BOOK OF THE FAIR.

THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully announce that, with the approbation and countenance of the Board of Directors

Allegheny County Agricultural Association,

He will publish on Sept. 1st, in time for the opening of the

ALLEGHENY COUNTY FAIR,

To be held Sept. 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th, a Volume bearing the above title.

THE BOOK OF THE FAIR will contain a full historical account of the origin and progress of the Association, statistics of its various Exhibitions, and such other interesting matter, relative to Allegheny County, and the Cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, with Fine Lithographic Views of many of our Public Buildings and Churches.

Also, a fine Octavo View of the Two Cities and Vicinity, now engraving by William Schuchman.

TEN THOUSAND COPIES of this reasonable book will be issued and ready for the opening of the Exhibition.

of the volume will be devoted to a historical and statistical account of the various establishments in which Manufactured articles on exhibition may have been made, with full descriptions of the articles exhibited.

As the book will be in the hands of the majority if not nearly all the visitors to the Fair, the shrewd business man, in choosing his advertising medium, will see great advantage to be obtained in a proper presentation of his wares, patent or stock, through the pages of this volume, by taking and having a neat and correctly written notice thereof judiciously prepared and inserted in the pages of the

BOOK OF THE FAIR.

As a medium of introduction to a large number of persons of any business or manufacturing establishment, this volume, from its permanent character, is desirable. Not only will its good offices, during the continuance of the Fair, amply compensate for the expense incurred in obtaining publication of its pages, but as, from its historical, statistical and illustrated character, it will naturally pass from hand to hand, and to scattered fire and side, it is at once apparent to any shrewd business man that it offers eminent attractions to such as would strikingly commend their establishments, wares, patents or stock to the attention of thousands.

As the whole matter of the book must be prepared and printed, and the volume issued at least one day previous to the opening of the Fair, it will be obvious that all parties availing themselves of its pages must make application soon to the publisher.

All orders must be addressed to POLITICAL ITEMS.

Douglas vs. Johnson.

WHAT IS POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY?

I firmly and conscientiously believe that there is no safety for the country, no hope for the preservation of the Union, except by a faithful and rigid adherence to the doctrines of non-intervention by Congress in the territories.' Intervention means disunion. There is no difference in principle between northern and southern intervention.—The true intervener for slavery, and the other against slavery, but each appeals to the passion and prejudices of his own section against the peace of the whole country and the right of self-government by the people of the territories; hence the doctrine of non-intervention must be maintained at all hazards; but while I can never sacrifice the principle, even to attain the Presidency, I will cheerfully and joyfully sacrifice myself in order to maintain the principle.—Douglas' Letter to Richardson.

And now on this

The ultra men in each section demand Congressional intervention with the subject in the territories. They agree in respect to the power and duty of the federal government to control the question, and differ only as to the mode of exercising the power.—Douglas' Serenade Speech.

Side.

Will some Democrat who undertakes, upon principle, to support both these candidates, tell us which of them is right?

Turning a Short Corner.—The nomination of Senator Fitzpatrick, of Alabama, for the Vice Presidency on the Douglas ticket, his prompt declination of that empty honor, and the substitution of Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia—the Georgian Sidus, or Herschel planet, of the Douglas Democracy—have caused the organs of that party a deal of trouble.

Hear how the Detroit Free Press, for instance, a loyal Douglasite, discourses about Mr. Fitzpatrick in his two estates:

"Fitzpatrick on the Douglas Ticket—Mr. Fitzpatrick, one of the nominees for Vice President, is one of the Senators from Alabama. His position has all along been hostile to the extremists of the South, between whom of his own State and himself no amicable relations have for some time existed. He is for the Democratic party and the Democratic platform as they are, and against disunion in all its phases. A better man could not have been put upon the ticket."

"Fitzpatrick off the Douglas Ticket.—The reasons of Mr. Fitzpatrick's declination are not stated, and they are not material. Perhaps he became weak in the knees. Gov. Johnson accepts the designation, and unequivocally endorses the Democratic platform. We should have preferred him to Mr. Fitzpatrick at any rate, because he has been conspicuous for the Cincinnati platform all the while, whereas Mr. Fitzpatrick voted for Mr. Jefferson Davis' Senate resolutions, which have an unpleasant squinting towards Congressional intervention."

The fun of the joke is, that the Douglas Democracy know, all the while, about Fitzpatrick's votes, but were willing to swallow him, nevertheless, if they could make anything by the operation.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Some ten or more years ago a Democratic State Convention met at Indianapolis, and Gen. Joe Lane was thrust forward as a candidate for the Presidency. Gen. Lane, a soldier of the Mexican War, was then living in Vandarburg county—Bobby. D. Owen in Posey. For this reason, we suppose, the latter was selected and authorized to write the following letter of Brigadier General Joseph Lane." The book was to have been adorned with a full length portrait of the General, and one, onehalf size, of the biographer. For reasons not given to the public, this veritable history was never written. Owen found that Lane was responsible for the base and inhuman slander against the Second Indiana Regiment, at Buena Vista. He declined to make a report to Gen. Taylor, detailing the facts. This feature in the life of Lane could not be "depressed" or blotted out; so the Democracy sent Lane to distant Oregon, instead of making him the President of the United States. We suggest to Owen to finish the work he has ever commenced it, and after the idea of November publish it as a new edition of "Foot-falls from an Invisible (politico) World."

GIVING IT UP—SHERIDAN DEMOCRAT.—The Erie Observer, one of the most intelligent and influential Democratic papers in Northern Pennsylvania, thus frankly admits that the defeat of its party in November is inevitable. The Observer says:

"We will not quibble ourselves—we will not compromise the position of this journal by misleading its readers with vain and delusive hopes, when there is no room for hope. United we stand, united we fall,' is an aphorism which has never been controverted either in theory or practice. No political party divided can succeed. We tried it in 1848, and a like result flowed from a like cause. And we are about to enact over again in 1860 the disastrous campaign of 1848. We have it is said 'there is a silver lining in every cloud,' but we apprehend it will take a spy glass at least four years long, to see a 'silver lining in the cloud' that spans the political horizon of the Democratic party at this time."

THE NEXT OREGON UNITED STATES SENATORS.—Col. Baker, who is to succeed Lane, was a Whig Member of Congress from Illinois ten years ago, and then a gallant officer in the Mexican War. He run, last year, for Congress in California, but did not succeed, and soon after passed into Oregon, by the invitation of Republicans there, to take the leadership of the party in the campaign just closed.

James W. Nesbith is to be the Anti-Lecompton successor of Dalason Smith. Mr. N. was Indian Agent in Oregon for a time; but he was removed because he hated Lane and despised Buchanan.—Alb. Eve. Journ.

HON. STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS FORESTFUL.—Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, in his speech at Philadelphia, a few days ago, returning his thanks for the welcome extended him by his political supporters, said among other things:

"My friends, I made my appearance on the balcony to night for the purpose of making an acknowledgment of the compliment which you have paid me, and not with a view of entering into a discussion on any political topic. It is the first time in my life that I have been placed in a position where I had to look on and see a fight with nobody to lend a hand in it."

We are afraid Mr. Douglas forgot the Brooks-Sumner affair.—Detroit Adv.

SAVAGE.—The war between the Douglasites and the Breckinridge men. They go into each other in real meat-axe style. For example: At a Douglas meeting held in Harrisburg, a few days ago, one of the speakers said he would "rather see the party sunk in hell" than compromise with such men as the Breckinridgeites, and that the country would be much safer in the hands of Mr. Lincoln, or any other Black Republican," than in the hands of the weak, bad man, whose name heads the Disunion ticket. A compromise with such men would "send the party to the devil." All of which was enthusiastically applauded, and the speaker afterwards honored with a serenade.

MR. DOUGLAS TO HAVE ANOTHER CHANCE.—Mr. Douglas's friends, after full consultation, have determined to put him in nomination as a candidate for the Presidency in 1864, immediately after the November election, be the result what it may. They are resolved that his competitor shall not have control of the Democratic organization, to which the contest is now mainly directed, but intend to continue the fight to the bitter end. As Messrs. Breckinridge and Douglas are both young, they may indulge the gratifying reflection that the party, in which we can afford to wish them all joy.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Trib

STILL THEY COME.—We have it from indisputable authority that Mr. Gillett, the Post Master at Ravenna, has, within three days, come out for Lincoln and Hamlin. Mr. Gillett was a Democratic member of the Senate a few years since, is a very influential man, and up to this time has ever adhered to the Democratic party. But he can go with it no longer.—Cleve. Herald.

A Democratic paper congratulates its party on having "got Humphrey Marshall, wool, body, and breeches." Why should they rejoice! Had they not breeches enough in their ranks before?—N. Y. Times.

THE BOSTON Post rejoices in the knowledge that Gen. Gideon J. Pillow will support the southern half of the Democratic party with Breckinridge and Lane. The General, after his famous "ditch campaign," was most felicitously described as being

"As soft as downy pillows are."

AN Oregon paper says that Joe Lane cannot carry that State. It advises Joe to "take water." But Joe won't do that.—Lou. Jour.

MORE RECRUITS.—A large and spirited meeting, composed of men who were "straight out" Fillmore Americans in 1856, was held in Warrington township, York county, recently, and after long and careful consultation a series of resolutions were adopted endorsing the nominees of the Chicago Convention, and pledging Lincoln and Hamlin their cordial support.

Immediately after Col. North arrested the man who is supposed to have robbed the mails between New York and Montreal, President Buchanan removed him from office. Was the mail robber a pet of the Administration.—Alb. Eve. Jour.

The Louisville Courier states positively that Guthrie is not in favor of the election of Mr. Douglas. It does not enlighten the publicans to his predilections, however.

A difficulty has arisen among the stockholders of the Kentucky Statesman, the Democratic organ at Lexington. The majority of them are for Douglas, while the editor supports Mr. Breckinridge.

THE HEBREW STONE AT NEWARK.—The Cincinnati Gazette says that the curious stone lately discovered at Newark, of which sundry interesting and elaborate accounts have been given in the Newark North American, Ohio State Journal, Cincinnati Gazette, and the Commercial—is, after all, a hoax! The Gazette exposes it thus:

An examination of the copies made of the mysterious writing aforesaid leaves no room to doubt as to its actual nature, and the discoverer need not to be at the trouble to transport his "sacred" treasure to this city, as has been proposed, in order to a final solution. The "antiquity" is an unmitigated hoax; practised by some idle youth upon the too credulous investigator of the old "curiosities" at Newark. The Hebrew characters used in this inscription are modern, having been known only about two hundred and fifty years. Had the author of this trick been better informed, he would undoubtedly have selected the
