ALL THE VIRTUES OF

ELECTRICITY AND WATER COMBINED.

THE above cut is a representation of DR. KARSHNER'S POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE ELECTRO-THERAPEUTIC BATHS, for which he has obtained letters patent from the Patent Office of the United States. These Baths have been in successful operation for the last two years, in many of our principal towns and cities, during which time hundreds of patients have testified their astonishing powers with signal success. Dr. K. challenges the entire medical world to produce any one system or combined set of systems, that will cure as many diseases, and in as short a time, as his Electric Baths alone, when rightly administered. The scientific minds of all professions are cordially invited to call, examine and test for themselves.

The duration of each Bath, the temperature of the water, and the strength of the electric current, are varied according to the disease, the condition of the patient at the time, and the effects desired. The water is about blood heat, and the electricity so graduated as to produce nothing but pleasurable sensations.

There is no class of Diseases, either Acute or Chronic, to which they are not adapted—which do not yield at once to their all pervading and health-restoring influence. The aged and decrepid have been led, voluntarily, to testify that they felt many years younger, and slept better than they had done for years. Others have been cured of painful diseases in a few Baths.

For the their beneficial effects seem to be confined solely to the physical man; they have an equally happy influence upon the mental faculties, making them a most efficient means in the treatment of Insanity and all abnormal mental conditions.

Among the diseases successfully treated by Dr. K's Bathe are: Incipient Consumption, Neuralgia, Epilepsy, Palsy, (Fits,) Insanity, Delirium Tremens, St. Vitus' Dance, Curvature of the Spine, Rheumatism, Mercurial Diseases, Weakness in the Back and Kidneys, Female Weakness, Genital Head Ache, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Weak Eyes, Partial Deafness, Dyspepsia, Gravel and other Urinary and Genital Diseases, Falling of the Womb, Leucorrhea, and other Female Derangements, Fever, Fever and Ague, etc. etc.

These Baths are in successful operation at

WHEN completed six years ago the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, commodious, and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then it remains to day—without a rival in size, in sumptuousness, and in the general excellence of conduct and management. The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guests, including 100 complete suits of apartments for families. Six hundred can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three superb dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house for large and elegant, yet well ordered hospitality, its superb appointments, and its home-like comforts and luxuries, has been sustained every year by the unwearied exertions of the proprietors. BOOK OF THE FAIR.

THE SUBSCRIBER, would respectfully announce that, with the approbation and countenance of the

Allegheny County Agricultural Association,

He will publish on Sept. 24, in time for the opening of the

ALLEGHENY COUNTY FAIR,

To be held Sept. 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th, a volume bearing the above title, containing

THE BOOK OF THE FAIR

will contain a full historical account of the origin and progress of the Association, Statistics of its various Exhibitions, and much other interesting matter, relative to Allegheny County, and the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, with Fine Lithographic Views of many of our Public Buildings and Churches.

Also, a fine Octavo View of the Two Cities and Vicinity, now engraving by William Schuchman.

TEN THOUSAND COPIES of this ensuing book will be issued and ready for the opening of the Exhibition.

of the volume will be devoted to a historical and statistical account of the various establishments in which Manufactured articles on exhibition may have been made, with full descriptions of the articles exhibited.

As the book will be in the hands of the majority if not nearly all the visitors to the Fair, the shrewd business man, mechanic or agriculturist will see the great advantage to himself in a proper description of his wares, patent or stock, through the pages of this volume, by taking

and having a neat and correctly written notice thereof intelligently prepared and nicely printed in the pages of the BOOK OF THE FAIR.

As an introduction to a large number of persons of any business or manufacturing establishment, this volume, from its permanent character, is desirable. Not only will its good effects during the continuance of the Fair, amply compensate for the expense incurred in obtaining publicity in its pages, but as, from its Historical, Statistical and Illustrated character, it will naturally pass from hand to hand, and be continued for and wide, it is at once apparent to any shrewd business man that it offers unusual advantages for such as would strikingly call the attention of establishments, wares, patents or stock to the attention of the public.

As the whole matter of the book must be prepared and printed, and the volume issued at least one day previous to the opening of the Fair, it is therefore that all parties desiring insertions of the pages must make application soon to the publishers.

All communications addressed to the publishers.

All letters addressed to the subscribers, Cape Island, New Jersey, will be promptly attended to.

R. ERRETT & CO.,

FIFTH STREET, ABOVE SMITHFIELD.

PITTSBURGH:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 15.

PERHAPS A COTTON CRISIS.—Our Southern friend in their confident and careless talk about an independent confederacy, just inhales a taste by their agonies of cotton. They affirm (and not without some truth) that their cotton export is a vital element of wealth and power upon which they may rely for holding their own in the Union or out of it. Now, we certainly have no wish to depreciate the importance to the North and to civilization generally of the South and her cotton, but precisely because we have no such wish, do we beg leave to call the attention of Southern men to the grave fluctuations to which cotton itself is liable, in the movements of commerce—fluctuations of which the effect sweeps from Liverpool to New York and from New York to New Orleans, and which, as the Union can only partially relieve them, so Disunion must aggravate rather than arrest their evil courses.

At the present moment, for instance, the South is threatened with something not unlike a financial crisis. She already admits an excessive failure in her crops of corn, to be met from the teeming granaries of the northwest. But to buy corn, for the South is to sell cotton, and how stand her prospects here? At the last advices an unprecedented stock was accumulated in Liverpool of some 1,200,000 bales on a decline in prices of from $12@$16 per bale. Political complications gathering over Europe make it highly probable that the activity of the English factories will hardly reach its recent average during the next twelve months, while there are fair grounds for anticipating an average crop in the cotton producing States. The rates of money at New Orleans for the past two or three weeks have ruled high, and are raising rather than declining, and heavy obligations of southern planters to the bigger dealers of the frontier States falling due through the early autumn. Suppose all these elements of pressure, intensified by a political convulsion, and what would become of the immediately available resources of our cotton State secessionists.—N. Y. Times.

ANOTHER SENSIBLE AMERICAN.—Judge Wilson of Chicago, has written a letter on the duty of Americans in the present crisis. He has been a prominent man in the Democratic party, but now says that he cannot see the least chance for either Messrs. Bell or Everett, even should the election go to the House. Mr. Breckinridge, he believes, would perpetuate the corruptions of the present administration. Mr. Lincoln, on the other hand, is honest and capable. He can be charged with neither selfishness. With less reason than either Douglas or Breckinridge; so Judge Wilson has determined to labor for his election as an American, to the best of his ability, although he does not indorse all the doctrines of the Republican party.

We doubt whether so large and enthusiastic a political meeting has ever before been witnessed in the United States, as this at Springfield on Wednesday.

Good judges—men whose reputation as good calculators is established, estimate that the number present must have been full one hundred thousand—rather over than under that figure.

We challenge the Douglasites of all the States of the North West combined to get up a meeting equal to it. They can't do it. They know they can't do it.—Chicago Tour.

DOUGLAS ON CLAY.—Douglas, in his letter of acceptance, asks this question: "Where shall be found another Clay, to pilot the ship of State over the breakers into the haven of peace and safety?" The "little giant" thought he could say thus much of the dead Clay; but when Mr. Clay was a candidate for President in 1844, Douglas made a speech at Carrollton, Mo., in which he said:

"Henry Clay was a black hearted villian—the first American that had ever been bought with British gold to sell his country."

Mr. Clay's friends will, of course, vote for the man who uttered this libel.—Daily Saratogian.

The Wellsburg Herald, notices the death of an old lady—Mrs. Wells—in her 91st year of her age. She came to Brooke county from Maryland, when about two years old, and has resided ever since on the farm where she died. She could well remember and correctly relate many of the Indian tragedies and acts of cruelty on the frontier, in this region, in which her father was a prominent actor in defence of the settlers. When she was a child—she having built a fort on his farm for the protection of the neighborhood. She was interred in a vault on her own farm, prepared under her own directions many years ago, for the remains of her father and herself.

A VERY SHORT TURN.—The Wabash Intelligencer tells a strange story of the editor of the democratic paper of that place, the Plaindealer. It says his paper came out last Saturday morning crowded full of Douglasism and denunciations of the republicans, and yet the night before the editor had signed his name to the constitution, and become a member of the Wabash Republican Club!!! As he wrote the editorial during the day or the week preceding the day of publication, his union with the club at night was a pretty "short turn," to say the least of it.

MR. DOUGLAS, in a recent speech at Burlington, Vermont, made a casual allusion to the privations and labors of a settler in a new country —"one who has to make his own fences and "split his own rails." The Burlington Free Press says: "The incidental application brought out a hearty and general round of acclamation from all over the house, which told the speaker at once where he was, and that his assembly in the main had their hearts on Abraham Lincoln, and not on Stephen A. Douglas."

THE New York Herald says of Douglas' Concord speech:

In the main, this speech of Mr. Douglas reminds us of a famous speech on the slavery question, delivered in Congress many years ago by Mr. McDowell, then a member of the House from Virginia. An outsider, who had been among his listeners, seized the opportunity of the adjournment to express to a colleague of the orator, a very high opinion of the speech. "Oh, yes," was the response, "I always did admire that speech of the Governor's."

ANOTHER ACCESSION.—We learn that among the vast throng who visited the home of Lincoln on the 8th, to manifest their respect for him and his principles, there were few, if any, more earnest than Judge L. B. Otis, formerly of Fremont, and Democratic Judge of Common Pleas in this Circuit. He makes no concealment of his support of the Republican ticket. The fact that his residence for several years at Chicago has given him good opportunities to learn the characters of Lincoln and Douglas gives additional weight to his preference for "Honest Abe."

CLEARFIELD BANK.—The Directors of the Clearfield County Bank, met on Saturday evening, August 4th, in this Borough, and elected Hon. Richard Shaw, President and James B. Graham, Esq., Cashier.—Hoffsman.

ENLISTMENTS.—Of twenty thousand persons who applied for enlistment in the United States army last year, only eighteen hundred were physically qualified for admission. The average number of candidates accepted is one to every nine who apply.

COTTONOCRACY.—The Union Herald remarks: The Chicago Zouaves, representing the free West, were not noticed by the merchants of New York, nor a dollar subscribed for their benefit. The Savannah Blues, representing Cottondom, were presented with $2,500, and feasted and toasted, by the adulators of slavery in the commercial metropolis. The Zouaves are the best drilled organization in the world—the Blues only an ordinary military organization.

THE CONNECTICUT PRESS.—There are now published in this state thirty-seven weekly newspapers, sixteen dailies, one semi-weekly, two monthly, and one semi-occasional. Of these nineteen are for Lincoln and Hamlin, five or four and a half for Douglas and Johnson, one—the semi-occasional—for Breckinridge and Lane, and five democratic, office holding papers, for nobody openly, but against Douglas. Of the remainder, three are religious, one agricultural one financial, and one or two "miscellaneous."—Hartford Times.

STILL ANOTHER.—We learn that J. R. Tyler, Esq., of this city, heretofore an active Douglas Democrat, after listening to the able and convincing speech of Mr. Hassaurak, last evening, declared his purpose to vote for Lincoln and Hamlin, and co-operate with the Republican party. Mr. Tyler has done considerable labor in the Democratic ranks, as speaker and otherwise, and we are pleased to note this change in his political course.—Toledo Blade.

THE POSITION OF GOV. OLDEN OF NEW JERSEY.—A writer in the Trenton Gazette states that Gov. Olden expresses himself unreservedly in favor of Lincoln and Hamlin—thus refusing the sanction that he intended to support Bell and Everett. The writer says:

Whatever may have been his views of the Fill
