ANOTHER PLANK TO THE PLATFORM.—The last act of the Rump Convention except the commendable one of adjourning sine die, was patching up their rickety party platform. Mr. Wickliffe, of Louisiana, offered the following, which, he said, would give Douglas 40,000 in his State:

Resolved, That it is in accordance with the Cincinnati Platform that during the existence of Territorial Governments the measure of restriction, whatever it may be, imposed by the Federal Constitution on the power of the Territorial Legislature over the subject of the domestic relations as the same has been or shall hereafter be finally determined by the Supreme Court of the United States, should be respected by all good citizens, and enforced with promptness and fidelity by every branch of the General Government.

H. B. Payne, of Ohio, called for the previous question, and the resolution was adopted, thus pledging the Rump Democracy to sustain the decisions of the Supreme Court on the subject of Slavery in the Territories, past, present and future.

A GOOD REASON.—A correspondent of the Beaver Argus tells the following story, containing the best possible reason for not being a democrat:

"An aspirant for office in a neighboring county, while threading the solitary passes of a mountainous portion of his district in search of raw material for votes, came up with a specimen of the 'rough and ready' stamp. Although he proved to be an entire stranger, he was not willing to pass him without at least an effort. Accosting him, he said, 'Good morning, my friend, you are good looking enough to be a first rate Democrat.'

'Well, may be I am,' was the reply, 'but I aint half or'nary enough.'

My friend plied the whip in search of better material."

FITZPATRICK.—We find Fitzpatrick's letter of declination in the eastern papers. After saying that his selection as a candidate for this high position would have been more gratifying to him if it had proceeded from a united Democracy—united both as to principles and to men—he goes on to say:

"The Black Republicans have harmoniously (at least in convention) presented their candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency. So have the Constitutional Union party (as it is termed). Each party is already engaged in the contest. In the presence of such organizations we still unfortunately exhibit a divided camp.—What a melancholy spectacle!"

Melancholy, indeed. We assure the distinguished Senator from Alabama that we are very sorry to witness it. The pain we endure in looking at it is inexpressible.

IN A QUANDARY.—Very few of the democratic papers in Pennsylvania know what to do just now. The Philadelphia Press, Washington Review, Harrisburg Sentinel, and Pittsburgh Post go for Douglas; the Philadelphia Argus hoists the name of Breckinridge; the Lancaster Intelligencer puts up both tickets; while the Pennsylvanian, the Harrisburg Union, the Washington Examiner, York Press, and the country papers generally, "mourn the rash and intemperate counsels that have brought this great calamity upon the democratic party," but decline, for the present, to take sides with either.

THE SECESSION PARTY.—The Douglasites, so far, have been unable to chronicle any accessions to their ranks, while secessions from them occur every day. First, about one-third of the Democracy seceded from the Convention, and next, the nominee for the Vice Presidency seceded from the ticket. Then Gov. Wise seceded, followed by Roger A. Pryor, and lastly by Gen. Pierce. Secession is the order of the day in that quarter.

THE New York Herald, which has by turns supported every one named for the Presidency, except LINCOLN, and helped to defeat every one to whom its suspicious aid was given, squints very strongly just now towards Bell and Everett. It will be all up with those gentlemen if the Herald shall succeed in fastening itself on to them. No public man was ever able to survive its support.

PENNSYLVANIA SECEDING DELEGATES.—The following are the names of the delegates to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore, who seceded from the regular convention and joined hands with the "secessionists" at the Maryland Institute:

W. M. Reilly, V. L. Bradford, George McHenry, E. C. Evans, G. H. Martin, H. A. Guernsey, H. Lauer, H. H. Dent, A. J. Glossbrenner, Arnold Plumer, H. B. Swarr, David Fisher.

MAP OF THE SEAT OF WAR IN SICILY.—We have received from Messrs. R. C. Root, Anthony & Co., New York, an excellent map of the War in Sicily. This map shows every town and hamlet, with every carriage road and mule path.—It was obtained lately from Rome, and will be found full and reliable in every respect. Price 30 cents, for which it will be sent post-paid to any part of the country.

A DISTINCTION WITHOUT A DIFFERENCE.—The Breckinridge men call their faction the "Democratic National party," while the Douglas men christen theirs as the "National Democrats."—Both claim to be "national," but each stigmatizes the other as "sectional." The only mistake about the two names is that neither of the factions has any thing "national" or "democratic" about it.

"THE RAIL SPLITTER."—We have received the first number of a campaign paper just started in Chicago, by Dr. Linn, formerly of this State, called the "Rail Splitter." It is very neatly got up, ably edited, and will doubtless do good service for "Honest old Abe." The Dr. was a Buchanan man in 1856.

THE Philadelphia News, which is becoming a really live paper, is now published both morning and evening, and is the only penny evening paper in Philadelphia. We hope it may attain large circulation, which it deserves, and so be the means of doing much good against locofocoism.

THE Beaver Star, a democratic paper, says:

"In presenting two candidates the Convention has assigned the Democratic party a herculean task, and one that may possibly cause its defeat."

"Possibly" is good.

THE PHILADELPHIA MEETING of Lincoln men to welcome the Opposition members of Congress home, was one of the finest demonstrations that has yet taken place. The Inquirer says:

"Before twilight crowds of citizens collected around the stand on Broad street, and the music of the various delegations hurrying to the places of rendezvous could be heard in every section of the city. As twilight deepened into dusk, the light of numberless lanterns could be seen dancing in long array up the various avenues, and devices in quaint and pithy character shone from hundreds of transparencies. The prominent streets were crowded with men hurrying toward Broad and Market streets; and at half-past eight o'clock a scene of bewildering beauty flashed upon the eye as it rounded any of the corners commanding a view of Penn Square."

The Bulletin says:

"The number of people was enormous, and the display of torches, lanterns, transparencies and political devices was extraordinary. As a mere popular display, the meeting was magnificent.

But beyond all this, there was great earnestness and enthusiasm among the people, and the tone of the speakers was warmly responded to. The feeling displayed was for Pennsylvania and the Union. No one could doubt the earnestness of the people on either of these points. The failure of the Senate to make the desired change in the Tariff has so disgusted the people of this State, that there is a general determination to have nothing to do with either of the Democratic tickets. The Chicago nominees and platform being distinctly in favor of protection, the people of Pennsylvania naturally turn to them as their only hope. This feeling exists not only in Philadelphia, but throughout the interior of the State."

The News says:

"That of last evening was indeed a glorious turnout of freemen, ready and willing to trample into dust the expiring fragments of Locofoism. The scenes of the moving delegations with glaring torches, waving flags and soul stirring music bordered on the magnificent, and sent a thrill of delight into the hearts of thousands of stalwart men there assembled. The enthusiasm was unbounded, and the foliage of the ornamental trees that grow in all their luxuriant beauty around the four angles of Penn Square seemed to wave with delight and nod assent to the breath of the mighty people beneath, around and even in the branches thereof. During the proceedings a considerable amount of fire works were exploded, which added a picturesqueness to the scene that made it truly grand to behold. The cheers and manifestations of welcome might have been heard two miles, sounding like distant thunder rolling in its majesty. While it delighted the people, it perhaps added dismay to the sour and pitiable Loco Focos, who go down to an ignominious grave, with nothing but the crossbones and a skull of an Ethiopian to mark the spot.

The Wide-Awake, Continental and Campaign Clubs, from many Wards were dressed in uniform, either helmet or fatigue caps, black capes, and each member carrying a flag or torch. The scene had a graceful effect. The mottoes were pretty much the same as those exhibited at the great ratification meeting a short time since, and it is not necessary to repeat them here.

There were three stands erected—one at the south-west corner of Broad and Market streets, the others to the north and south of Market street."

Political Items

The leading Southern friends of Douglas are rapidly sloughing off, and before long there will hardly be a corporal's guard left. All manner of expedients will be contrived to bring back the erring brethren, and some of them are sufficiently anxious to return to lend their aid voluntarily to this patriotic enterprise. A Democratic State Convention is to be held in North Carolina, at which the nominations of Breckinridge and Lane will be approved and Mr. Clingman and the quondam Douglas men will give in their adhesion. It is very evident that the only contest in the south is to be between this ticket and that of Bell and Everett. It is doubtful if the disaffected Douglas interest holds the balance of power in a single State.

THE (O.) Journal says: "It was immensely funny on Saturday night to mark the rejoicings of the Douglas Democracy over the nomination of Douglas and Fitzpatrick and the rejoicings of the Anti-Douglas Democrats over the nomination of Breckinridge and Lane. The two factions, both knowing that they had no chance in the world, tried which should kindle the biggest bonfires, which should utter the noisiest shouts, and which should shoot the noisiest cannon. They reminded us of two bantam cocks trying to outcrow each other in the barnyard, or two rival dinner-bells trying to outring each other at an eating station upon a railroad.

THE N. Y. Herald has devised a scheme for giving animation and earnestness to the Presidential canvass in that State. Seeing the utter hopelessness of any one of the adverse factions making head against the Republicans, the Herald urges them to make up a joint-stock Electoral Ticket, and run it on the pro rata principle, thus:

Whole No. of Electoral Votes, 35: to be apportioned on the basis of the popular vote of the several factions for their common ticket, as follows:

If the Douglas vote be	175,000	20
If the Breckinridge "	100,000	12
If the Bell & Everett	30,000	3

Decidedly the largest and most enthusiastic political meeting ever held in Brooklyn, was gathered in the park of that city last evening to ratify the nomination of Lincoln and Hamlin. George Field, Esq., presided. The speeches were by Dr. Blair, of Missouri, the Hon. Daniel Ullman, and others. The Republicans of Brooklyn have good cause for rejoicing at the auspicious demonstration of last evening —N. Y. Trib.

The Douglas Democrats were in solemn glee on Saturday night, up to half past 11 o'clock, and had matters their own way; but, unfortunately, at that hour, the Old Guard of the Democracy received the news of the nomination of Breckinridge and Lane, at Baltimore. At once the scene changed, and the excitement and enthusiasm increased in earnest for Breckinridge and Lane.—St. Louis Dem

The Baltimore Republican finally declares for Breckinridge, though with a heavy heart. It is a matter of deep regret," it says, "to feel that we are to battle with a powerful foe, while our own forces are divided But we shall do our duty, and leave results to that overruling Providence who can convolve light out of darkness, and give the victory to those who will best serve the interests and purposes of the Government." This means that Lincoln will be elected

The Newark Evening Journal comes out for Breckinridge and Lane, who, it says, are preferred by a large majority of the Democrats of New Jersey. The Journal thinks the Douglas men in the State ought to support the Seceders' candidates, rather than see both factions beaten by Lincoln. No doubt.

The following newspapers in Massachusetts will support the Breckinridge ticket: The Boston Post, Lowell Advertiser, New Bedford Times, Greenfield Democrat, Barnstable Patriot, Salem Advocate, Essex County Democrat, Lawrence Sentinel, and Pittsfield Sun.

Breckinridge and Lane in Indiana.—The Indianapolis Journal says that Breckinridge and Lane will receive a large number of votes in Indiana, and will give the State to Lincoln and Hamlin by at least 40,000. The Journal thinks the State good for 5,000 to 10,000 majority for Lincoln without a divided Democracy.

Senator Rice, M. Becker, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Minnesota last year, Franklin Steele, Mr. Findley and Mr. Edgerton, published a card on Monday declaring for Breckinridge and Lane, and appeal to the Democracy of Minnesota to sustain them.

Still they Come.—The Chillicothe Gazette says: "Col. Van Tramp, the candidate of the Fillmore party for Governor in 1857, is out for Lincoln and Hamlin, and will probably take the stump for the ticket this fall.

THE Baltimore Argus, the Democratic organ in Maryland, having received its instructions, has also declared for Breckinridge. Douglas will not have a corporal's guard in Maryland, and Bell and Everett will sweep the State.

SPLIT VERSUS SPLIT.

"Abe and his rails." O worse than Jills tale—
We Democrats can lay you on the shelf.
Bowie & cane is Buck's only split a rail!
Our good old party's gone and split in twain!!

Montgomery, of Pennsylvania, who made such a disgraceful exhibition of himself at Baltimore, is the man who supplies the President with "old rye." Things evidently have gone away with him politically.

Litchfield, Ill., June 25.—One hundred guns are now being fired ratifying the nomination of Breckinridge and Lane. Great enthusiasm prevails among the "simon-pures," and speeches and bonfires are the order of the night.

THE Richmond (Va) Enquirer and the Wilmington (N. C) Journal have raised the Breckinridge flag. Hon. Roger A. Pryor of Va., announces his intention to support the Breckinridge ticket.

THE St. Louis Bulletin supports Breckinridge; the Republican, which was the father of all the pro slavery canards during the Kansas struggle, supports Douglas.

THE Louisville Courier supports Breckinridge, and the Democrat goes for Douglas. The most of the democratic papers in Kentucky go for Breckinridge.

THE Boston Post puts up the Breckinridge ticket, and comes out dead against Douglas in its leader of Saturday.

Ann Arbor, Michigan, June 27.—Hon. Bradley F. Granger has been nominated by the Republicans of the First District for Congress.

Humphrey Marshall, late an active "American" in Kentucky, has announced himself for Breckinridge.

THE Baltimore Sun denounces as against Douglas

DEATH BY LIGHTNING IN ILLINOIS.—Decatur, June 25.—One hundred guns now firing for the Breckinridge ticket.

Hon. John Sherman, it seems to be understood, will be nominated for re-election in the Thirteenth District, Ohio, without opposition.

The Maryland Germans for Lincoln.—Lincoln will receive a great many German votes there.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—On the 21st of May, 1855, a South Carolina planter arrived at this port, in a steamboat, having with him seven slaves—a woman and six children. This man, whose name was Elijah Willis, had treated the negro woman as his wife, and he acknowledged all the children as his own. His object in coming to this State was to emancipate these slaves. Previously he made a will, leaving his property, valued at about $60,000, to the woman and her children. Immediately upon stepping upon the wharf at this place, he fell dead. The will soon thereafter discovered, and Mr. Jolinffe of this city proceeded to South Carolina, to secure the property for the woman and her children. His presence there caused much excitement. The heirs of Willis, at once commenced proceedings to have the will set aside, and they were successful in the lower Court. The case was carried to the Court of Appeals, and on the 21st of May that tribunal reversed the decision of the lower Court thus sustaining the will, and securing the property to the legatees.—Cin. Gaz.

We learn that a goodly number of well-known and influential citizens who have not hitherto acted with the Republican party, but who believe that the peace, dignity, tranquillity and prosperity of the country will be promoted by the election of Lincoln and Hamlin, are preparing to hold a City Meeting to respond to and ratify their nomination. Most of them are Clay Whigs of other days, who supported Mr. Fillmore in '56, partly from State pride and personal regard, but in part also because he was the only candidate in nomination for president who had shared in their previous struggles or who was deemed by them sound in his views with regard to the internal policy and legislative needs of the country. Believing Mr. Lincoln to be substantially with them on these important topics, they have resolved to be with him, and to swell by their numbers the invincible host that is mustering to march to victory under his banner. They will invite speakers from different parts of the country, and appeal to all who believe there is need of Reform at Washington to co operate with them. Their meeting will doubtless be a large one.

The President's guillotine is to be trundled to Massachusetts speedily. All the accedents not in office there are to be rewarded, and those in office who are inclined to Douglas, as the Lawrence postmaster was, are to be removed. Col Josiah H. Wright was appointed, to day, superintendent of the Springfield armory. He was elected as a Douglas delegate, but turned, and verily has his reward.

The Senate to-day in executive session, rejected the Spanish treaty, on account of the old Amistad claim.

The Republican senators thus refused to recognize negresses as property on a vessel on the ocean, holding that it is the creation of local law, and without such law cannot so much as get existence.

This is probably the final settlement of a claim which has been pending now for many years.

It is not likely that the news of the rejection will be received very amicably in Spain.—Telegraphic dispatch to World

ACCORDING to the Louisville Courier's statistics, the list of disasters on the Western waters since the incoming of the present year has already assumed terrible proportions. During the time, only five months, upwards of one hundred lives have been lost, one million and a half dollars lost; three serious explosions occurred, forty four boats have been snagged, seventeen burnt, five lost and injured by collision, twenty steamboats lost or crippled in storms and one hundred and nineteen barges, coal-boats, and other flat-boats lost by storms. The number of serious accidents sums up to two hundred and twenty one.

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!! Dyspepsia!!!
What is it? How Cured?

DYSPEPSIA is our National Disease—weak stomach, feeble digestion, distress after eating, costive bowels, flatulency, sour stomach, and all the attendant symptoms of low spirits, bad taste, coated tongue, obstinate foul breath and attacks of headache! Yet how few know how to cure it! Generally, because the bowels are constipated, resort is had to cathartics, or laxatives. But such a condition was never cured by cathartics, whose only office is to weaken the digestion and impair the integrity of the entire assimilative system.

But HUMPHREY'S HOMEOPATHIC DYSPEPSIA PILLS—a simple medicated sugar pill—have cured hundreds of the worst and most obstinate cases This is done simply by improving the tone and restoring the integrity of the digestive organs, from which result good appetite, regular habits, a clear head and buoyant spirits. Such a result is a gem, and only requires to be known to be appreciated.

RICHARDSON'S
IRISH LINENS,
DAMASKS, DIAPERS, &C.
CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are stamped with the full name of the firm,
J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN
as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of goods. This caution is rendered essentially necessary, large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are offered, season after season, and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, BROTHER & CO., which, regardless of the frauds inflicted thereby on the American consumer and produce lovers of the genuine Goods, will not readily allow a business so profitable, while purchasers can be cheated with goods of a worthless character.

BOOK OF THE FAIR.
THE SUBSCRIBER is respectfully announces that, with the approval and countenance of the Board of Directors of the
Allegheny County Agricultural Association,
He will publish on Sept. 1, in time for the opening of the
ALLEGHENY COUNTY FAIR,
To be held Sept 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th,
a volume bearing the above title.

THE BOOK OF THE FAIR will contain a full historical account of the origin and progress of the Association, Statistics of the various Exhibitions, and much other interesting matter relative to Allegheny County, and the Cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, with Fine Lithographic Views of many of our Public Buildings and Churches.
Also, a fine Octavo View of the Cities and Vicinity, now engraving by William Schuyler.
TEN THOUSAND COPIES of this remarkable book will be published, and a copy of the Exhibition will be presented to each subscriber.
A large portion of the volume will be devoted to historical and statistical matter, and to articles on subjects connected with Manufactures and Agriculture—the great advantage to be obtained in a proper publication of his works, extend to the publication of the present volume, by taking TIME BY FORELOCK, and having a neat and well written bottle thereof judiciously prepared and placed in the pages of the BOOK OF THE FAIR.
As a medium of intro to a large number of persons of any business or manufacturing establishment, this volume, from its permanent character, is desirable. Not only will its good effect during the continuance of the Fair, amply compensate the persons favored in obtaining publicity in its pages, from its Historical, Statistical and Illustrated plan, it will naturally pass from hand to hand, and be of service to all, it at once appeals to any shrewd man that it offers unusual attractions to such as will strikingly commend their establishments, wares or stock to the attention of thousands.
All the blank must be back must be prepared and printed, and the volume out at least one day previous to the opening of the Fair. It will be obvious that all parties wishing to secure its insertion must make application soon to the publisher.
All orders must be addressed to
