THE WALDENSES.—One of the most remarkable events that has taken place on the Italian peninsula, since the first movement of the Austrians across the Tiziano, is the transfer of the College of the Waldensian, or Vaudois church, La Torre, in the Alpine regions of Piedmont, to Florence, in Tuscany. It may be known to some of our readers that a small community of Protestants has inhabited, from time immemorial, three narrow and irregular valleys of Piedmont, high up on the eastern slope of the Cottian Alps. For many centuries, these Vandois, or Waldenses, as they have been improperly styled—now numbering some thirty thousand souls—shut out from the rest of the world by rugged mountain ranges, have kept themselves separate from the Church of Rome, and adhered to what they have always declared to be the primitive faith. Six hundred years ago, when Catholicism was paramount in Europe, and when to be a heretic was to be possessed of the devil, the Vandois as firmly rejected, as they do at this day, whatever is taught, if it be not demonstrable by "a text in the New Testament." Long before Peter Waldo, to whom the origin of this sect has often been erroneously ascribed, commenced his labors as a religious reformer, the Vandois professed the same creed which they still hold. During the long lapse of centuries they have changed neither their time honored customs nor their ancient doctrines. They have ever been a simple, pastoral people; pure in morals, devout in feelings, and hospitable to the extent of their ability. Yielding prompt obedience to the government in all things that did not infringe upon their religious convictions, and ever ready to suffer "for conscience sake," they kept the faith which their forefathers kept, in spite of the crusades which were preached against them; the many and cruel acts of persecution to which they were subjected, and the civil disabilities by which they were for ages oppressed. It was in behalf of this people, when harrassed by fire and sword that Cromwell, through his Latin Secretary, John Milton, wrote to the Duke of Savoy, warning him to desist from his bloody doings, or to beware of the consequences. It was also in behalf of the same people that Milton wrote his famous sonnet, commencing:

"Avenge, O Lord, thy slaughtered Saints, whose bones
Lie scattered on the Alpine mountains cold."

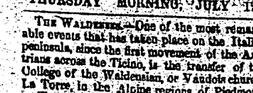
M'CORMICK'S REAPER AND MOWER.



20,000 Sold in the Last Five Years!

Being a Larger Number than is Manufactured by any other single Establishment in the World.

THE MACHINE for 1859 will be found so greatly improved as fully to meet the wants of the farmer, both as a Reaper and as a Mower—so modified in its construction, as now to be

THE ONLY COMPLETE MACHINE

For both purposes. While cutting a swath several inches wider than the Two Horse Machine of past seasons it is as a whole, much lighter and stronger, and will run much easier—with no material side draught. We present, therefore, for the coming season, a machine one foot wider than those of most makers, with a light draught for two horses in Reaping or Mowing—LIGHTER THAN IS REQUIRED BY MANY NARROWER MACHINES. By the perfection of balancing of this machine, in connection with a patented lever jointed tongue, (with its two fulcrums,) the cutting apparatus, when mowing, is now easily thrown over tussocks, or while in motion, simply by the weight of the driver in his seat; thus dispensing with all levers and complicated arrangements to effect the same object.

The machine of 1859 will be found superior as a MOWER, presenting some peculiar features not attainable by other machines. The Two Horse Machine, shorn of cutting about five and one half feet wide, is of light and easy draught, accomplishing a greater amount of work with a less expenditure of power than any machine.

A warranty is given to every purchaser, and in addition, the following offer is made: Any farmer, who may dye to it, is at liberty to work this machine through the harvest with any other, and PAY for the one purchased.

For further particulars, as also for patent claims under which this machine is built, we refer to our annual pamphlet, which will be furnished on application to us, at Chicago, or either of our many agents.

Sample machines can be seen at all prominent points.

Price of machines delivered in Chicago, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Baltimore—charges following from these points:

For Four Horse, complete	$155
For Two Horse, complete	140

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show bills, door cards, and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water, their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. HOOF'S LARD, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the exact character of tonics, and when the costly, are dazzled with some (injudicious term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes; such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any "high sounding" Metaphilosophic, or any other astounding and startling cock-a-doodle-doo pomp, he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it supposes a previously—and as a fact proves it says. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you raise your scalp, you lower your bonnets, supply nothing at all; for it may be that you will get some wonderful nuisance than perfumed lard oil on your craniums: Remember, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,
Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,
With make Hair Grow on Bald Heads,
Will restore the Natural Secretions,
Will remove all scurf and dandruff,
Will cure all eruptions, even Scald Head,
Will make the Hair soft and Glossy,
Will make the old appear young again,
Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,
Will always Restore it and stop its Falling,
And in case of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen. Recommended by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The peculiarities of this remedy fully proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Tried, as in all other maladies it has been, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Eruptions, Abscesses, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular power from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful. In all cases which no direct or written attestation would render credible—but all so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhausting critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic wretches to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron is necessarily tedious, for, unlike the old ordeals, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most delicate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, Indigestion, as are for instance, a single bottle of these Chalybeate Pills has often suffered for the most inveterate cases, including the standard Cathartics.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the pills are here equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculous, this medicated iron has had for more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly suffering them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swelling and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it has been recently a potent remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and meritorious.

Not only has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which is in such prompt, happy, and really restorative effects. Good upon its complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and close, full exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills; price 75 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, circulars, &c., should be addressed to
