FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 17.

REPRESENTATIVE MEN.—We have before us a catalogue of what are called "Representative Men for Douglas," commencing with Rev. Jedediah Barchard, the celebrated "Revivalist," and inked out with the names of John C. Saxe, George Bancroft, Edwin Forrest, Prof. Boynton, Edgar P. Poey, and Robert J. Walker. We recognize them all. Look now at the other side:

Of our American Poets, we know no names that rank above those of William Cullen Bryant; John Greenleaf Whittier; Henry W. Longfellow; James Russell Lowell, and Alfred B. Street, who are all for Lincoln. Of our best known Authors not known as Poets; Henry C. Carey; George William Curtis, Henry Ward Beecher, and Edmund Quincy, are for Lincoln. Of those who have honored our country by exploration at home or by observation abroad, John C. Fremont, Richard H. Dana, and B. G. Squier—If we may not name another who stands nearer to us—are for Lincoln. It is notorious that in all our most eminent Colleges and seminaries of learning, the Faculty and the Students are overwhelmingly for Lincoln. Of those who are widely beloved and respected for philanthropic devotion to the relief of human suffering, the obligation of mercy, a vast majority are for Lincoln. We might extend the catalogue; but it is needless.

GOOD OPINION OF ONE'S SELF.—If white people sometimes think negroes incapable of taking care of themselves, negroes sometimes think themselves smarter than white people.—Here is an amusing instance:

"The late Chief Justice Marshal, while riding one morning to Court, in his single carriage, his horse fell and broke a shaft. He was provided what to do. Tom, a neighboring negro waggoner, happening to drive up, he asked him if he could help him out of the difficulty. 'Oh, yes, massa, you'll lend me your knife. Tom took the knife and cut a sapling pole and grape vine from a neighboring thicket, with which he speedily spliced up the broken shaft. 'Now, Tom, said the judge, why did'nt I think of that? 'Oh, massa,' replied Tom, 'you know dat some people will has more sense dan oders.'"

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations for the hair boiled and fantastic titles are regarded in the shape of new cards, and newspaper headings, as their preparations, are all humbugs of no first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. Mrs. Lard's LARD OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, makes pp, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costliest character of tonics; and when thus coolly, are lapped with some trifyllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative This gentleman comes before the world without any high sounding Xilophilorium, or any other nonsensical or unmeaning jargon; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it proves to be, and for a time at Boston advertises it not. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as per valine your scalp, eye, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be, that you will find some worse substance than perfumed lard oil on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,

Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,

When made Bald from any cause, or Bald Heads,

Will restore the Natural Secretions,

Will remove at once all Itching,

Will remove all Dandruff,

Will cure all eruptions—even Scald Head,

Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,

Will prevent the Hair from Falling Off,

Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,

Will always Fasten it so it will not stop its Falling,

And is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

DR. MOTT'S
PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pain and otherwise intolerable nervousness instantly presently is almost every conceivable case. Innocuous in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved singularly curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Fever, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tubercles, Melancholy, Mind Consternation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaint, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fever, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of the nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this remedy will have proved essential to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just return d from protracted travel in distant lands. Cases very rigid, the existence of which are attested by females sufferers, emaciated victims of hysterics, nervousness, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic affection to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, while it is of a mildly vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, acts in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inducing a disagreeable sensation.

It is for this latter property, among others, which renders it so remarkably efficient and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tumors from which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, Innumerable as are its causes, a single box of the Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, alarming, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pallid, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and resistless hectic, which generally attracts the attention of parent Consumption, this remedy has altered the alarm of friends and physicians, to several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculæ, this medicament from its has had far more than the good effect of the most celebrated compounds or decoctions of lotions, without any of their well known fallacies.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restoratives in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported. In Gout, in Hysterics, pain and retarding the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fever it acts concurrently to a great remedy and energetic restorative, and in progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high reputation and value.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which could seek prompt, happy, and fully reliable effects. Power to restore complete digestion, regularity, circulation of strength, with an unusual disposition for appetite and cheerful vigor, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes, containing 50 pills or 100 pills per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free by mail on receipt of price. All letters must be addressed to the sole proprietor
