More Defalcations.—The administration of Martin Van Buren was remarkable for the defalcations among the public officers in its employ. The odium attaching to that administration on that account undoubtedly contributed largely to its defeat; and the administration of Buchanan appears to be rapidly following in its wake. Fowler's defalcation has been followed by a similar one in New Orleans, the Postmaster of that city having stolen some $50,000; and now we have word that Maj. Sutherland, Quartermaster of the Marine Corps, is minus some $30,000 in his accounts. The ball, in all these cases, we are told, is good; but somehow or other the sureties on bonds given to government always manage to find some method to escape. It is not likely that the government will ever realize a cent upon the bonds of its thieving proteges.

The singular part of the thing is, not so much that dishonest men should now and then be found in office, as that the officers of the government at Washington City should be unable to detect the frauds practised by them. Fowler had been stealing for four years before he was found out; and from the magnitude of the thefts by the New Orleans Postmaster and Maj. Sutherland, it may reasonably be inferred that they have not been accomplished in a day. The probability is that they, like Fowler, commenced their peculations years ago; and that the departments at Washington have all the while been ignorant of, or have connived at, them.

In either case, the fact is disgraceful. If they have been ignorant, all the while, it shows that the machinery of the government is totally inadequate to its purposes. What is the use of the checks and guards of our financial system, if they cannot show the true state of the accounts of every public officer? If Fowler could steal—steal continuously for four years—as it is admitted he did, and those who audited and settled his accounts, weekly and quarterly, were unable to detect the theft, the knowledge of that fact is a temptation to every officer in the public service. Under such a system there can be no such thing as confidence. The government, for all that it can show to the contrary, may be a perfect den of thieves.

On the other hand, if the departments have connived at these defalcations, the fact is none the less disgraceful. It seems, however, to be more charitable to suppose that this instead of the other was the case. The fear of party injury if the fact were discovered, and the vain but natural hope that the delinquent might eventually come out all right, may have acted strongly upon the mere party hacks who now have control. But this does not help the matter any. The guilt of connivance remains.

The administration must take one or the other of the horns of this dilemma. They have either been ignorant of these frauds, and therefore sadly inefficient as guardians of the public trust, or they have wickedly connived at the wholesale stealing carried on under their noses. It matters but little under which count of the indictment judgment is entered up against them; but on one or the other they will most certainly be convicted.

The Douglas State Convention at Harrisburg.—There was a moderately full attendance of the Douglas politicians at Harrisburg, on the 26th, and the State Convention called for that day was quite as formidable, in point of character, as there was any reason to expect.

The Convention was called to order by B. J. Haldeman, upon whose motion Mr. G. Nelson Smith, of Cambria, was chosen temporary chairman. He didn't say much, his principal remark being that "never in the political history of the country was the Democracy of the Union so unfortunately divided—so emphatically riven asunder." We are sorry to hear it.

Hon. H. B. Wright, of Luzerne, was chosen President of the permanent organization. He declared that he had voted for 30 years for the Democratic ticket, but that he would never vote for such a mongrel electoral ticket as was proposed to be formed by the State Central Committee, and would rather shut up his house on election day and weep over the degeneracy of the Democracy.

Considerable difference of opinion prevailed as to the best course to pursue; some, Mr. Haldeman and Mr. Wright being of the number, were for forming a Douglas electoral ticket at once; others were for waiting awhile, to see what might turn up. Finally a resolution was adopted, which, after denouncing and protesting against the action of the State Committee, proceeds to say:

"That the proposed plan of the Democratic State Committee for fusion and compromise is anti-Democratic, will not be sanctioned by a full meeting of the Committee, and will be spurned by the Democratic masses, and in order, therefore, to test the truth of our convictions, we demand that at the meeting of the Democratic State Committee, to be held at Clarion on the 9th of August, it shall rescind its action of the 21 of July and proceed to interrogate the electors, if they are prepared to obey the instructions of the Reading Convention, and vote for the regularly nominated Democratic candidates of the party, Douglas and Johnson; and on replies of the electors, if vacancies occur by a refusal of any, then to call a convention of the Democratic party to complete the Electoral ticket, and pledge it to the constitutional support of regular organization and the regularly nominated candidates."

A resolution was also adopted that if the State Committee refuses to submit to this demand, the Douglas men will call a Convention and form an Electoral ticket for themselves.

So we will have to wait, for further particulars, until after the 9th of August.

Fayette County.—The Democrats of this county have nominated the following ticket:

Congress—L. Z. Mitchell.
Assembly—Jacob Zeigler, ——Barclay.
Sheriff—George Boyd.
Prothonotary—Thos. McLaughlin.
Register & Recorder—T. H. Tolly.
Clerk of Courts—G. H. Graham.
Commissioner—Arch. Martin.

Terrible.—The Washington Examiner has discovered that the Wide Awake organization is a military organization, intended to invade the South. What else can it be for, it asks. It is evident that the editor of the Examiner is not wide awake; he is talking in his sleep.

New Jersey.—The Douglas men, at their State Convention, nominated a full electoral ticket as follows:

Electors at Large—Messrs. Cook, of Hudson; Joel Parker, of Monmouth.

District Electors—1st District—Abram W. Nash, of Camden.
2d District—Moses Wills, of Burlington.
3d District—Joseph Vicat, of Warren.
4th District—Daniel S. Anderson, of Sussex.
5th District—Theodore Runyon.

The Breckinridge men adopted the following ticket:

ELECTORS AT LARGE.
Edwin A. Stevens. Peter D. Vroom.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.
1. John R. Sahler. 4—Benj. Williamson.
2. Chas. G. McChesney. 5 Wm. E. McDonald.
3. Peter I. Clark.

The Bell-Everett men sold out to the Breckinridge men. Their ticket is as follows:

ELECTORS AT LARGE.
C. G. McChesney, of Mercer.
Edmund Brewer, of Camden.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.
Dr. J. T. Woodhull, of Monmouth.
Wm K. McDonald, of Essex.
Peter I. Clark, of Hunterdon.
Cornelius Boyce, of Union.
John V. Beam of Passaic.

Messrs. McChesney, Clark and McDonald, all three straight Americans, are on both tickets. The other three names on the Bell ticket are put on as mere blinds, and will be dropped before November, the intention being to vote the ticket of the Breckinridge Convention, which is half for for Breckinridge and half for Bell. It is a regular bargain and sale.

The Houston men held a Convention on the same day, and nominated a full electoral ticket.

The Meteor.—The Philadelphia Bulletin says the meteor was not seen west of Philadelphia, but is mistaken. It was seen at Butler, only thirty miles north of here. The American of that place says:

"A most brilliant meteor illuminated the northern horizon on Thursday evening last. It started due north about forty five degrees from the horizon, and traveled very leisurely until it arrived almost due east; where it disappeared. It continued about ten or fifteen seconds, and much resembled in size and brilliancy the comet of '58."

It was seen also at Warren, Trumbull county, Ohio. A correspondent of the Cleveland Leader says:

"It passed from west to east, at a point seemingly about four or five degrees north of the zenith, and within the atmosph ere of the earth. The nucleus was about the size of a child's head, which radiated a light. At the nearest point to the observer, it presented a train or tail similar to a comet; the writer saw it for several degrees. It swept through the atmosphere in an almost horizontal course, its track or orbit being only slightly elliptical."

At Toronto the meteor had the appearance of a ball of fire about twelve inches in diameter. The Globe says "it travelled rapidly from west to east, and illuminated that part of the city over which it passed. Many persons on seeing the illumination were under the impression that some building was on fire."

The Uniontown Genius of Liberty is down on the Declaration of Independence. It had a sort of kind feeling for that document, at one time; but the Chicago Convention having endorsed it, the enormity of its sentiments have all at once become apparent. The Declaration of Independence must be abolished, and Douglas is the boy to do it. If the Chicago Convention had endorsed the Bible or the Ten Commandments, this astute locofoco paper would have found in that fact sufficient justification for assailing them also.

Gen. Walker Again on His Way to Nicaragua.

The next arrival from Honduras will no doubt bring definite information of the landing of Gen. Wm. Walker, with a small party of adherents, in Honduras, en route, via that isthmus and Guatemala, for his old stamping ground, Nicaragua. This last attempt is evidently the renewal of Walker's abortive expedition of the schooner Susan, which left Mobile about two years ago, and got wrecked in the effort to enter the port of Omoa, compelling the abandonment of the enterprise.

Gen. Walker arrived at the island of Ruatan about the 24th of June last, on board of the schooner John Taylor, where he was joined by about one hundred men, who had been gathering there for a month previous, dropping in slowly and in small squads so as not to attract attention, coming in fruit vessels and other straggling conveyances. The arrangements having been completed, the Dew Drop, in command of Capt. Dimon, suddenly landed some 50 men, while a steamer, reported to have on board the balance of the expedition, was lying off and on, without attempting to land.

On the 26th of June the whole party left the island on board the John Taylor, "destination unknown." A vessel, supposed to be the Taylor, was subsequently seen off Manger Keys, at the mouth of the Rio Rantan harbor, bound to the southward, the proper course for Omoa or Truxillo. The arrival of an English man-of-war at Ruatan is also announced, which, under ordinary circumstances, would look after the filibustering; but the political excitement existing in the island, in consequence of the transfer of the domain to the State of Honduras, and the need of their services to prevent the uprising of the populace against the change, will furnish the marines all the employment they will require without hunting after Walker.

Then, it is probable that the entire force will land at some secluded spot, and before any organized attempt can be made to attract their march, they will have made their way across Honduras. One of the Pacific vessels will probably receive the filibusters on board, and before news of their coming has preceded them, the invading forces will have landed at Realejo, prepared to move on Nicaragua. Another supposition is that Walker will find in Guatemala considerable reinforcements, which will enable him to pass rapidly through that State unmolested.

A person in the confidence of Gen. Walker, who recently spent several days in Nicaragua, states that the filibuster chief had a proclamation all prepared to be issued the moment he enters the country, in which a peaceful policy will be announced, and an amnesty will be granted for all past offence against the deposed President and his Government.

The past is to be wholly forgotten, and, if permitted to do so, the returning Chief is to inaugurate a career of exampled prosperity and progress for his favorite Nicaragua.

To elude the vigilance of the men of war stationed upon the Atlantic and Pacific coast, it has been given out that his expedition would attempt the Colorado branch of the San Juan River. The appearance of the filibusters at the island of Rantan, however, fully developes the plans which are to be adopted.—N. Y. Times.

Syria and Palestine.

A letter from Beyrout, of the 21st, to the Paris Debats, says:

"I have already informed you that Jahir Pacha had gone to Der-el-Kamar in order to compel the Druses to abandon the attack on that place.—Since then we have learned that he could not obtain that result, except by giving the latter the assurance that the Christians would not leave it on any pretence. Being tranquillized on that score, they turned their attention towards the three towns of Hasesbaya and Rachaia and made a vigorous attack on them, and the former fell into their hands. The inhabitants took refuge in the barracks, but they were not admitted without depositing their arms. Rachaia having resisted, the Druses were compelled to conclude a treaty of peace, but which, notwithstanding all the formalities had been gone through with the idea of making it lasting, did not continue in force for more than 24 hours, the town being again attacked at the expiration of that time.—The Christians, being taken unawares, were massacred and their houses pillaged and burnt. After completing their work at Rachia, the Druses returned to the barracks of Hasesbaya. The unfortunate people in it experienced the same fate as their neighbors; they were all slaughtered, and with them the Mussulman Governor and 32 members of his family, because they were descendants of the Cheab family, and protected the Christians against those horrible attacks. After the destruction of these two towns the Druses, accompanied by a great number of the Bedouins of the plain, Metualis, Mesaulmans, and other non-Christian sects, went to the town of Zahle, which could not afford any resistance. After the massacre of all the inhabitants, a French Jesuit Convent at the gates of the town was set fire to. Having accomplished this work, there only remained for them Deir el Kamr to put the finishing stroke to their atrocities. They attacked it with the greatest fury, and there now remains of it neither houses nor inhabitants. At the present time, the country which formed the Druse Kaimakamate does not contain a Christian, and the general expectation is that the Druses, reinforced by Mussulmans of all sects, will soon attack the other Christian countries—Hasbeya, Bockfeya, Castiawan, &c. Unless assistance be sent from abroad, the Christians of this country will soon be completely annihilated."

A letter from Jaffa, of the 21st ult., in the Gazette du Midi, says:

"Palestine already feels the effect of the horrible scenes enacted in Lebanon. No Christian of Damascus dares leave his house for fear of assassination. The Mussulmans of that great city, a body of 5000, Bedouin Lake are now arrayed in Christian and the neighborhood Bedouins are entertained for Nesareth and the towns in the interior."

The Campaign in California.—The Republicans of California have entered upon the canvass with a spirit that augurs success in November next. On the 21st ult., they held their State Convention, and nominated an excellent electoral ticket, consisting of Charles A. Washburn, Wm. H. Weeks, Charles A. Tuttle and Antonio Maria Pico. The Convention was well attended, and from all parts of the State the delegates brought up encouraging reports. It was conceded on all hands that Lincoln would poll a larger vote in the State than any other candidate that could have been named by the Chicago Convention. The Democracy are everywhere divided, and quarrelling among themselves. The "irrepressible conflict" has entered their ranks, and the struggle between the factions is bitterer, if possible, than before the murder of the gallant Broderick. The Republicans are organizing themselves into a compact body, with confident expectation of carrying the State.

What a Child Thought of the Meteor.—A little girl in Waltham who saw the meteor on Friday evening, innocently remarked that she "guessed our Heavenly Father thought 'twas Fourth of July." Her idea appeared to be that God was displaying his accomplishments in the pyrotechnic line for the benefit of mortals and she was not far out of the way.

Another Strong Recruit.—S. H. Salverda, who has been publishing a Democratic paper in the Dutch language at Waupon, Wis., has sold out his establishment at that place, and gone to Milwaukee where he intends to start a Dutch Republican paper. Mr. Salverda is enthusiastic for Lincoln and Hamlin, Free Labor and Free Speech.

Catarrh! Catarrh!! Catarrh!!! Catarrh!!!!

What is it? How Cured?

Thousands of persons suffer all sorts of annoyance from Catarrh. Most people know what its inconvenience and results are, but but few know that it can be cured. It is simply a chronic irritation and often enlargement of follicles and consequent thickening of the mucous membranes, lining the nasal cavities, frontal sinuses, and sometimes extending into the throat and lungs. From this result tightness and often vertigo of the head, obstructed nose, or a profuse flow of mucus, loss of smell, nasal voice, and often impaired hearing and taste.

The old school remedies have never been able to do any thing for it. Nasal injections and inhalations are as painful and expensive as they are generally worthless. Yet HUMPHREYS' CATARRH SPECIFIC, a simple Sugar Pill, taken two or three times per day, promptly cures the most severe cases at once all colds in the head, and radically cures, by persevering use, the most obstinate cases, as is proved by the experience of hundreds FAYETTE SPRINGS.

THE SUBSCRIBER, having taken a permanent lease of this popular
SUMMER RESORT,
Has had the buildings thoroughly refitted, with important additions, and the whole newly furnished. Being just over the Laurel Hill Mountain, in Fayette county, Pa., and a classical region of natural and historic interest, near the National Road, only eighty miles from Pittsburgh and about 6 Connellsville Railroad, on which two daily through trains are run—it is an easy, delightful and cheap route to the surrounding cities of Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

MOUNTAIN RETREAT.
The waters are strongly Chalybeate—a pure and powerful tonic. Warm and Cold Baths are attached. Also, a Bowling Alley and other appliances for healthful exercise and amusement. No gnats or mosquitoes.
Horses and carriages well cared for, with which guests can be furnished for excursions to the interesting localities. A post-office is near the Springs, supplied by daily mails during the season.
The long experience of the subscriber in catering to the comforts of his friends, emboldens him to promise entire satisfaction, in all respects, as well to abiding guests as transient visitors (charges moderate. All is now ready.
Open. Address ALFRED MOLMLAND,
