Pittsburgh Gazette.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 22, 1860.

Our readers will remember the attempt which was made to burn the Pittsburgh Gazette, and the heroic efforts of our brave firemen, who saved the building and its contents. We are glad to hear that the attempt has not been repeated, and that the paper is again published as usual.

DISSENT

The present season has been a most successful one for the dissenting churches in this city. The churches of the Baptist, Methodist, and Presbyterian denominations have all reported a large increase in membership and offerings. This is a most encouraging sign, and shows that the people are turning to God in these times of trouble.
