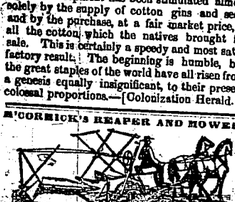
Scotch Servants.

The change in the character of domestic service, which is now a mere question of pecuniary interest, instead of the personal attachment and unswerving fidelity of earlier days is a subject much dwelt upon by the admirers of the good old times; yet those advantages had their drawbacks in a familiarity of intercourse, and an assumption of importance, on the score of long service, which often reversed the position of master and servant, and made of the latter a sort of domestic tyrant. At a dinner party in the last generation, one of the family noticed that a guest was looking for the proper spoon to help himself to salt. The old servant was appealed to that the want might be supplied. He did not notice the appeal. It was repeated in a more peremptory manner: "Thomas, Mrs. Murry has not a salt-spoon." To which he replied, most emphatically: "Last time Mrs. Murry was here we 'lost a salt-spoon." An old servant who took a similar charge of everything that went on in the family, having observed that his master thought he had drank wine with every lady at the table, but had overlooked one, logged his memory with the question:—"What ails ye at her wi' the green gown?"

A Mr. Erskine, of Dunn, had almost determined to free himself from the thraldom of one of those old retainers, when one day walking out with his man, on crossing a field, the master exclaimed: "There's a hare!" Andrew looked at the place and coolly replied: "What a big tee, it's a caut". The master, quite anxiously now plainly told the domestic that they must part. The tried servant of forty years innocently asked: "Ay, sir; where ye gaun? I'm sure ye're aye best at hame;" supposing that, if there was to be any disruption, it must be the master who would change the place. An old coachman of a noble lady, being peremptorily ordered to depart, coolly replied: "Na, na, my lady, I drav ye to your marriage, and I shall stay and drive ye to your burial." An old Forfarshire lady, knowing the habits of her old and spoiled servant, when she wished a note to be taken without loss of time, used to open and read it to him, saying: "There now, Andrew, ye ken a' that's in it; noo dinna stop to open it, but just send it aff."

WEST AFRICAN COTTON.—In seven years the increase in the exports of cotton from Western Africa into the ports of great Britain has been one thousand per cent. From 1852 to 1858, the shipment of raw cotton from Lagos alone rose from 1,810 pounds to 1,000,000, and the returns for 1859 from the West Coast, amounted to nearly 2,000,000 of pounds. This signal development has been stimulated almost solely by the supply of cotton gins and seed, and by the purchase, at a fair market price, of all the cotton which the natives brought for sale. This is certainly a speedy and most satisfactory result. The beginning is humble, but the great staples of the world have all risen from a genesis equally insignificant, to their present colossal proportions.—[Colonization Herald.

M'CORMICK'S REAPER AND MOWER.



20,000 Sold in the Last Five Years!

Being a Larger Number than is Manufactured by any other single Establishment in the World.

THE MACHINE for 1860 will be found so greatly improved as fully to meet the wants of farmers, both as a Reaper and as a Mower—so modified in its construction, as now to be for both purposes! While carrying a swath several inches wider than the Two Horse Machine of last season, it is a whole, narrower, lighter and stronger, and will run much easier—with no material side draught. We present, therefore, for the coming season, a machine soo feet wider than those of most makers, with a light draught for two horses. BY MUCH THAN IS REQUIRED, for the convenience of fastening of the machine to the horses' backs, the second jointed tongue, (with the wheel frame) to the cutting apparatus, which we make, is now easily thrown over obstructions while in motion, simply by the raising of the lever with its pitch, thus dispensing with all levers and complicated arrangements to effect the same object.

The machine of 1860 will be found superior as a MOWER, presenting some peculiar features not attainable by other machines. The Two Horse Machine, for cutting short grass and one half foot widths of light and easy draught, and for enabling a greater amount of work with a less expenditure of power than any machine made.

A warrantee is given to every purchaser, and in addition, the following offer is made: Any farmer, who may see it, is at liberty to work his machine through the harvest with any other, and PAY for the one PURCHASED.

Further information, as also for patent claims under which this machine is built, we refer to our annual pamphlet, which will be furnished on application to us, at Chicago, or either of our many agents.

Sample machines can be seen at all prominent points.

Price of machines delivered in Cincinnati, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Baltimore—charge following from these points:

For Four Horse, complete.....$155
For Two Horse, complete.....140

Quack Nostrums.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under more extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see parading in our columns as new paper-headings, as half preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. HOOF'S GERMAN OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful vases, and in pretty glass bottles, the costliest character of tonics; and when thus costly, are baptized with Hebrew, Russian or Greek names, and sold at a most profitable term, and is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentlemen comes before the world without any 'wig, statute' Xilophiorium, or any other astounding and startling catchpenny terms, he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses, precisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalp, are your very best friends, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will get some worthless substance than perfumed lard oil on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,
Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,
Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads,
Will restore the Natural Secretions,
Will cure at once all Itching,
Will remove all Dandruff,
Will cure all scrofulous—ten fold Heal,
Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,
Will make the old appear young again,
Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,
Will always Fasten it and stop its Falling,
And is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

DR. HANBURY SMITH'S
CELEBRATED KISSINGEN WATER;
BAKOCZI BRUNNEN;
From the Carlsbad Spa, Cincinnati, Ohio.

This celebrated water very much resembles that of the Congress Spring at Saratoga, both in about one-third stronger. It presents a happy combination of gently purgative, deobstruent and tonic salts, and is especially indicated in all forms of dyspepsia, constipation, congestion of the liver and spleen, certain female disorders, and the sterility depending upon them.

It should be taken at the temperature of spring water and not too cold; half a bottle fail at a time every 10 or 15 minutes, at least half an hour before breakfast.
