MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 27.

All for Patriotism and a Little for Money.

A writer in the Charleston Mercury broaches a scheme for the Southern Confederacy, to be composed of the six cotton States—(they give Virginia the cold shoulder)—Atlanta, Georgia, to be the seat of government—Memminger President, and Yancy Vice President—debts due Northern people to be sequestrated—standing army organized—and fifty thousand volunteers to be held in readiness, and more of such stuff.

One portion of this programme, the sequestration of debts due by Southern individuals to men in the North, takes amazingly well—no doubt with the free-eaters, a class of people who have generally manifested an aristocratic antipathy to the plebeian practice of paying debts. Probably some of them have got trusted by hotel keepers for their board bills in the Northern cities and at Northern watering places, and others are wearing hats and coats and breeches charged to them by credulous Northern hatters and tailors, and others have wine and dry goods procured on time from simple Northern merchants, and all these would like exceedingly to have a disruption of the confederacy involving "the sequestration of debts due Northern people." Such sequestration would suit their notions of chivalry exactly. Bilking a Yankee creditor would be the next most honorable thing in their estimation to killing a man in a duel or running a woman.

But we guess that Northern creditors would be just about as likely to collect their debts from most of those fellows if the Union were dissolved as they are now. There is a sort of private sequestration quite as effective as any public and official sequestration could be.—[Louisville Journal.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show windows cards, and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; that their principal ingredient, by far, is, that they do no harm. SOD'S LAUD, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and coloured, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and with first class bottles, the costliest character of tonics; and when thus costly, are bapti-ed with some trisyllable term, and bought at a high price and sold at both sores. Such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. The gentlemanly concert before the world without any "Hyle Salentur," Kliophotorism, or any other astounding and startling catchpenny terms; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it supposes, proclaims—and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalp, eye, your very brains, apply nothing else for it may be that you will get some worse substance than perfumed, lard oil on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative is the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,

Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,

Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads,

Will restore the Natural Secretions,

Will remove at once all itching,

Will remove all Dandruff,

Will cure all eruptions—even Scald Head,

Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,

Will make the old appear young again,

Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,

Will always Fasten it and stop its Falling,

And in short the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Inasmuch in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples in the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaint, one trial of this remedy will prove more successful to an extent which no description can write. Attention would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of the kind are attended of female sufferers, enacted victims of apparent nervousness, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic sensation to all and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old evident, it vigorously tonic without being exciting and overbearing and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is in this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably efficient and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which so usually exists.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills is often sufficient for the most habitual cases, including the strictest Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, unhealthy, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating perspirations, and resistant hectic, which generally attend Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly adapted to them.

Its stimulant, both chronic and inflammatory—in the febrile, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably found useful, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills; price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to
