THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 16, 1860.

THE CHEVALIER BAYARD of the Pope's dupes is told in a Dublin paper:—"A young gentleman possessed of an independent income was induced by the Pope's clerical recruiting officers to join the grand army of Invincibles which was to preserve the Papacy in spite of itself. He was guaranteed a commission, and already dreamed of a Marshal's baton. He furnished himself at the suggestion of the tempter, with a very handsome uniform, green and gold, and set sail for Civita Vecchia. In defiance of the Pope's belief that honors and rank were upon him. Yesterday we had an interview with him, and it was, indeed, difficult to recognize him. He was lean, age stricken, feeble and squalid. He was dressed like a decayed scrobat whose properties had been seized. As long as he traveled through France and Austria, and his money lasted, he managed to live; but since he reached the Papal territories he had a more vivid idea of purgatory than any dogmatic theology could give him.

At Macerata, a town most appropriately named, his splendid uniform was furnished and sold by auction. In exchange he was furnished with an old flannel shirt, and an indiscribable pair of knee breeches. That was the uniform of the Pope's Irish brigade. He had reserved a second shirt, and was poor, unfortunately, tempted to display it, when thus, too, was sold by drumhead auction. He found that remonstrance only subjected him to extra drill and threats of the bastinado. The drill was more severe than the Austrian, for it was a discipline involving such severe punishments for disobedience that numbers of Irish have already been shot down by Lamoriciere, others have been dogged, and many have been sent to till the sands of Algeria. Once he had, with others, to march thirty miles with nothing to eat or means to procure any. Every day he was given by an agent of the Pope four copper coins, about the size of a half-penny, bearing the arms of Pio Nono on one side, and an inscription testifying that its value is two baiocca on the other. Even in the Roman territories little could be got for four baiocca. The recipient was, at the utmost, able to procure some macaroni and salt, no pleasant food to an independent Irishman. His health naturally gave way, and at last he managed to procure his release. The man who went away in splendid uniform, full of hopes, and in robust health, landed on Monday on our quays, in the remains of the flannel shirt and breeches, so worn down that nobody could identify him.

NAPLES A NEW JERUSALEM.—Naples continues to be in a state of wonderment at its sudden transformation into a new Jerusalem. Not only have the police harpies and furies disappeared, but the magistracy, the bench, the functionaries in every department have been changed, any alteration being sure to be a boon. The men of 1848 are now sought out for office, not for torture and imprisonment. The dungeons have given up to daylight captives who have lingered there ever since Mr. Gladestone's visit a dozen years ago. Fourteen young men (now grown gray) have emerged from sepulchral durance, to which the mere fact of having been at college with Agesilao Milano had consigned them. Athanasio Dramnia, a soldier who had no insignificant note found on his person de Milano's written, had not heard a human voice or seen the light of the sun for the last six years in the vaults of Maria Apparata. No sooner had he realized the idea of his freedom than his first impulse was to start for Garibaldi. While the Bourbon Catholic infidels (one of the "iron that had entered his soul." One sufferer was found insane, and none could tell his history, save that he had been seven years entombed in the Vicaria, and the register indicated his having been sent hither by Antonelli after three years' previous incarnation at Rome.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Restoratives and Hair Preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we are pounded in show windows and newspaper columns, are the result of unprincipled, unscrupulous and knavish humbugs of the first water, their real merit, when analyzed, being worth just about the price of the bottle. LORD LARD WASH OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint bottles, the smallest character of tonics; and when these are neatly, one-horsishly and with some tricklishly arrayed, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. It is a preparation before the world without any "high falutin" Xlliphistrian, or any other astounding or alarming catch-penny terms; no astounding assertions. Its ingredients are simply advertised as Hair Restorative, and it restores dead hair—and not a Restorative to-day, and a Dye to-morrow, as applied to the dead hair, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,

Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,

with moist Skin, Grow on Bald Heads,

It will cure all Humoral Affections,

Will remove to once all itching,

Will cure all Dandruff,

Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,

Will, for all time, prevent young hair from turning gray,

Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,

Will always Fasten it and stop its Falling,

And is one of the best Pyrifial Articles for the Hair now in use.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE
PILLS OF IRON

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by the agency of HYDROGEN IN THE NASCENT STATE. Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and the general public, have pronounced it the best preparation of Iron ever discovered.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, deficiencies of vital energy, pale and sickly looks, and complexions indicate its necessity in almost every case of disease. Hence, this is all sufficient in which it has been used, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Hall Stones, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatoid Pains, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, the trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor writers' admiration would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become fixtures in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from a foreign clime. Fevers in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated, veiling in apparent consumption, and who, after using this Iron, have found that the complications of nervous and dyspeptic sweaten to air and exercise by which the physician has a share.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron is most decisively beneficial, for, unlike the old tasteless Iron vigorously tonic, it does not only exciting and even heating and greatly, regularly aperient, even to the most delicate cases of constipation, without any of the usual gastric palpitation, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is in this latter property, among others, which make it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles; upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, Insurmountable as non-life causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often suffered for the most habitual nausea, healing the attendant flatulence.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when attended to Dysentery, tenderness, cramping, and apparently malignant, the effects have been speedily decisive and astonishing.

In the local pales, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and constitutional hectic, which generally indicate, in cipient Consumption, these pills will be found a most efficient ally to Dr. Wood's Restorative for the Hair in the best article extant.

It Will, by Nature's own Process,

Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,

with moist Skin, Grow on Bald Heads,

It will cure all Humoral Affections,

Will remove to once all itching,

Will cure all Dandruff,

Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,

Will, for all time, prevent young hair from turning gray,

Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,

Will always Fasten it and stop its Falling,

And is one of the best Pyrifial Articles for the Hair now in use.
