ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL,
BROADWAY,
NEW YORK.
WHEN completed six years ago the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient, and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind in this continent. What it was then it remains to day—without a rival in its unsurpassed comforts, and in the general arrangements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guests, including 100 complete suits of apartments for families. Its large and public dining room can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three stewards, and has always left my system in better condition than they found it. I must confidently commend your Pills as a safe and highly valuable medicine.

MESSRS. B. L. FAHNESTOCK & Co.—I have had considerable experience in the use of Dr. Ayer's Cathartic Pills compounded by Dr. R. Adams Wilson, of which you are the proprietors, and have found them to possess more than the usual efficacy in cases for Nervous Headache, as well as from a disordered condition of the stomach. I have likewise prescribed them for many others, in cases of Dyspepsia and other forms of headache depending on a deranged and irritable condition of the stomach and digestive organs, for which they seem peculiarly adapted, being entirely free from mercury, griping tendency, without at all debilitating. You can use them in your purge, Yours, truly,

Tonic, Cathartic and Anti-Dyspeptic
PILLS.
WILSON'S PILLS have had a more local existence for over twenty years, unsupported by advertising of any kind, and all on account of double the price of that which are now sold at, yet with all these disadvantages wherever tested they have in no instance failed to render the utmost satisfaction in performing all the requirements claimed for them by medicines, and as such are recommended and used by some of the most worthy and respectable citizens of the Washington, Pa., ways.
From Col. Wm. Hopkins, late Canal Commissioner of the State of Pennsylvania.
WASHINGTON, January 9, 1858.
DR. R. A. WILSON, Pittsburgh, Pa.—I have been using your Anti-Dyspeptic Pills, when occasion required, for many years, and can truthfully say that I have found them a valuable medicine in relieving me from affections of the stomach and bowels; they have never failed to relieve me of any complaint, and have always left my system in better condition than they found it. I must confidently commend your Pills as a safe and highly valuable medicine.
Yours, respectfully,

PITTSBURGH:
SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 7.

The Crops.

We continue to receive most flattering accounts from the country regarding the crops. The reports are even more favorable than previous encouraging advices had led us to anticipate. In the West, wheat has been mostly harvested, and the general yield is very heavy. After making allowance for districts where the crop suffered from severe weather in the winter, and from other causes, such as rust, the ravages of the fly, &c., during the last three months, it is safe to estimate the crops, in the aggregate, at a full average, and including all the wheat growing States in the West, the yield is fully twice as large as that of 1859. In Pennsylvania and New York the crop is also an excellent one, both in quantity and quality. In the frosted districts in Western Pennsylvania and Ohio, where the failure was almost entire last year, the yield this season is with few exceptions extraordinarily large. Barley and Rye have yielded well. Oats, though short in straw, have generally headed out pretty well, and the crop will be a fair one. Peas will also be a fair yield of hay. There is a larger breadth of land under corn than in any former year, and the prospect for a heavy yield could not be more favorable. The growth was retarded somewhat by dry weather in many places, but it did not suffer seriously anywhere, and the whole country having lately been visited by copious rains, the plants are now making rapid progress, and they present, generally, a healthy and vigorous appearance. Potatoes promise a full yield, and the indications are that the crop, in quantity, and quality will be a good one.

Altogether the crops of 1860 will be larger than in any previous year, there being an increased breadth of ground under cultivation, and the yield per acre will, in the aggregate, reach a full average. The products of the present harvest, with the surplus of last year's crops, now on hand, will fill up the vacuum caused by the deficient harvests of the last three years, and this result will insure the return of moderate prices for the necessaries of life; and all the prominent interests of the country will now move steadily forward, under full sail, through a season of general and unexampled prosperity. It is not likely that anything will occur to prevent the realization of the present splendid prospects. Wheat, oats, barley and hay may be considered safe, and corn is so far advanced that it is not in much danger from any weather, hereafter; and its forwardness will insure it from the danger of premature fall frosts. With a large corn crop, we may of course expect a correspondingly large supply of the other great Western staple, hogs. For the latter, food will be abundant and cheap, and the prospective prices are such as to induce farmers to take extra care of their stock. Already contracts have been made for early fall delivery at $6 30@6 40 per 100 lbs. net. This is an extraordinary price, considering the large crops of grain, but it is not out of proportion to the present prices of provisions. These figures, however, are not to be taken as an index for the season. The crop of hogs, from present indications, will be larger than in any previous year, and as the season will commence early with pretty free supplies, prices will be more likely to fall to $6 than to be sustained at $6 or anything over that figure. The business is not in a favorable condition for packers. The season is now likely to be a disastrous than a profitable one, but in any event farmers promise to be well paid, and this, with the abundant supply of corn, will insure to producers paying prices, and however poorly packers may fare, hog raisers and the general agricultural interests of the country will do well.—Cin. Gazette.

A NEIGHBOR who has just returned from a trip through the adjoining counties, reports having seen a few fields of barley being harvested, and the prospect for good crops is excellent. A few fields of wheat, slightly touched with the "spot," were noticed.—Davenport Gaz.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

Politico Conundrum.—Why is the Democrat who is alarmed at the strength of the Republican candidate for President, like a small boy who dreads being taught the alphabet?

Because he is afraid of the Abe he sees (A B C's.)

Are these two Democratic fractions in earnest in their fight?—Rich. Whig.

Were the Kilkenny cats in fun?—Louis. Jour.

Washington, July 3.—The Jackson Democratic Association, which had been two years in existence and exercised much political influence, was, last night, totally disrupted by disagreements among its members on the Presidential question.

Another Acquisition.—Judge Dixon, of Wisconsin, who was last spring elected to the Supreme Court of the State has come out for Douglas. He was formerly a black Republican.—Detroit Free Press.

Homebody has been fooling the Free Press. Instead of having "come out for Douglas," Chief Justice Dixon sustains the Republican cause and candidates.—Milwaukie Sent.

Tom Democrats do not open the campaign with much vigor. The Douglas meeting of Tuesday night, though not a dead failure, showed a dismal falling off from the spirit and life which marked Democratic gatherings in the better days of the party. It was not very large, and not at all enthusiastic, in spite of the presence of Mr. Douglas himself. The speakers were not of much mark. None of the local magnates of the party took any conspicuous part in the proceedings.—There was nothing bold, open and resolute in the action or the temper of the meeting; and it melted away, at an early hour, as quietly and as soberly as an evening gathering of religious service. It was altogether too solemn and subdued to be effective. Nothing but the indifference of blank despair, could make a mass meeting of the Democracy so thoroughly respectable.—N. Y. Times.

How it takes in Belmont County.—Belmont has heretofore been one of the strongest American party holds in Ohio, and gave Fillmore a large vote in 1856. The friends of Lincoln and Hamlin held their County seminating Convention, June 30th, and put up a strong and true ticket. At the Convention speeches were made by Gen. James Weir and Clifford Arick, Esq., both of whom have been voting and stumping for the Democratic ticket for a number of years past. They came out strong for Lincoln and Republican measures. So did L. C. Branford, a Fillmore Elector and stumper, and Dr. W. W. Jenkins, Chairman of the County Convention that organized the Constitutional Union party in Belmont county, a leading American and prominent in the Fillmore campaign. "Honest Old Abe" is the watchword in Belmont.—Cleve. Leader.

THE N. Y. World—a neutral paper—thus refers to the division of the Democratic party and its prospects:

It is a fatal breach. The old discipline, which wrought such wonders, is at an end. The "unterrified" spirit has vanished. Divided they march to rule, and they know it. Each takes its own track, and a sad road it is—joyless, hopeless, inglorious. A party in this plight is no longer in a campaigning condition; it is almost literally hors du combat. It may skirmish in flying detachments, but as for making any grand stand—it is utterly out of the question. This of itself settles the matter.

Douglas in the South.—But three journals support Douglas in Alabama and two in Georgia. As yet, not one in South Carolina, Mississippi, Texas, Arkansas and Florida has declared for him. There are two in Tennessee and one in Kentucky. In Louisiana there may be one or two. It is stated from Washington that a movement is on foot to start a new daily in Baltimore devoted to the Douglas cause, as also one in Petersburg, Va. As yet no paper in Maryland has declared for Douglas, except the Weekly Dispatch, of this city, which was purchased as his advocate some time ago.

The following is a literal copy of a telegram sent from Baltimore on the night of the great democratic fiasco—it seems to be from a substitute delegate, to inquire if his principal will let him bolt—

BALT., June 22.
To ——
Douglas has been Nominated there is Second Auty Douglas Convention to be held at 7 o'clock this Evening Call on Mr. ——— Immediately ask him wether he grants me the priviledge to act for you. I think proper to attend the Auty D. Convention."
—Springfield Republican.

THE Houston movement progresses, and must not be overlooked. The Houston executive committee at New York, ex-mayor Mickle chairman, are carefully nursing it, and intend to bring it out strong. A state convention is called at Schenectady, N. Y., as we hear, for next meeting, July 18th, to name a candidate for vice president and nominate electors. The committee say they have cheering reports from New Jersey, Maryland Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, Georgia, and Texas.

The split widens in Missouri The St. Louis Democratic states Col. Woodson and Mr. Anderson, Democratic members from this State, have pronounced for Brent and Lane.

DON'T KNOW WHO TO HOLLER FOR.—The Wilmington Watchman, the Democratic organ of Clinton county, publishes all the Presidential tickets and don't know which to "holler" for. Its quandary is funny, but not singular, in the double condition of Democracy. The editor says:

We are decidedly at a loss to know what will be the result of all this "mix," and we are in a greater fear as to how to holler: we are anxious to holler for somebody, but are afraid to, for you know we might wake up the wrong passenger—that is, we might get on the wrong side—and then we would be in a circumstance.

The Douglasite journals circulate a story which somebody has manufactured about "the venerable Peter Cartwright" having "twice run in opposition to Mr. Lincoln for a seat in the Legislature of Illinois, and beaten him both times." This we know to be a sheer fabrication, although it is a very small matter, hardly worth inventing, and of not the slightest consequence, had it been true. The retailing of such bogus anecdotes as these is chiefly noticeable as showing how hard it is for our opponents to find anything to say against Mr. Lincoln.

The southern papers are generally disposed to omit Douglas's first baptismal appellation, having dropped that and its owner at the same time. The second and most appropriate name is retained, and since his persistent and successful endeavors to obtain the nomination, he is called by his opponents Arnold Douglas, giving to history a second traitor of the name. The New Orleans Courier, in particular, speaks of him in no other way.

"JOHNSON IS A HARD ROAD TO TRAVEL ONCE, or a broad and hickory-girded road, "Democracy"—Herald—outstrode.

But, ah! the "giants" of our present day Find not so sure a path, nor sound a way:
Look where they will, the crumbling ground is plain;
A breaking ridge skirts still a muddy lane!

THE Culpepper (Va.) Observer, in discussing the Presidential chances, says:

"Under present circumstances, it were equally foolish and criminal to shut our eyes to the fact that Lincoln stands the best chance of being elected."

The Springfield Republican, the Massachusetts paper edited by Mr. Bowels and Dr. Holland, recently said:

The Democratic party is so dead here, and everything but Republicanism is so dead, that, as a party, we really lack the stimulus to a healthy excitement.

The Democrats have garbled this extract, by leaving out the words in italics, and then they quote that paper as saying:

Republicanism is so dead, that, as a party, we really lack the stimulus to a healthy excitement.

Don't Like It.—The Douglas democracy are sorely troubled that the people of the north west have no beat known, call our candidate "Honest Abe." Where their candidate is best known, he never was suspected of honesty.—Chicago Rail Splitter.

THE Enquirer says the thunder of cannon over the nomination of Douglas reverberates through the length and breadth of the land. That's just it—the Douglasites have gone to thunder.—Cin. Gaz.

VACCINE MATTER, the genuine article, taught, and statistics show, that vaccination with the pure matter is vastly more reliable than that produced with the variola—vaccination seldom taking effect after the former, while it does after the latter.
