AN INCONVENIENT LOCALITY.—A son of Erin, who resides in one of our city wards, has pitched his tent in a rather disadvantageous place. His cabin stands at the foot of an abrupt bank, along the head of which an alley runs that is frequented by those quadrupeds most commonly suffered to run at large during some portions of time in cities, namely, hogs and cows. On one occasion, about a year ago, the family were surprised by the unceremonious and boisterous entrance of a porker through the window. The animal had rolled down the bank and was precipitated, nolens volens, into the Irishman's shanty, by the rapidity of his evolutions. At first the intruder and occupant were both equally astonished, but soon, as seeing some edibles on the floor adapted to his swinishship's appetite, his instincts overcame his trepidation and he fell to work cleaning them up. A battle ensued, but the porker was too much for the Irishman single handed and came at him with open mouth when he was threatened with ejection from the premises. In this extremity neighbors were solicited in and the indomitable pig had to yield to superior force.

A few days ago the same shanty received a nocturnal visit which occasioned a greater trepidation among the inmates. In the silent watches of the night, when the Irishman and his family were locked in sleep, their repose was suddenly disturbed by a crash in the roof, and the noise of something falling heavily on the floor. Presently a pair of horns loomed up, scarcely visible in the surrounding darkness, at the sight of which the Irishman's heart sunk within him, and he cried out in dismay to his companion that "the divil was in the room, for there was his horns!" The alarm was communicated to the balance of the occupants, and all started in horror-stricken from their beds to get away from such bad company. Subsequently, of course, the intruder was found to be of a less dangerous character to humanity than at first supposed, and on the opening of the door the room was relieved of her presence, she possessing the most docile disposition, and not being inclined, like her predecessor, to make forcible detainer of the premises.

This circumstance, illustrating the superstition which still prevails among those who hail from European countries, reminds us of a circumstance which occurred at one of the Canal Transportation lines a few years ago. An Irish draymen was in the habit of getting drunk and laying out all night when the thermometer was near zero. One of the clerks or agents objected to him one day that if he did not quit such habits, he would "wake up some morning and find himself dead!" The remark apparently made a strong impression on him at the time. But he was a slave to his appetites and it was not long before he was found in his usual place on the street, stupidly drunk, on a cold winter night. The person who had given the preceding admonition, called some others and proposed to them to get some straw, lay it in a circle around the drunken man, set it on fire and then arouse him. The idea was adopted, and when the straw began to crackle right lively, by dint of the heat and consequent shaking he was wakened. The moment he opened his eyes he started up in great terror and then looking around him with a gaze by stare, exclaimed, "Just as I expected; it's all as slick as you place!"

BASS SALE.—A large number of people assembled yesterday afternoon on the West Common, back of the Penitentiary, in Allegheny, to witness the contest between the Allegheny Base Ball Club, of Allegheny, and the Duquesne Club of Pittsburgh. The names of the players are as follows:

Duquesne Club—Thomas Bakewell, George Jenkins, W. G. Woolman, L. A. Daff, O. O. Phillips, George Miller, T. McLaughlin, B. Bakewell, Thomas Loomis.

Allegheny Club—W. J. Blackstock, Charles Cutler, Thomas Bisly, Joseph Maxwell, John Ewen, Robert Elliot, A. S. Milligan, Wm. Sheckart, James McBrier.

The Duquesne Club scored twenty-seven runs, and the Allegheny Club twenty-six, but the game was decided a draw by the judges, in consequence of a misunderstanding that existed among the players, when the last run was made. We understand that the trial is to be repeated, as each club is confident of its own powers in the game. The whole game was a closely contested and exciting one.

DEFAULTER LODGED.—On the 12th of this month two of Aldermen Rogers' police attempted to arrest three "drakes" individually named John Turner alias Robinson, Andrew Hall and James Donnell, to answer a charge of disorderly conduct preferred against them by a saloon keeper on Wylie street. They showed fight when the officers came after them, and said that they would not be arrested. The Alderman and Wm. Barshill, Jr., clerk at the Mayor's office, then came to the assistance of the police officers, and after a long and stout resistance succeeded in capturing the "roughs" and taking them to jail. Yesterday the two officers they first assailed, Jacob King and George Kisker, had detainers in the shape of informations charging the party with assault and battery lodged against them.

ONE of the most pleasant and sociable picnics of the season, came off at Kilbuck Station, on Wednesday last. Notwithstanding the rather unpromising condition of the weather in the early part of the day, there was quite a large number of persons present, and that each and all enjoyed themselves was apparent in all who were on the ground. Great credit is due the managers, Messrs. Lockhart, McClelland and Myers, for the prompt and cheerful manner in which they conducted this pleasant affair, and to their untiring exertions the guests are much indebted for the good order and perfect harmony that prevailed throughout the day. The music, under the direction of Prof. Ludwig, of the Citizens' Band, was all that could possibly be desired.

TEACHERS ELECTED.—At a meeting of the Fifth ward School Directors on Monday night, the following excellent teachers were elected for the ensuing term:

Pike Street Schools—Principal, A. Bortis; Assistant, Miss Lizzie A. Wilkinson; Grammar Department, Mr. J. R. Hawk, Mrs. Jane I. Yon; Intermediate, Miss Margaret Frew; Primary, Misses Rebecca Munn, Ann R. Smith, Lizzie Muirhead, Fanny Kyle, Isabella M'Coy, Sarah W. Fleming, Mary Crookshan.

Liberty Street Schools—Intermediate, Mr. P. McClymonds, Misses Hester Munn and Julia L. Perkins; Primary, Miss Belle Falkner.

STATEMENT DENIED.—It will be remembered that not long since we published an account of Miss Dix's visit to the Beaver County Poor House, in which she expressed her disgust at the filth and vermin she saw there. This charge has been denied by Mr. Britton, steward of the institution, who has written a letter to the Beaver Argus, in which he avers, in the most emphatic terms, the truth of Miss Dix's statement. The lady, he says, were officious, with the exception of one, and there were occupied by inmate paupers, one of whom, before being received in the institution, had lived alone with several cats, in such a filthy manner that it had become a second nature to her."

A LITERARY TREAT.—This evening, at Masonic Hall, the Mount Vernon Literary Association, (by the way, one of the best societies in this vicinity,) gives a literary entertainment, as a complimentary benefit to S. C. McDowell, the unfortunate young man who was badly injured at the burning of Adair & Veeder's oil works, a few days since. It will be a dramatic and literary exhibition, and the programme is replete with excellent selections. The public will gratify themselves and perform a good act by attending.

THE re-opening of the Second M. P. Church, (Rev. Wm. Wragg, pastor,) in Pennsylvania Avenue, will take place on Sunday, July 22d. The opening sermon will be delivered by Rev. P. P. Lockley, M. D., of Morgantown, at 10½ a. m. Divine service may also be expected in the evening, at 7½. The friends and lovers of Zion are specially invited to attend.

BARN BURNT.—We learn that a barn of John McCormick, near Thompsonville, was burned on Wednesday evening, the 11th inst. It was supposed to have been fired by a lighted cigar dropped accidentally by Mr. McCormick among the lot of straw. Fortunately very little grain was in the building at the time. There was no insurance.

HIGHER COURTS CASE.—Judge Williams was engaged yesterday morning in hearing a case of habeas corpus, in which it was sought to obtain the discharge of Wm. Donaghey, whose arrest by the police as a fugitive from justice, from Nashville, Tenn., we noticed in yesterday's Gazette. The Court will give its decision in the matter to-morrow.

CUTTING AFFRAY.—Sarah Leslie, keeper of a well known bagnio on Second street, in this city, was arrested late evening by the police and taken before Mayor Wilson, to answer a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, preferred against her by a boarder of her's, named Anne Gilbert. Something the prosecutrix had said enraged her so that she drew a poinard and attempted to cut the other's throat. The knife fortunately missed the intended place, but struck on the head, making a ghastly wound some three or four inches long. The defendant was held to bail until the hearing, which comes off on Saturday.

MISS DIX.—This celebrated philanthropist was in Washington last week. During her visit she inspected the county prison and poor house, both of which institutions will no doubt be benefitted by her suggestions. She was waited upon by a number of our citizens, upon all of whom she made a most favorable impression, and such as was to be expected from a noble woman whose reputation for philanthropy and self-denial has made her the wonder and admiration of the whole Christian world.

ON Saturday night last the barn of Mr. John King, who resides just across the river from Monongahela City, was entirely consumed by fire. It was a log building and we understand was entirely empty at the time. We have not learned how the fire originated.—Wash. Rep.

TO LET.—We learn from our gentlemanly Sheriff, that the jail of Fayette county is at present without a solitary inmate, and we hope it may long remain so. This speaks volumes in praise of the high moral and christian character of the citizens of our county.—Uniontown Standard.

THE LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

RECEIVED AT THE DAILY GAZETTE OFFICE.

Latest from California.

VAN BUREN, Ark., July 19.—The Overland Mail Coach, with San Francisco dates to the 29th ult., passed here at 4 o'clock this morning.

The Masonic Fraternity celebrated St. John's day in San Francisco on the 24th, with appropriate ceremonies. The corner stone of a new masonic hall was laid.

The Pony Express was announced to start on the next eastward trip during the 6?st week in July. The last pony brought St. Joseph dates to June 29th.

A mass meeting was held in San Francisco on the 29th, to rejoice over the defeat of the Santillian title by the Supreme Court. Everything was quiet and orderly throughout the State.

The population of the Washoe region is increasing both by emigration from Salt Lake and California.

The Indians had ceased to be troublesome since the U. S. soldiers had been posted at the exposed places. The hostile tribes have gone to Oregon and the Humboldt Mountains.

It is conceded that the Democratic candidate to Congress from Oregon is elected, and that such a Legislature has been chosen, as renders certain the defeat of General Lane and Delazon Smith to the United States Senate. Democratic papers, however, claim that no Republican can be elected to the Senate, and intimate that the Lecompton and Anti-Lecompton Democrats will compromise their difference so as to secure two Democratic Senators of their sentiments.

The mining news from British California is rather encouraging.

The war between the different Indian tribes on Vancouver's Island progresses with unabated fury, and the government appears perfectly indifferent on the subject.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Owing to certain misrepresentations of the public conduct of Gen. De Golkoe, the Liberal Chief who has recently appeared in the newspapers, several gentlemen sojourning and thoroughly acquainted with Mexican affairs, have prepared a brief history of events since January, 1858, which relieves him from all unchartiable imputations, and shows him to be a true patriot, constantly striving, amid accumulated difficulties, for the welfare of his distracted country.

There were 14,640 orders in the Post Office Department for postage stamps for the second quarter of 1859, amounting to $1,266,982, and 12,486 for the second quarter of 1860, amounting to $1,073,359; decrease in orders, 1,160, being about 17 per cent; increase in the value of postage stamps issued, $306,377, being about 22 per cent. This reduction in the amount of labor on a largely increased issue has been effected by furnishing each office with the exact amount required for the quarterly supply, as nearly as it can be calculated, and forbidding postmasters from making several orders in the same quarter.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The steamship Tentonia from Hamburg, at Southampton on the 5th, arrived this morning. There is no news, except that Mr. Ten Broeck's American horse Sataille won the Stamford plate at New Market.

The Japanese Embassy Isabel and Donato, from Havana, have arrived. The Prince's arrival is announced.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The inquest in the Walton-Matthews murder resulted in a verdict against Chas. Jeffreds, who was committed for trial.

Nearly 9,000 persons visited the Great Eastern yesterday. She makes an excursion on Monday to Cape May, returning on Wednesday.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Key West advices state that the ship Castillian, sent out by the Colonization Society, sailed from the 30th for Cape Mount Africa, with 500 captured negroes. The South Shore had 355 on board, and would sail.

BALTIMORE, July 18.—The Bell and Everett ratification meeting is immense, and the greatest enthusiasm is displayed. The front of the Court House is brilliantly decorated with transparencies, flag, mottoes, &c. The entire square is fully double as great as that which attended the ratification meetings of either branch of the democracy. Mayor Swan presided. Speeches were made by J. Dixon Roman, Frederick Scholey, and other distinguished Marylanders.

NEW ORLEANS, July 19.—Messrs. Real & Co.'s loss by fire last night amounts to $50,000.

The schooner Kate, from Ruatan on the 11th inst., reports that Honduras will take possession of the Bay Islands on the 30th. The people will resist with force of arms.

Gen. Walker left Ruatan on the 27th ult. with 100 men. It is supposed he left for Central America.

ALBANY, July 19.—Immense excitement was created to-day by the appearance of Heenan and his trainer, Jack McDonald, in the streets. A great crowd of negroes chased and broken nosed citizens gathered around every saloon which the celebrities visited, and their way was filled with shouts for the Champion of the World.

HARRISBURG, July 19.—The Governor has appointed Robert C. Wright, Esq., of Lehigh county, Reporter of the Decisions of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in place of Joseph Cass, Esq., whose term of office has expired.

LOUISVILLE, July 19.—River falling—3 feet 10 inches water in the canal. Weather clear; mercury 84 deg.

COMMITTEE OF ARBITRATION FOR JULY & AUGUST:

JOHN DUNCAN, V. P.
HUGH W. JOHNSTON	R. PATTON
FELIX BRUNOT	G. B. JONES

Weekly Review of the Pittsburgh Market.

[Reported specially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY July 20, 1860.

Business continues very dull, languid and inactive in all its various departments. The transactions in the leading articles, with but few exceptions, are confined to the local trade; and as regards changes we have but few to notice—in fact there has been but little doing, buyers not feeling disposed to take more than they can possibly help, while holders appear anxious to sell. The grain market presents no new feature, and, with the exception of corn and oats, the sales have been very trifling. Groceries continue in fair demand, white prices are steady and unchanged.

Navigation is now entirely suspended, and has been for some three or four days past. The weather continues pleasant.

ASHES—The weeks' sales were small at former prices viz: Soda Ash @3½; Pots range from 4½@5½, Pearls 5½@6½. The stock in first hands is ample for all ordinary purposes.

APPLES—the new crop is coming in freely, and prices are declining. The current rates now are $1.50@2.50 ₩ bbl, according to quality.

ALE—Irrigation manufactured continues in fair demand, with steady shipments to all parts of the country. The established rates at present are:

	bbls.	half bbls.
Kunnett	$5	$4.00
Cream	6	3.50
X	6	3.00
XX	7	3.50
Porter	6	3.00

BAGS—the price current of Messrs. Mosier & Barker, for printed bags is as follows: flour sacks, 12¼ lbs, $36@37.50 ₩ 1,000; 23 lbs $50@55; 30 lbs $65@75; 96 lbs $100@110; salt bags—2 lbs $15@16 10 do $22.50@25; 14 do $25@28; 20 do $33@36; 25 do $35@38.
