not consent.

Lord Palmerston has declared in the House of Commons that "he understood that an envoy was on his way from Naples to Paris and London, and Government would not hesitate to express to him those feelings with which they, in common with every person throughout the country, had regarded the barbarities perpetrated at Palermo, which were really a disgrace to the present age. He believed that the Government of Naples had appealed to its foreign allies to guarantee the possession of the two Sicilies to the Neapolitan Crown, but Austria had peremptorily refused to interfere, and there was every reason to believe that the French Government had arrived at a similar determination. It was unnecessary to say what the feeling of the British Government was on such a matter. It was the fault of Government like those of Naples and Rome, that when their cruelties drove their subjects to revolt, they appealed to friendly Powers for assistance to put an end to the authors and instigators of the revolution, forgetting that they themselves were the authors and instigators of them."

These opinions are creditable to the English Minister, and must have great weight in Europe. —Phil. Press.

HARDEN CONFESSES.—A Respite.—BELVIDERE, N J., June 22.—The Rev. Jacob S. Harden, under sentence of death, for the murder of his wife has made a confession acknowledging his guilt. The Rev. Mr. Day, of the M. E. Church, announced at the Union Prayer Meeting this evening, at his church in Belvidere, the fact of the confession, and desired the prayers of the meeting in behalf of the condemned and penitent criminal.

This announcement caused a great sensation in the Church. The Rev. Mr. Kirk made a touching and feeling prayer in his behalf, after which the congregation united in singing the beautiful hymn commencing with the words.

"Just as I am, without one plea."

Gov. Olden has respited the execution of Jacob S. Harden for one week and a day, bringing it to Friday, the 6th day of July.

[From the Trenton American.]

Our informant states that Harden is even now writing his confession, and that he communicated certain portions of it to the jailor and one or two others.

The administering of the poison to his wife commenced on her return to Ramsey's, and was given to her while sitting on his knee even during the endearments of an apparently loving wife. He kindly invited her to partake of an apple on which he had spread arsenic. She unsuspectingly eat it, remarking that it appeared to have something gritty on it. He replied that it was "nothing."

There are statements said to have been made by the prisoner, involving his criminality with others who shared his affections, but we do not think it proper to speak of them until Harden chooses to make them public himself.

His purchase of the arsenic at Easton, his using that which was about the house, are all confirmed by Harden's own words. What is most astonishing is the statement that in the perpetration of these enormities Harden does not seem to have the slightest compunctions.—He did them without for once thinking that he was doing anything very dreadful!

WHO ARE SECTIONAL?—South Carolina, Florida, Delaware, Mississippi, Texas, California and Oregon were not represented at all in the Douglas Convention, while Virginia, North Carolina, Louisiana, Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas, Georgia and Delaware had only here and there a voice.

Here is nearly half of the Confederacy, and every one a Democratic State, refusing to support Douglas. Which is the sectional part of the Democratic party?—Chicago Jour.

POMBO, the distinguished Neapolitan exile, who was not long since allowed to leave the dungeon where he had been imprisoned for years, is now hard at work in Turin, urging the formal annexation of Naples, as well as Sicily, to Sardinia.

BRECKENRIDGE DEMONSTRATIONS.—There were grand demonstrations in favor of the Breckenridge ticket at Baltimore on Saturday evening. The current of enthusiasm was strong in that direction, and our correspondent (who sends us the able and spicy speech of Mr. Yancey on that occasion) says that Douglas will get few votes in Maryland.

At Albany, New York, the nomination of Breckenridge and Lane was enthusiastically received, and has been ratified by a large gathering of the Democracy. D. S. Dickinson goes in earnestly for this ticket, and John Cochrane is reported to be heartily sick of his endorsement of Douglas.

At St. Louis, the Breckenridge ticket has been endorsed by a large extemporaneous ratification meeting.

The Democratic papers of Virginia run up the names of Breckenridge and Lane. The Richmond Enquirer comes out strongly on that side.

THE LOCOMOTIVE CHAIRMAN.—Caleb Cushing is a traveling chairman. One Convention paris with him with cheers and the other receives him with like demonstrations. His going out and his coming in seem to give perfect satisfaction. He staid with the one convention so long as they were doing the dishonest portion of their work, and then left. Caleb was a Free Soiler in 1848, and is a Slave Code man in 1860. Politically, Caleb has no superior as a knave, not only outside the Penitentiaries, but above ground, and searching the world over no fitter man could have been found to preside over the Democratic party when "it dissolved in its own corruption." We understand Caleb has gone to Richmond to preside over that Convention.—Cleve. Her.

THE TORNADO.—The Iowa City Reporter has the following summary of the great storm:

Hardin county—Killed, 7; wounded, 27; houses destroyed, 37; estimated loss, $75,000.

Linn county—Killed, 18; wounded, 36; houses destroyed, 18; estimate loss, $150,000.

Cedar county—Killed, 3; wounded, 13; houses destroyed, 8; estimated loss, $15,000.

Clinton county—Killed, 75; wounded, 150; estimated loss, $400,000.

Jones county—Killed, 9; wounded, 30, houses destroyed, 13; estimated loss, $30 000.

Besides the above, there is to be counted the loss, of life and property at Albany and other places in Illinois.

THE FEELING IN ILLINOIS.—The mail brings us half a dozen letters from as many parts of the State, the writers of which express their regret that the disruption of the Baltimore Convention and the nomination of two sham Democratic candidates for the Presidency, has put it out of the power of the Republicans of Illinois to give Mr. Douglas the battle for which his friends pretend to be eager. We sympathize with this feeling; but as matters now stand, we shall not be able to ascertain the Senator's exact strength; because thousands of his friends will unquestionably see the folly of throwing away their ballots, and vote for Lincoln and Hamlin outright.—Chig Press.

THE Republicans of Indiana are jubilant over the turn of affairs at Baltimore. The Democracy on the other hand, are much disheartened. According to the Indianapolis Journal, the news of the nomination of Douglas fell very flat in that city, just as it did here. Discreet Democrats everywhere seem to regard it as a very melancholy farce.—Cin. Gaz

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!! Dyspepsia!!!
What is it? How Cured?

DYSPEPSIA is our National Disease—weak stomach, feeble digestion, distress after eating, costive habit, bilious condition. How many suffer with it and its attendant symptoms of low spirits, bad taste, coated tongue, obstipated bowel and attack of headache! Yet how few know how to cure it! Generally, because the bowels are constipated, resort is had to cathartics, or laxatives. But such a condition was never cured by cathartics, whose only office is to weaken the digestion and impair the integrity of the entire assimilative system.

But HUMPHREY'S HOMŒOPATHIC DYSPEPSIA PILLS—a simple medicated sugar pill—have cured hundreds of the worst and most obstinate cases. This is done simply by improving the tone and restoring the integrity of the digestive organs, from which result good appetite, regular habits, a clear head and buoyant spirits. Such a medicine is a gem, and only requires to be known to be appreciated.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes, $1.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREY'S HOMŒOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; do, in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book $3.

These remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address on receipt of the price. Address DR. F. HUMPHREY & CO.,

DR. WILSON'S TONIC AND ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS—More Testimony—Every mail brings fresh evidence of the efficacy of these Pills. Rev. Dr. Howard, of the Chicago First Baptist Church, under date of April 15th, 1858, states that he had suffered periodically from Nervous Headache, and during 24 years had in vain tried medicines prescribed by Allopathic and Homœopathic physicians, when he was induced to try Wilson's Pills, which afforded immediate relief.

BOOK OF THE FAIR.

THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully announce that, with the approbation and countenance of the Board of Directors of the Allegheny County Agricultural Association,

He will publish on Sept. 3d, in time for the opening of the

ALLEGHENY COUNTY FAIR,

To be held Sept. 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th, a volume bearing the same title.

THE BOOK OF THE FAIR will contain a full historical account of the origin and progress of the Association, Statistics of its various Exhibitions, and much other interesting matter, relative to Allegheny County, and the Cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, with Fine Lithographic Views of many of our Public Buildings and Churches.

Also, a fine Outline View of the Two Cities and Vicinity, now engraving by William Buchanan.

TEN THOUSAND COPIES of this remarkable book will be issued and ready for the opening of the Exhibition.

A SECTION of the volume will be devoted to a historical and statistical account of the various establishments to which Manufacturers' articles are exhibited, and to which we have, with full descriptions of the articles exhibited.

As this book will be in the hands of the majority if not nearly all the visitors to the Fair, the shrewd business man, the mechanic or agriculturist will see the great advantage to be obtained in a proper presentation of his name, patent or stock, through the pages of this volume, by taking

and having a neat and correctly written notice thereof legibly prepared and nicely printed in the pages of the

BOOK OF THE FAIR.

As a medium of introduction to a large number of persons of any business or manufacturing establishment, this volume, from its permanent character, is desirable. Not only will its good offices, during the continuance of the Fair, amply compensate for the expense incurred in obtaining publicity in its pages, but as, from its Historical, Statistical and Illustrated character, it will naturally pass from hand to hand, and is scattered far and wide, it is at once apparent to any shrewd business man that it offers unusual attractions to such as would strikingly command their establishments, wares, patents or stock to the attention of thousands.

As the whole matter of the book must be prepared and printed, and the volume issued at least one day previous to the opening of the Fair, it will be obvious that all parties sending themselves of its pages must make application soon to the publisher.

Save Your Carpets!

THE great enquiry has been made for a number of years by housekeepers, What shall we put under our carpets to protect them from wear and moth?—This grand and valuable discovery was effected and patented April 1st, 1856, by J. R. HARRINGTON, and is called Harrington's Patent Carpet Lining.

This article having proved its utility has now come into general use, so much so that scarcely a carpet will be put down with it, and its cheapness puts it within the reach of every family. It is warranted to add fifty per cent. to the durability of Carpets, Oil Cloths and Matting. The Retailers of its merits are too numerous to mention. It can be obtained at any of the principal Carpet Stores throughout the United States, and is manufactured only by the NEW YORK CARPET LINING COMPANY.

Also, extensive manufacturers of MAMMOTH COTTON BATTING AND COMFORTABLES, the best and cheapest that have ever been introduced to the market.

Office 11 Dey St., Saleroom 440 Pearl Street.
NEW YORK.

All orders or information required will be attended to with promptness and dispatch.
Under the supervision of the patentee,
J. R. HARRINGTON, Agent.
