THREATS OF DISUNION.—The South is attempting to repeat the old game of 1850, which is simply to frighten the North into the election of a pro-slavery and free trade candidate for the Presidency. This is its manner in which the crafty and unscrupulous politicians have regulated the affairs of the nation, and controlled the action of all political parties except the Republican, for the past twenty years. Attributing the support which Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Indiana gave to Buchanan four years ago to their threats of secession and dissolution, in the event of the success of Fremont, they have been encouraged to try the same experiment this year. It will not, however, meet with the same success, for the reason that within that time events have transpired which have cast doubt on the sincerity of their windy declamations. It is not forgotten that the election of a Republican Speaker last winter was to be followed by a series of terrific demonstrations on the south side of the Potomac; and yet we all know that that event occurred without causing any unusual civil commotion.—These threats of distraction to the government are after the fashion of the Chinese system of warfare—which consists in hideous noises and ugly grimaces, as harmless as they are ridiculous. As far as their effect on the Northern people is concerned, Mr. Keitt and Mr. Yancy, and their doughface allies in the Northern States, may save their breath and their credit.—In an article designed to show that the disunion element of the South is nothing less than the renewal of an old plot to drive the North into a state of subjection. The Nashville Patriot refers to Gov. Wise's treasonable letter of the 15th of September, 1859, to none but the Governors of Democratic States, in which he proposes a formal Convention of those gentlemen at Raleigh, to take measures for resisting the inauguration of Col. Fremont, whose election then appeared certain. The circulation of this letter had the desired effect in Pennsylvania, and the Democratic Governors laughed in their sleeves at the credulity of Northern opinion. Finding, however, that they had caught a Tartar in Mr. Buchanan, who, though the willing servant of certain Southern politicians, did not take the bellicose Governor of Virginia into his confidence, and the Governor's cronies, Yancey & Co. they organized a scheme to force the administration into their measures, by threats of dissolving the government even in the hands of the facile creature at the head of it.

The Patriot then refers to the efforts of the factions to get up an excitement, and explain how they conducted their operations:

"The machinery of Southern Conventions was resorted to, and the public memory will easily revert to the Montgomery and Vicksburg assemblies, in which the vilest treason against the Federal government was spouted vogue ad nauseam. Men in favor of those bodies that a Mr. Spratt immortalized his queer name, by the advocacy of the re-opening of the African slave trade, either within or without the Union, and threatened to make the plains of the South another Lexington and Concord, if the General Government dared to take their newly imported African slaves from them. He was followed by Mr. Bonham, formerly a member of Congress from Mississippi, who swore that his State would open the African slave trade re-opened, either peaceable or forcible. This vacillation of their politicians was followed by Lamar's slave-trading voyages in the 'Wanderer.'

"The next step taken by these Conspirators, was the Formation of the 'Southern Party,' the programme of which was promulged in August, 1858. The constitution urged the deliberate secession of the Union at once, and provided for a provisional government of the withdrawing States. Senator Iverson, of Georgia, in his speech in the Senate of the 6th of January, 1859, alluded to this scheme, and said it depended on its execution solely on the contingency, that they would not elect their own President in 1860. Then came the movements of the legislatures of South Carolina and Alabama, the latter of which appropriated $200,000 for the contingency named.

"Under these threats—all designed to operate on Northern opinion against Mr Douglas—came Mr. Yancy's letters and edicts in April, 1860, which were followed up by decrees to the same effect by the State Conventions of Texas and Louisiana. The more recent exhibitions of treasonable sympathies, beginning with the action of the Charleston Convention and coming down to the present hour, the Nashville Patriot handles with rare skill, but as they are so fresh in the public mind, they need little more than a reference to them. The whole animus of the conspiracy, is to be found in the language of Robert C. Reed, of Alabama, who enforced the claim of Breckinridge at Richmond, with the war cry of 'Protection for Slavery in the Territories or Disunion.'"

THE MARYLAND SENATORIAL DISTRICT.—The Vicksburg Citizen hails the name of J. Harvey Robinson, of Mercer, for Senator, and says that Mr. Pennell, has promptly signified his determination to withdraw his name, in accordance with his pre-expressed intention, and will this week come out in a card formally declining to be considered a candidate.

—Since the above was written we have received the New Castle Gazette, containing Mr. Pennell's letter. He withdraws manfully, like a good Democrat, as he is, and pays a merited compliment to Mr. Robinson.

CONGRESSMEN IN CONGRESS IN PHILADELPHIA.—The Philadelphia North American of Friday last says this assemblage is thick as whortle berries.—They are of all shades of merit, character, pretensions, politics, &c. We do not remember ever to have seen such an indiscriminate rush into the arena, as is now visible. If, however, conventions be guided by any ordinary rules of discrimination, they will not have much difficulty in selecting from this mass the few really available and desirable candidates.

MASS CONVENTION.—The Erie [illegible] the time for the great Republican Convention at Erie has been [illegible] Sept. 12th.

[illegible] from our knowledge [illegible] glorious demonstration [illegible] year was for the [illegible]

State Ko. [illegible] people [illegible] county, [illegible]

GOV. SEWARD TO BE IN PITTSBURGH.—We are glad to hear that there is a certainty of having a speech from Gov. Seward in Pittsburgh, this summer. The Auburn Union is authorized to say that Mr. Seward will meet the Republicans of Michigan on Saturday, Sept. 1; of Wisconsin, on Saturday, Sept. 8; of Minnesota, on Saturday, Sept. 15. On his return, he will fill engagements already made, by calling in the State of Illinois where the State Committee shall appoint, and also at Cleveland, Ohio; Pittsburgh, Pa., and at Fredonia and Ro Bay, in that State. The days for these latter places are to be determined when he shall have ascertained the probable time required in the North-West.

If, therefore, we are to have Mr. Seward, here, at our big Convention, the time originally fixed, Sept. 6th, must be changed. The Republican Committee having this matter in charge will, of course, take action upon it on Wednesday.

LEBANON COUNTY.—The Republicans of Lebanon have nominated the following ticket:

Congress—John W. Killinger, Lebanon.
Senate—Amos R. Boughter, Lebanon.
Assembly—Jacob L. Bixler.
Recorder and Clerk of Sessions—John H. Miller.
Register—Henry Grose.
Clerk of Orphan's Court—Andrew Light.
County Commissioner—Robt. Evans.
Director of the Poor—John E. Bowman.
Auditor—Ulrich Burkholder.

Mr. Killinger is the present member, and having already received the nomination in the other counties in his district, may be considered as unanimously renominated. He is an excellent representative, and the compliment thus tendered him is well deserved.

The nomination for Senator has also been conceded to Lebanon by Dauphin county, and Mr. Boughter is therefore nominated by the district. He is a young man of much ability and will make a useful member of the Senate. His election is certain.

The Trial and Acquittal of Judge Terry.
[From the San Francisco Bulletin, July 11th.]

As we have before stated, Judge Terry's trial was fixed to come off before the District Court at San Francisco, Judge Hardy presiding, on Friday. The following witnesses received subpœnas to be present and testify at the trial, viz: Chief Burke, Capt. J. Lees, Coroner McNulty, Dr. Holman, Leonidas Haskell, Henry Fritz, and James H. Gilliam.

These witnesses, accompanied by Alexander Campbell, Assistant District Attorney of this county, started for San Leandro, on Friday morning, in yacht Restless, about 7 o'clock.—The subpœnas were returnable at 10 o'clock, and as the trip usually occupies about two hours, the witnesses say they expected to get there in ample time. But the Restless was becalmed in the bay, and it was nearly 12 o'clock before her passengers, reach San Rafael.

At nine o'clock precisely, according to the time of the officers of Court at San Rafael, which was in advance of the watches of the people generally, Judge Hardy opened the Court. Terry's case was immediately called. He was ready with his counsel, Messrs. Hoge and Crittenden, and his witnesses, who had gone over the day before in the steamer. The Court then proceeded to empanel a jury with great haste. Out of the fifteen men, twelve jurors were selected the defence having challenged three peremptorily.

The prosecution was conducted by Mr. Harrison, District Attorney for that District. He did not ask any of the jurors a single question, or make the slightest objection to their being sworn in, as they were called. The panel was therefore completed in a few minutes. The following are a few names of those who served as jurymen: Gilbert Leonard, Grenada King, Jonathan Brockerstaff, Mathias Blowers, James Olcott, Parker N. Coard, Solomon Heles, James B. Stafford, Charles Lauff, Benjamin Miller, and Hiram J. Knott.

When the last juror had been sworn in the Judge directed that the case should be proceeded with. The District Attorney stated that no witnesses for the State were present, and asked for a short delay, to give them time to arrive. Judge Hardy refused to grant any delay. The District Attorney was then admitted the case to the jury without any proof. The Judge charged the jury, that, in the absence of proof, they must bring in a verdict of not guilty. The jury immediately returned a verdict of "Not Guilty," which was recorded, and Judge Terry was discharged from further custody. All this was done in less than an hour—or a few minutes before 10 o'clock, as we learn from respectable witnesses on the spot.

At a little before 12 o'clock, the State's witnesses reached San Rafael, a "day after the wedding." They found Judge Terry and his friends in high glee at his easy acquittal. Some of the jurymen were "steaming up" considerably, at the bars. One, who had served his country in rendering the verdict, exclaimed, with filthy oaths, that he never could have been made to find a man guilty who had only killed his enemy in a duel! Most of the jury seemed to be taking also but members of the Peace or Dashaway society.

Terry has spent seven or eight days at San Rafael, keeping open house, and making popularity with the "boys" who sat on his jury, by a liberal expenditure of drinks and flattery. On the Fourth of July he delivered a short speech to his "friends." In short he has been the greatest "lion" in the neighborhood of the Penitentiary for a long time.

The witnesses who went over in the Restless were prepared to prove the fact that Terry killed Broderick in the duel, so conclusively that nothing but positive perjury on the part of the jury could have prevented them finding him guilty under the statute. It was a lucky trick, then, to get him off without any proof being taken. Terry's lawyers were going to try to make it appear that the doctors killed Broderick by giving him chloroform. A "snap-judgment" served them better.

OIL.—We have been informed by credible persons that the Freedom oil co., have struck a good vein of oil in their well near Davis' Furnace, on the river, at the depth of about 200 feet.—They will pump it as soon as they can procure a pump.

Childs & co., are also sinking a well near the furnace with prospects of success.

One day last week a strong oil spring was found on the farm of David Smith in Sandycreek township. The river at the time it was found, was very low, and along the beach for some distance, the grease was found to be thoroughly cemented together and on digging through this cement, there were found large quantities of oil, and on sinking a hole down to the water, the oil immediately covered the surface of it. It is considered by all who have visited it to be one of the best springs yet found.

We visited the springs on Saturday afternoon and were surprised at the amount of oil found.

We have also been told that a similar spring has been found on the farm formerly belonging to Mr. Porter.

The well of Mr. Crawford & co., on the Hilands farm, two miles above town is reported to be yielding a gallon and a half per minute.

This well is 894 feet deep, and has cost the proprietors a great deal of money, but is a short time it will be replaced at the rate of yield.—We wish such men abundant success. The determined never fail.

The well of Mr. Grear of which we spoke last week instead of yielding a small vein of oil as was first supposed, has since proved to be a good one, and will no doubt yield an abundance of oil.

The company that are boring on the Island have struck a number of veins of oil but are still boring.—Venango Spectator.

ORNITHOLOGICAL.—Rattle snakes are more numerous in the vicinity of this town this year than we have ever known them to be. On last Sunday Mr. C. F. Huston killed two very large ones, upon the rocks, a short distance from Hugh Dennison's mills. Mr. H. also succeeded in capturing alive one with seven rattles on its tail. A Mr. Crane killed another snake of the same species, on the same day, near the spot where those mentioned above were taken.—Ib.

A young son of John Stahl of Somerset township was bitten by a snake one day last week. He trod upon it while walking in a field. The lad was seriously poisoned, but we believe is now out of danger.

Mr. Jos. Postlethwaite, on last Thursday, killed an enormous 'rattle-tail' snake—regular whopper.

From a private source we have the following which we think is too melancholy to be true. A party of five young men in Cambria county were upon the Allegheny mountains, some ten days since gathering whortleberries. Before they were aware of it, they found themselves in the midst of a den of rattle-snakes, surrounded by the venomous reptiles! Every man in the party was bitten! Two died before they could reach home! Too sadly by far.—Sun. Herald.

THE GOSPEL IN BURMAH.—The Mission of the American Baptist Union among the Karenns in Burmah, has a wonderful history. Only thirty years ago the first convert was baptised, and now the number of church-members is over fifteen thousand, and the natives under regular Christian instruction amount to more than one hundred thousand. The nation at Tongoo was commenced about seven years ago, by a native preacher, and in two years there numbered in that place 2,000 converts.

A Deposit State Convention was held on the 25th ult., at Nashville, Tennessee, and an electoral ticket nominated, at the head of which is William G. Fyle, the brother of the late President.

WASHINGTON, AUG. 2.—The leading Democratic politicians of Virginia are greatly exercised concerning the split in their party upon presidential candidates. They are now devising the means to get up a public opinion in favor of a joint electoral ticket, which shall give the vote of the state to either Breckinridge or Douglas, according as it may be necessary to elect either.

Gov. Letcher is one of the most active of the politicians who are attempting to cook up this arrangement. He announces a failure to elect the democratic ticket as fraught with dangers to the Union, etc., etc.—the old cry wherewithal men were wont to be frightened: "If we don't rule, then chaos." To an unprejudiced and unimpassioned observer, a thorough-going reformation of political parties in Virginia does not appear to be so great a calamity as in the eyes of old politicians that have controlled offices and honors there, time out of mind, it appears to be.

THE TENTH MASS MEETING.—There was a tremendous mass meeting at Tiffin on Wednesday. It is estimated that the number in attendance could not have been less than from 25,000, to 30,000. Speaking from three stands was going on at the same time in the grove. Cassius M. Clay, Hon. John Sherman, and Hon. J. M. Ashley being the speakers. At night there was a great torchlight demonstration, and Gov. Dennison addressed a huge mass of living Republicans from the steps of the Court House, while at the same time Hon. T. H. Scot was holding forth in the new wigwam, a large, fine building.—Ohio State Journal.

HARRISBURG, August 2.—Thirty-one members, constituting a majority of the late Democratic Convention, of Dauphin county, have published a protest against the irregularity of the proceedings of that body, charging Mr. John Haldeman, the President, with partiality, and alleging outside ruling.

It will be remembered that the Convention adopted resolutions favoring a straight Douglas electoral ticket, and opposing any other.

THE HON. ISAAC O. BLOS, the Republican candidate for Congress from the Eighth District of Indiana, died on Wednesday, after an illness of 36 hours.

Catarrh! Catarrh!! Catarrh!!! Catarrh!!!!
What is it? How Cured?

Thousands of persons suffer all sorts of annoyance from Catarrh. Most people know what its inconvenience and results are, yet but few know how it can be cured. It is simply a chronic irritation and often a enlargement of follicles and consequent thickening of the mucous membranes, lining the nasal cavities, frontal sinuses, and sometimes extending into the throat and lungs. From this result tightness and often vertigo of the head, obstructed nose, or a profuse flow of mucus, loss of smell, nasal voice, and often impaired hearing and taste.

The old school remedies have ever been able to do any thing for it. Nasal injections and inhalations are as painful and expensive as they are generally worthless. Yet Hunphreys' Catarrh Specific, a simple Super Pill, taken two or three times per day, promptly cures the milder cases—cures as certain as cold on the head, and radically cures, by preserving use, the most obstinate cases, as is proved by the experience of hundreds.

FAYETTE SPRINGS.

THE SUBSCRIBER, having taken a permanent lease of this popular

SUMMER RESORT,

Has had the buildings thoroughly refitted, with important additions, and the whole newly furnished. Being just over Laurel Hill Mountain, in Fayette county, Pa., amid a cluster of scenes of natural and historic interest, near the National Road, only eighty miles from Pittsburgh and eight from Uniontown—in the present terminus of the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad, on which two daily through trains are run—it is an easy and attractive transition from the toils and heat of summer in town and city, to the healthy surroundings of a MOUNTAIN RETREAT.

The waters are strongly Chalybeate—a pure and powerful tonic. Warm and cold Baths are attached. Also, a Bowling Alley and other appliances for healthful exercise and amusement. No gnats or mosquitos.

Horses and carriages well cared for, with which guests can be furnished for excursions to the interesting contiguous localities. A post-office is near the Springs, supplied by daily mail during the season.

The long experience of the subscriber in catering to the wants of his friends, emboldens him to promise entire satisfaction to all respects, as well to abiding guests as transient visitors. Charges moderate. All is now ready. Address ALFRED WORTHINGTON,
